

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

Vice-President Garner
Maneuvered Roosevelt's Tax Plan Into Open

WASHINGTON — The inside story of the President's maneuver to increase upper bracket taxation gives a great deal of credit—or in some people's opinion—discredit to Willy Jack Garner, bushy-browed Vice-President of the United States.

It all began early last December when Roosevelt was formulating his legislative program for the coming session of Congress. Inner council liberals urged him to include a bold tax revision plan.

But at that time the President was in the middle of a right swing, and attempting to conciliate business. He turned thumbs down on the proposal, and it remained shelved until early May.

By that time Roosevelt had become completely fed up with the business goodwill policy sold to him by his conservative advisers. And when the U. S. Chamber of Commerce kicked over the traces and violently denounced the New Deal the President abandoned all pretense of placating business.

Heart-To-Heart

It was at this moment that Garner, in one of his heart-to-heart talks with Roosevelt, told him he ought to come out with a hard-hitting tax program.

The idea took root in the President's mind. But it was not until some weeks later that he actually decided to act. Two things brought him to this resolution: (1) the Supreme Court's decision throwing out the NRA; and (2) the hostility of a number of Old Guard House Democrats toward his Holding Corporation Bill and the bill strengthening TVA.

Roosevelt has real fighting ire when aroused, and this time he was aroused. He had another private talk with Garner and told him he had decided to recommend tax legislation.

Garner Plan

"That's the stuff, Mr. President," enthused the beetle-browed Texan, "and I've got the plan for you."

Garner's plan was essentially the same one he had sponsored in 1926, when he was a member of the House Ways and Means.

Continued On Page Three

THREE STORIES OF ATTORNEY'S MURDER GIVEN

William Schweitzer, 26, Admits Shooting, Later Insists Man Suicides

THREE WOMEN HELD

Murder Charge to be Filed in Detroit

DETROIT, Mich., July 1—While William Schweitzer, pasty-faced young hoodlum, flippantly gave police three versions of the slaying of Howard Carter Dickinson, prominent New York attorney, County Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea announced that a murder warrant would be issued against the alleged killer today.

Three women, Florence and Loretta Jackson, 24 and 27 year-old reheaded sisters and Jean Miller, 24, who were arrested with Schweitzer when he was captured at Fort Wayne, Ind., were booked at police headquarters as material witnesses.

To "Protect Name," While preparing to prosecute Schweitzer, a "man of many aliases" and once acquitted of a murder charge, McCrea promised that "I will do all possible to protect the name of this man who is not here to defend himself against the stories told by Schweitzer and the women."

At the same time, McCrea stated, "I believe more can be told of this strange story."

Dickinson, a nephew of Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes of the United States Supreme court, who had come to Detroit to investigate the claim against the $40,000,000 estate of the late William Yawkey, lumber baron, was found shot to death on a lonely road Thursday morning.

In one of the three versions of Dickinson's death, the hoodlum, 26 years old, told police he had shot Dickinson during a scuffle for a gun that climaxed a dice game. In the other two he alleged the prominent New York attorney shot himself. Police said all of the statements were misleading.

Briefly his stories were:

1. He quarreled with Dickinson over $4 in a dice game. Dickinson threatened him with a gun and during the scuffle he was shot.

2. Dickinson shot himself. "I reached for the gun and got excited and shot him twice more," Schweitzer said.

3. "I heard a shot in the rear seat of the car. I reached for Dickinson when he was slumping to the floor. Then the gun went off again."

Stories Discounted
Stories given by the three women.

(Continued On Page Eight)

Marriage Licenses

Edward Follmer, 27, 334 W. Superior-st., St. Marie, Mich., machinist and Nelle Jane Doersam, Circleville.

Robert Paul Stewart, 22, 224 E. Blake-ave., Columbus, and Louise E. Farley Mt. Sterling Rt. 1.

PARISHIONERS FETE
LUTHERN PASTOR

Five Hundred Take Part in Surprise Program As Dr. Troutman Observes Fortieth Year as Minister, 37 of Them at Trinity Lutheran.

In celebration of the fortieth anniversary of his ordination and the thirty-seventh anniversary of his services as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, the congregation prepared and carried out a complete surprise for Rev. G. J. Troutman, D. D. Sunday afternoon and evening. A reception was held at the parish house at 5 p. m. followed by a buffet lunch at 6:15, and the anniversary service held in the church at 7:30.

HANNAN GONE,
CLOSE GARAGE

Automobile Dealers' Whereabouts Unknown; Receiver Is Appointed.

Kelly Hannan's whereabouts today was unknown and his garages here and in Lancaster were under supervision of Novel Pearson of Columbus, who was appointed receiver for the automobile dealer Saturday by Judge Frank Acton in Fairfield-co courts.

Hannan has not been seen since early last week.

The Hannan garage in the Brehmer building, N. Court-st., has been closed with no cars remaining there. Pearson said today that an appraisal will be made immediately and plans announced later.

The receivership was forced by the Colonial Finance Co. of Lima which is seeking a judgment of $5,740. The petition recites that two checks, one for $3,480 and another for $2,260 were written by Hannan on the Rushville Banking Co., payable to the finance company, but were not paid.

(Continued On Page Two)

HEAT WAVE HOLDS
STATE IN GRASP

COLUMBUS, July 1—The first genuine heat wave of the summer held Ohio and neighboring states tight within its grasp today, with little prospects of abating.

Generally fair was the forecast of the U. S. weather bureau for tonight and tomorrow, but momentary relief from the heat may be brought in scattered localities by local thundershowers.

The rocketing mercury reached 90 degrees Sunday in Columbus, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, but, benefiting by the welcome lake breezes, Clevelanders saw their thermometers rise no higher than 86.

Week-end electrical storms in this vicinity resulted in destruction of a barn on the farm of Orville Rader, near here at a loss of $2,000.

PARK MEETING
BEGINS AT 7:30

The meeting of the park committee will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the courtroom. A good attendance is expected since proposed sites for the park and recreation ground will be discussed with a selection possible.

Joe W. Adkins, Jr., chairman of the drive, announced Saturday that efforts are being made to increase the sum already on hand. The amount sought was $10,000.

NO PERMIT, FINED

E. O. Moon of Columbus was lodged in the county jail Monday for failing to pay $25 and costs for fishing with a reel and rod without a license. He was arrested along the canal by Game Protector Clarence Francis and was fined by Squire H. O. Eveland.

MERCURY AT 82

The high temperature for the city Sunday was 93 degrees. Dr. H. R. Clarke reported. Low during the night was 67 degrees.

MUSICAL CONCERT IS WEDNESDAY EVE

Since Thursday evening, regular time for the third band concert, is Independence Day, the weekly musical presentation will be staged Wednesday evening at the usual time. The program prepared by Prof. C. F. Zaenglein for his youthful musicians will be announced Tuesday.

CADY, GCRADY
REVIVING OLD
SAFETY ORDER

No Firecrackers, Other Explosives Allowed in City, Statute Declares

TO JAIL OFFENDERS

Seven Called to Court for Violations

Returning to an ordinance which was placed in the city's ordinance book prior to 1907, Mayor W. B. Cady and Police Chief W. F. McCrady today declared war on persons who throw firecrackers from automobiles or at other persons.

"We are positively not going to stand for it," Mayor Cady said in reporting a number of arrests of youths, all of whom were given lectures.

The ordinance declares that no firecrackers, torpedos, rockets or roman candles shall be discharged in the city limits, and that the mayor has no right to grant anyone permission to fire such noisemakers.

WAR ON "ONE-LIGHTERS"

A war on one-light automobiles was declared today by Police Chief W. F. McCrady who said: "There are too many one-lighted cars traveling the streets, so we are going to haul in a few drivers to see if we can stop it."

KEYS TO LAND
PLANE TODAY

Close Inspection Leads Brothers To Believe To Go On Is Dangerous.

MERIDIAN, Miss., July—Belief that prolonging of their world endurance flight beyond today might endanger their ship, the "Ole Miss," Al Key, older of the two brothers, announced they would land their plane at 6:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The message, coming over the radio said:

"After close inspection of ship and having the record in the bag and knowing that anything can happen at this point due to stabilizer trouble and danger of crystallization, we will land the 'Ole Miss' at 6:30 p. m. today."

'DEATH CLAUSE' IN BILL BEATEN

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Roosevelt today suffered a major defeat in the House when inclusion of the "death clause" in the drastic utility holding company bill was voted down. The ballot was 146 for; 216 against.

FIVE BRUISED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

Five local men were suffering bruises but no serious injuries Monday after an accident south of Scipio park Saturday night when the LaSalle sedan of Richard Simkins was forced off the road, scraped a bridge and turned over.

Others with the attorney were John Carle, James Denman, Frank Davis, and Otto Gluth.

The Simkins sedan was badly damaged.

BYAS TO SERVE
MANSFIELD TERM

Despite a fervent plea by his attorney, Joe W. Adkins, Jr., for a parole, Curtis Byas, 20, of Columbus, was sentenced to serve from one to seven years in the Ohio reformatory, Mansfield, by Judge Joseph W. Adkins, Monday.

Byas had pleaded guilty to a grand jury indictment charging grand larceny in theft of wheat from Charles Cromley, Harrison-twp. He was involved in a theft ring that had been swooping down on a number of Pickaway-co and other central Ohio farms.

Several of the "gang" are now serving time. Herbert Clark, another member, goes on trial here soon.

SUICIDES FAILS, CLERK CONFESSES

Alfred Volckmann, young grocery clerk of Greenville, N. Y., is pictured in hospital after he tried to commit suicide by swallowing poison. Failing in his effort to die, Volckmann made a full confession that he had murdered and mutilated little nine-year-old Helen Glenn, according to police.

Woman Going Blind Aids
Boy in Eye Experiment

CHICAGO, July 1—Through the eye of a woman going blind, a boy may see.

That, in short, is the story of one of the great experiments of modern surgical science now approaching its fruition at Passavant hospital here.

CITY DADS TO ISSUE BONDS

Least Obtaining Figures; Sum of Issue For Back Bills Not Yet Certain.

Necessary data was being gathered today for the city to apply for permission of the state tax commission to issue deficiency bonds based on the amount of delinquent taxes.

Data is being obtained from the county and city auditors by Carl C. Leist, solicitor, who is acting upon instructions of city council.

It is not certain yet what amount the bond issue will include. The city is permitted to issue bonds for back bills up to 70 per cent of the total of delinquent taxes.

At present the city is considerably in the "red" with many bills unpaid and a $13,000 fire hydrant rental bill hanging over its head.

It is probable council will take some kind of an economy step when it meets Monday evening.

BROTHERS SAVED FROM ANGRY MOB

PEORIA, Ill., July 1—Protected by cell bar from a wrathful mob, Victor Thompson, 19, was lodged to day in the county jail beside his brother, Gerald, 25, held for the assault and murder of Mildred Hallmark.

The younger Thompson was hustled into the jail yesterday on a statutory charge involving an 8-year-old boy. Outside a mob of more than 200 pounded at the locked doors and demanded vainly that both prisoners be turned over to them for vengeance.

FORD FOUND HERE

The sheriff's office is holding a four-door Ford sedan belonging to the Cole, Reed and Haan Co., 514 W. Superior-st., Chicago, which was found abandoned on Route 22. It had been stolen, the sheriff was informed.

MOVE TO S. COURT-ST

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor have moved from Columbus to 415 S. Court-st. Mr. Taylor is proprietor of the Taylor Motor Sales Co., W. Main-st.

52 DIE IN BLAST

LONDON, July 1.—Explosion and fire in a coal mine in Bihar province, India, took a toll of 52 lives. It was stated in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Calcutta today.

GRIFFEY TRIES TO SUICIDE BY CUTTING NECK

Uses Razor Blade to Cut Throat; Loses Much Blood; is Not Serious

FACES 1 TO 20 YEARS

Court to Hear Motion for New Trial

Robert Griffey, convicted by a jury for cutting with intent to wound his ex-wife, Ruth Roberts, tried to commit suicide in the county jail Sunday at 9:30 p. m. by slashing his throat with a razor blade.

Although the former restaurant operator lost much blood he was reported in fair condition Monday. He is not considered serious.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff said today that Griffey had made no threats that he had heard to take his life.

Had Razor Blade

Jail regulations force the sheriff to permit prisoners to have safety razors with which to shave. A trusty is assigned to account for the razor blades but somehow Griffey kept one of the blades.

As soon as he committed his act, other prisoners discovered him bleeding and called the sheriff. Dr. G. W. Heffner, jail physician, was called and he stopped the flow of blood.

The cut was on the right side of Griffey's throat and was about one and one-half inches long. Dr. Heffner took no stitches in the wound, stopping the flow of blood by packing with cotton.

New Trial Sought

Griffey is being held in jail until an application for a new trial, filed by his attorney, George E. Gerhardt, is heard. It was filed Saturday and will be heard either Monday afternoon or Tuesday. If the plea is overruled Judge Adams will sentence the man to the Ohio penitentiary for an indeterminate term.

His trial was completed last Thursday.

'CIRCLEVILLE DAYS'
PROVE PROFITABLE

Stores of City Crowded For Three-Day Sale; Saturday Crowd One of Biggest.

The streets of Circleville were thronged with visitors all day and far into the night last Saturday, this being the closing event of "Circleville Days," sponsored by local merchants.

It is believed to have been the largest crowd ever assembled in Circleville without the drawing influence of outside attractions. Parking space was at a premium throughout the day, and the night crowd was forced to park several blocks from the business section. People came early and remained late, the streets being thronged with people at a late hour.

Many of the mercantile establishments were crowded to the doors, and even with extra clerical help it was impossible to meet the requirements of prospective customers. All lines of business represented in the special sales events disposed of merchandise far in excess of expectations, and many expressed the opinion that it was the biggest and most successful ever conducted in the city.

The sales events for Thursday, Friday and Saturday were advertised exclusively in The Herald.

KIGER IN WRECK

D. B. Kiger, Pickaway-twp., was injured Monday morning when his automobile figured in a 3-car crash on the Scioto trail, in a 3-car crash on the Scioto trail in Franklin-co.

REMOVED TO HOME

Mrs. Charles Stubbins of W. Woodruff-ave., Columbus, was removed from Buckeye lake to her home Saturday night in the Albaugh invalid car. Mrs. Stubbins is a sister of Drs. E. J. and R. F. Lilly.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hodges, 1000-gt., announce the birth of a son in Berger hospital, Monday. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

Representative Huddleston Representative Rayburn

As President Roosevelt asserted "the most powerful and dangerous lobby ever created by any organization in this country" was attempting to defeat the section of the Wheeler-Rayburn bill calling for the abolition of "unnecessary" holding companies, Representative George Huddleston of Alabama charged that both sides had been equally guilty in the use of propaganda for and against the measure. Photos show Huddleston, left, and Representative Sam Rayburn of Texas, co-author of the bill.

Vice-President Garner Maneuvered Roosevelt's Tax Plan Into Open

WASHINGTON — The inside story of the President's maneuver to increase upper bracket taxation gives a great deal of credit—or in some people's opinion—discredit to Willy Jack Garner, bushy-browed Vice-President of the United States.

It all began early last December when Roosevelt was formulating his legislative program for the coming session of Congress. Inner council liberals urged him to include a bold tax revision plan. But at that time the President was in the middle of a right swing, and attempting to conciliate business. He turned thumbs down on the proposal, and it remained shelved until early May.

By that time Roosevelt had become completely fed up with the business goodwill policy sold to him by his conservative advisers. And when the U. S. Chamber of Commerce kicked over the traces and violently denounced the New Deal the President abandoned all pretense of placating business.

Heart-To-Heart

It was at this moment that Garner, in one of his heart-to-heart talks with Roosevelt, told him he ought to come out with a hard-hitting tax program.

The idea took root in the President's mind. But it was not until some weeks later that he actually decided to act. Two things brought him to this resolution: (1) the Supreme Court's decision throwing out the NRA; and (2) the hostility of a number of Old Guard House Democrats toward his Holding Corporation Bill and the bill strengthening TVA.

Roosevelt has real fighting fire when aroused, and this time he was aroused. He had another private talk with Garner and told him he had decided to recommend tax legislation.

Garner Plan

"That's the stuff, Mr. President," enthused the beetle-browed Texan, "and I've got the plan for you." Garner's plan was essentially the same one he had sponsored in 1926, when he was a member of the House Ways and Means

Continued On Page Three

THREE STORIES OF ATTORNEY'S MURDER GIVEN

William Schweitzer, 26, Admits Shooting, Later Insists Man Suicides

THREE WOMEN HELD

Murder Charge to be Filed in Detroit

DETROIT, Mich., July 1—While William Schweitzer, pasty-faced young hoodlum, flippantly gave police three versions of the slaying of Howard Carter Dickinson, prominent New York attorney, County Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea announced that a murder warrant would be issued against the alleged killer today.

Three women, Florence and Loretta Jackson, 24 and 27 year-old redheaded sisters and Jean Miller, 24, who were arrested with Schweitzer when he was captured at Fort Wayne, Ind., were booked at police headquarters as material witnesses.

To "Protect Name"

While preparing to prosecute Schweitzer, a "man of many aliases" and once acquitted of a murder charge, McCrea promised that "I will do all possible to protect the name of this man who is not here to defend himself against the stories told by Schweitzer and the women."

At the same time, McCrea stated, "I believe more can be told of this strange story."

Dickinson, a nephew of Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes of the United States Supreme court, who had come to Detroit to investigate the claim against the $40,000,000 estate of the late William Yawkey, lumber baron, was found shot to death on a lonely road Thursday morning.

In one of the three versions of Dickinson's death, the hoodlum, 26 years old, told police he had shot Dickinson during a scuffle for a gun that climaxed a dice game. In the other two he alleged the prominent New York attorney shot himself. Police said all of the statements were misleading.

Briefly his stories were:
1. He quarreled with Dickinson over $4 in a dice game. Dickinson threatened him with a gun and during the scuffle he was shot.
2. Dickinson shot himself. "I reached for the gun and got excited and shot him twice more," Schweitzer said.
3. "I heard a shot in the rear seat of the car. I reached for Dickinson when he was slumping to the floor. Then the gun went off again."

Stories Discounted
Stories given by the three women.
(Continued On Page Eight)

Marriage Licenses

Edward Follmer, 27, 334 W. Superior-st., St. Marie, Mich., machinist and Nelle Jane Doersam, Circleville.

Robert Paul Stewart, 22, 224 E. Blake-ave, Columbus, and Louise E. Farley Mt. Sterling Rt. 1.

PARISHIONERS FETE LUTHERN PASTOR

Five Hundred Take Part in Surprise Program As Dr. Troutman Observes Fortieth Year as Minister, 37 of Them at Trinity Lutheran.

In celebration of the fortieth anniversary of his ordination and the thirty-seventh anniversary of his services as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, the congregation prepared and carried out a complete surprise for Rev. G. J. Troutman, D. D., Sunday afternoon and evening. A reception was held at the parish house at 5 p. m. followed by a buffet lunch at 6:15, and the anniversary service held in the church at 7:30.

HANNAN GONE, CLOSE GARAGE

Automobile Dealers' Whereabouts Unknown; Receiver Is Appointed.

Kelly Hannan's whereabouts today was unknown and his garages here and in Lancaster were under supervision of Novel Pearson of Columbus, who was appointed receiver for the automobile dealer Saturday by Judge Frank Acton in Fairfield-co courts.

Hannan has not been seen since early last week.
The Hannan garage in the Brehmer building, N. Court-st., has been closed with no cars remaining there. Pearson said today that an appraisal will be made immediately and plans announced later.

The receivership was forced by the Colonial Finance Co. of Lima which is seeking a judgment of $5,740. The petition recites that two checks, one for $3,480 and another for $2,260 were written by Hannan on the Rushville Banking Co., payable to the finance company, but were not paid.

HEAT WAVE HOLDS STATE IN GRASP

COLUMBUS, July 1—The first genuine heat wave of the summer held Ohio and neighboring states tight within its grasp today, with little prospects of abating.
Generally fair was the forecast of the U. S. weather bureau for tonight and tomorrow, but momentary relief from the heat may be brought in scattered localities by local thundershowers.

The rocketing mercury reached 90 degrees Sunday in Columbus, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, but, benefiting by the welcome lake breezes, Clevelanders saw their thermometers rise no higher than 86.

Week-end electrical storms in this vicinity resulted in destruction of a barn on the farm of Orville Rader, near here at a loss of $2,000.

PARK MEETING BEGINS AT 7:30

The meeting of the park committee will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the courtroom. A good attendance is expected since proposed sites for the park and recreation ground will be discussed with a selection possible.

Joe W. Adkins, Jr., chairman of the drive, announced Saturday that efforts are being made to increase the sum already on hand. The amount sought was $10,000.

NO PERMIT, FINED

E. O. Moon of Columbus was lodged in the county jail Monday for failing to pay $25 and costs for fishing with a reel and rod without a license. He was arrested along the canal by Game Protector Clarence Francis and was fined by Squire H. O. Eveland.

MERCURY AT 83

The high temperature for the city Sunday was 93 degrees, Dr. H. R. Clarke reported. Low during the night was 67 degrees.

MUSICAL CONCERT IS WEDNESDAY EVE

Since Thursday evening, regular time for the third band concert, is Independence Day, the weekly musical presentation will be staged Wednesday evening at the usual time. The program prepared by Prof. C. F. Zaenglein for his youthful musicians will be announced Tuesday.

About 500 attended the "surprise" program.
Various committees planned the affair without Rev. Troutman's knowledge, and he was completely and agreeably surprised. He was engaged to deliver the morning sermon at the Lutheran church in Logan in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Amos Heyde, and was taken to Logan to fill the appointment by Karl J. Herrmann. Following out the plans of the committee, Mr. Herrmann took the pastor on a tour of sight-seeing following the services at Logan, returning to Circleville at 5 p. m. to find hundreds of visitors assembled at the parish house.

Program Interesting
The following program was presented:
Opening number by the Sunday school orchestra under the direction of Howard Ater. Toast, "The New Minister," H. S. Heffner, for the Trinity church. Toast, "Our Respects to Dr. Troutman," Harry Kerns, for Christ church, Solo, M. A. Sensesbrenner. Toast, "Rejuvenation," R. C. Bowers, for Ringgold church.

Toast, "Our Sunday School of 40 Years Ago," Mrs. W. E. Crist, for advanced Sunday school. Musical saw number, Carl Palm. Toast, "Our Sunday School of Today," (Continued on Page Two)

KEYS TO LAND PLANE TODAY

Close Inspection Leads Brothers To Believe To Go On Is Dangerous.

MERIDIAN, Miss., July—Belief that prolonging of their world endurance flight beyond today might endanger their ship, the "Ole Miss," Al Key, older of the two brothers, announced they would land their plane at 6:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The message, coming over the radio said:
"After close inspection of ship and having the record in the bag and knowing that anything can happen at this point due to stabilizer trouble and danger of crystallization, we will land the 'Ole Miss' at 6:30 p. m. today."

'DEATH CLAUSE' IN BILL BEATEN

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Roosevelt today suffered a major defeat in the House when inclusion of the "death clause" in the drastic utility holding company bill was voted down. The ballot was 146 for; 216 against.

FIVE BRUISED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

Five local men were suffering bruises but no serious injuries Monday after an accident south of Scippo park Saturday night when the LaSalle sedan of Richard Simkins was forced off the road, scraped a bridge and turned over. Others with the attorney were John Carle, James Denman, Frank Davis, and Otto Gluth.
The Simkins sedan was badly damaged.

BYAS TO SERVE MANSFIELD TERM

Despite a fervent plea by his attorney, Joe W. Adkins, Jr., for a parole, Curtis Byas, 20, of Columbus, was sentenced to serve from one to seven years in the Ohio reformatory, Mansfield, by Judge Joseph W. Adkins, Monday.
Byas had pleaded guilty to a grand jury indictment charging grand larceny in theft of wheat from Charles Cromley, Harrison-twp. He was involved in a theft ring that had been swooping down on a number of Pickaway-co and other central Ohio farms.
Several of the "gang" are now serving time. Herbert Clark, another member, goes on trial here soon.

CADY, G'CRADY REVIVING OLD SAFETY ORDER

No Firecrackers, Other Explosives Allowed in City, Statute Declares

TO JAIL OFFENDERS

Seven Called to Court for Violations

Returning to an ordinance which was placed in the city's ordinance book prior to 1907, Mayor W. B. Cady and Police Chief W. F. McCrady today declared war on persons who throw firecrackers from automobiles or at other persons.

"We are positively not going to stand for it," Mayor Cady said in reporting a number of arrests of youths, all of whom were given lectures.
The ordinance declares that no firecrackers, torpedos, rockets or roman candles shall be discharged

WAR ON 'ONE-LIGHTERS'

A war on one-light automobiles was declared today by Police Chief W. F. McCrady who said: "There are too many one-lighted cars traveling the streets, so we are going to haul in a few drivers to see if we can stop it."

in the city limits, and that the mayor has no right to grant anyone permission to fire such noise-makers.

'Enforce to Word'
Chief McCrady said: "There is no record anywhere that the ordinance has been repealed so we are going to enforce it to the word."

Some of the persons called into court for violation of the regulation are Wilbur Hanley of Lancaster, Francis Temple of Stoutsville, Leroy Starkey, Raymond Adkins, Eugene Bush, Henry Caudill and Woodrow Caldwell, of this city. "There will be many more," the mayor said, "unless this practice is stopped."

Other police court business included: Charles Hixon, intoxication, forfeited $2 bond; Sterile Edwards, Stoutsville, running through a red light, paid $2 fine; Charles McKenzie, Lancaster Rt. 3 forfeit $3 bond, Noah Skaggs, Cedar Hill, forfeit $5 bond; John Tetts, drunk and disorderly, forfeit $5 bond; Allen Walters, Rockbridge, forfeit $5 bond for intoxication; Harold Eveland, Lancaster, forfeit $5 bond; William Kerns, New Holland, under $9 bond for disorderly conduct; James Bowen, $5 bond for intoxication; E. E. Hastings, Orient, $5 bond for intoxication.

GROCERY SALES IN STATE HIGH

COLUMBUS, July 1—Wholesale grocery sales in Ohio during May reached the highest level since October, 1931, a survey by the bureau of business research at Ohio State University revealed today.
Gains of 8.2 per cent were shown in both cash and credit sales during May in which all sizes of establishments reported increases.
The Ohio grocers' price index declined 7 percent in May from the April level.

ACTION TO REMOVE LaGUARDIA FAILS

NEW YORK, July 1—An attempt to remove Mayor LaGuardia from office failed today when Supreme Court Justice Cotillo decided against a taxpayer's petition charging that he was holding two offices in violation of the city charter.

The suit, brought by Bennet E. Aron, a Brooklyn attorney, would have restored Tammany hall to power if Justice Cotillo had sustained it.

TO MEET AT CLUB

The Kiwanis club meeting will be held Monday at 6:30 p. m. at the Pickaway Country club. Forrest Smith of Columbus, prominent attorney, will be the speaker.

Hospital News

Henry "Daddy" Foerst, Civil war veteran, was taken from his home on N. Court-st. Saturday evening to Berger hospital for observation and treatment. Mr. Foerst has been ill since last fall.

SUICIDES FAILS, CLERK CONFESSES

Walter Birkett

Alfred Volckmann

Alfred Volckmann, young grocery clerk of Greenville, N. Y., is pictured in hospital after he tried to commit suicide by swallowing poison. Failing in his effort to die, Volckmann made a full confession that he had murdered and mutilated little nine-year-old

Helen Glenn, according to police. Helen, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Ernest Glenn of Greenville, had been missing for 36 hours when her body was found in swamp lands. Walter H. Birkett, inset, told authorities that he saw Volckmann near the marsh where Helen's body was discovered.

Woman Going Blind Aids Boy in Eye Experiment

CHICAGO, July 1—Through the eye of a woman going blind, a boy may see.

That, in short, is the story of one of the great experiments of modern surgical science now approaching its fruition at Passavant hospital here.

CITY DADS TO ISSUE BONDS

Leist Obtaining Figures; Sum of Issue For Back Bills Not Yet Certain.

Necessary data was being gathered today for the city to apply for permission of the state tax commission to issue deficiency bonds based on the amount of delinquent taxes.

Data is being obtained from the county and city auditors by Carl C. Leist, collector, who is acting upon instructions of city council.
It is not certain yet what amount the bond issue will include. The city is permitted to issue bonds for back bills up to 70 per cent of the total of delinquent taxes.

At present the city is considerably in the "red" with many bills unpaid and a $13,000 fire hydrant rental bill hanging over its head.

It is probable council will take some kind of an economy step when it meets Monday evening.

BROTHERS SAVED FROM ANGRY MOB

PEORIA, Ill., July 1—Protected by cell bar from a wrathful mob, Victor Thompson, 19, was lodged to day in the county jail beside his brother, Gerald, 25, held for the assault and murder of Mildred Hallmark.

The younger Thompson was hustled into the jail yesterday on a statutory charge involving an 8-year-old boy. Outside a mob of more than 200 pounded at the locked doors and demanded vainly that both prisoners be turned over to them for vengeance.

FORD FOUND HERE

The sheriff's office is holding a four-door Ford sedan belonging to the Cole, Rood and Haan Co., 514 W. Superior-st., Chicago, which was found abandoned on Route 22. It had been stolen, the sheriff was informed.

MOVE TO S. COURT-ST

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor have moved from Columbus to 415 S. Court-st. Mr. Taylor is proprietor of the Taylor Motor Sales Co., W. Main-st.

52 DIE IN BLAST

LONDON, July 1—Explosion and fire in a coal mine in Bihar province, India, took a toll of 52 lives, it was stated in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Calcutta today.

GRIFFEY TRIES TO SUICIDE BY CUTTING NECK

Uses Razor Blade to Cut Throat; Loses Much Blood; is Not Serious

FACES 1 TO 20 YEARS

Court to Hear Motion for New Trial

Robert Griffey, convicted by a jury for cutting with intent to wound his ex-wife, Ruth Roberts, tried to commit suicide in the county jail Sunday at 9:30 p. m. by slashing his throat with a razor blade.

Although the former restaurant operator lost much blood he was reported in fair condition Monday. He is not considered serious.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff said today that Griffey had made no threats that he had heard to take his life.

Hid Razor Blade

Jail regulations force the sheriff to permit prisoners to have safety razors with which to shave. A trusty is assigned to account for the razor blades but somehow Griffey kept one of the blades.

As soon as he committed his act, other prisoners discovered him bleeding and called the sheriff. Dr. G. W. Heffner, jail physician, was called and he stopped the flow of blood.

The cut was on the right side of Griffey's throat and was about one and one-half inches long. Dr. Heffner took no stitches in the wound, stopping the flow of blood by packing with cotton.

New Trial Sought

Griffey is being held in jail until an application for a new trial, filed by his attorney, George E. Gerhardt, is heard. It was filed Saturday and will be heard either Monday afternoon or Tuesday. If the plea is overruled Judge Adkins will sentence the man to the Ohio penitentiary for an indeterminate term.

His trial was completed last Thursday.

'CIRCLEVILLE DAYS' PROVE PROFITABLE

Stores of City Crowded For Three-Day Sale; Saturday Crowd One of Biggest.

The streets of Circleville were thronged with visitors all day and far into the night last Saturday, this being the closing event of "Circleville Days," sponsored by local merchants.

It is believed to have been the largest crowd ever assembled in Circleville without the drawing influence of outside attractions. Parking space was at a premium throughout the day, and the night crowd was forced to park several blocks from the business section. People came early and remained late, the streets being thronged with people at a late hour.

Many of the mercantile establishments were crowded to the doors, and even with extra clerical help it was impossible to meet the requirements of prospective customers. All lines of business represented in the special sales events disposed of merchandise far in excess of expectations, and many expressed the opinion that it was the biggest and most successful ever conducted in the city.

The sales events for Thursday, Friday and Saturday were advertised exclusively in The Herald.

KIGER IN WRECK

D. B. Kiger, Pickaway-twp., was injured Monday morning when his automobile figured in a 3-car crash on the Scioto trail, in a 3-car crash on the Scioto trail in Franklin-co.

REMOVED TO HOME

Mrs. Charles Stubbins of W. Woodruff-ave., Columbus, was removed from Buckeye lake to her home Saturday night in the Albaugh invalid car. Mrs. Stubbins is a sister of Drs. E. J. and R. F. Lilly.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hedges, Mingo-st., announce the birth of a son in Berger hospital, Sunday night. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hill, Hayward-ave, Saturday.

UTILITIES BILL BRINGS CHARGES

Representative Huddleston

Representative Rayburn

As President Roosevelt asserted "the most powerful and dangerous lobby ever created by any organization in this country" was attempting to defeat the section of the Wheeler-Rayburn bill calling for the abolition of "unnecessary" holding companies, Representative

George Huddleston of Alabama charged that both sides had been equally guilty in the use of propaganda for and against the measure. Photos show Huddleston, left, and Representative Sam Rayburn of Texas, co-author of the bill.

TRUCKS TOLL SET AT EIGHT

Two Killed, 15 Hurt In Summit-co Wrecks; Other Accidents Scattered.

By International News Service
With at least eight persons killed, Ohio led the states in traffic fatalities over the week-end. At least 50 lives were lost throughout the country in automobile and motorcycle accidents.

In the only double fatality in Ohio, two men, Francis Martins, 42, married and the father of four children, and Donald Smith, 23, both of Leetonia, were killed when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a telephone pole and tree at West Point, north of East Liverpool. State highway police said the auto was stolen in Columbia.

Summit-co Busy
Two men were killed and 15 persons were injured in Summit-co traffic accidents, Robert H. Hinkle, 45, of Akron, was killed instantly when he stepped from his auto at Steel's Corners to aid another motorist who had gone into a ditch. He was killed when two autos collided, one striking him. Henry Rozelle, 72, of near Akron, was killed by a hit-skip motorist, police said.

William G. Ottgen, 64, of Toledo, was killed in an automobile collision near Perryburg. Floyd Gray, Detroit, driver of the other car in the mishap, was arrested and charged with reckless driving. Benny Levine, 43, of Curtice, died of injuries received when he was struck by an auto while crossing a street.

Raymond A. Conroy, 45, of Lima, lost his life when his car collided with another at Findlay Saturday night, and W. S. Thomas, 51, of Harrisville, was killed when he was struck by a freight train near Scio Saturday night.

DEDICATE PATROL STATION SATURDAY

The formal dedication and opening of the new $50,000 State Highway Patrol barracks at Wilmington took place at Wilmington, Saturday afternoon, attended by a large number of visitors from various sections of the state.

Wilmington officials and newspapermen were guests of Col. Lynn Black, superintendent of the highway patrol, at a luncheon at noon, and guests were later taken on a tour of inspection of the building. Officers of the patrol served as guides and explained the system under which the barracks is operated. The guests also visited the control room of station WPHK, which is housed in the building.

Speakers at the program held in front of the building included Wilmington city officials, Col. Black, John J. Jaster, Jr., state highway director, and others. Music was furnished by the O. S. & S. O. Home band, which headed a parade through the streets of Wilmington.

The new building is a brick structure, modern in every respect, with dormitory, dining room, recreation rooms, etc., for the comfort and convenience of the patrolmen who make the barracks their home. It is one of three such buildings in the state and will be used as headquarters of District S, of the highway patrol.

I've still got the third strike left and you know that's always the best in baseball.—Evangelist Billy Sunday, stricken by heart attack.

Britain's Venus

Judges chose Miss Muriel Oxford, of London, to represent the British empire in the quest of the crown of "Miss Universe" in the international beauty contest at Torquay, England.

MARKETS

Furnished by The John W. Eshelman & Sons.

WHEAT

July—High, 87½; Low, 84½;
Close, 86½ @ ½.

Sept.—High, 88½; Low, 83½;
Close, 87½ @ ½.

Dec.—High, 90½; Low, 87½;
Close, 89½ @ ¼.

CORN

July—High, 82½; Low, 81½;
Close, 81½ @ ¼.

Sept.—High, 77½; Low, 75½;
Close, 75½ @ ¼.

Dec.—High, 68½; Low, 66½;
Close, 67½ @ 67.

OATS

July—High, 37½; Low, 35½;
Close, 36.

Sept.—High, 35; Low, 33½;
Close, 34½ @ ¼.

Dec.—High, 36½; Low, 35½;
Close, 35½ @ 35.

CASH PRICES TO FARMERS

FAID IN CIRCLEVILLE
Wheat—77c.

Yellow Corn—83c.

White Corn—86c.

(Furnished by the Pickaway County Farm Bureau.)

Butterfat 19c pound.
Eggs 20c dozen.

CLOSING LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO—Hog Receipts 16000
7000 direct, 1000 held over, steady;
Mediums 200-220, 9.55, 9.75; Cattle
11000; Calves 2000; Lambs 13000.

PITTSBURGH—Hog Receipts
3000, 2400 direct; Mediums 170-
270, 10.20, 10.25; Sows 8.25, steady; Cattle 600, 10, 10.25;
Calves 1100 8.50, 9.00; Lambs
1500, 9.00, 15c lower.

CINCINNATI—Hog Receipts
3600, 564 direct, 10c lower; Mediums
160-225, 9.75; Cattle 1475;
Calves 500, Lambs 4500.

Alfalfa wilt disease, especially serious in the western corn belt and the eastern great plains region, has been found in fields as far east as Pennsylvania and as far west as California.

PARISHIONERS FETE LUTHERN PASTOR

Continued From Page One

Mrs. James Stout, for the intermediate and primary Sunday school. Toast, "One of Dr. Troutman's Ambitions," George C. Griffith, for the Brotherhood. Solo, Miss Dorothy Bartley. Toast, "Our President," Mrs. Charles Diehlman, for Ladies' society. Toast, "Honor to Whom Honor is Due," Miss Minnie Mason, for the Von Bora society. Violin solo, Gladden Troutman. Toast, "Dr. Troutman's Influence," Miss Annabelle Barch, for Luther League.

Rev. George Schuster, pastor of St. John's church, Pittsburgh, Pa., and son-in-law of Rev. Troutman, was in charge of the evening service, and delivered an eloquent address. The anniversary sermon was delivered by Rev. C. Schiff, pastor of St. Mark's Congregation, Columbus. Musical selections included "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less Than Jesus' Blood and Righteousness," by the Junior choir under the direction of Mrs. G. L. Troutman; solo, by Rev. Ellis Snyder, Capital University; "Sanctus," by the Senior choir under the direction of Carl C. Leist.

Kin Take Part

Rev. G. L. Troutman, junior pastor, presented a biographical sketch of his father, and Evangeline Troutman Schuster, a granddaughter, gave a reading, "Our Dad."

At the close of the service Rev. Troutman was presented with a watch as a token of the respect and esteem in which he is held by his congregation. The presentation speech was made by E. Sensenbrenner.

The church and parish house were beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Rev. Troutman was ordained in St. Mark's church at Butler, Pa., in June, 1895, and three years later accepted the pastorate of Trinity Lutheran church in Circleville. During his 37 years of service in the local church, he has endeared himself to the congregation, as evidenced by the enthusiasm and interest shown by his large circle of friends in the anniversary observance. He has served his parish and the community faithfully and well, always taking an active part in civic affairs and foremost in all religious activities of the city and community. He is held in high esteem by all with whom he comes in contact and has added much to the religious and social life of the entire community.

WOMAN MAKES CHUTE RECORD

24,800 Feet Is Height Soviet Girl Leaps; Tells of Thrills As Chute Opens.

LENINGRADE, July 1.—A world's record parachute jump for women was established today by Tamara Koutanova, 29-year-old student at the Leningrad institute of physical culture, who jumped from an altitude of 7,750 metres, approximately 24,800 feet. Her jump broke the 4½ mile record set only two weeks ago by six girls who jumped one after the other from a huge plane over Moscow.

Mile. Koutanova made her leap without oxygen appliances and landed safely in a garden seven miles from the point of ascent. It was her seventeenth leap.

Relating her experience, the woman said she felt no cold and was not dizzy although she somersaulted six times. She was "greatly thrilled," she said, when the parachute did not open when she first pulled the rip-cord, but she remained calm and was "overwhelmed with joy" when it ballooned nearly a minute later.

Mile. Koutanova is expected to be honored with the military order of the Red Star for her exploit.

CAMP'S SEASON IS UNDER WAY

Camp Mount Oval, a summer outing camp on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Young, five miles south of Circleville on the Scioto Trail, opened its first session Sunday for boys between the ages of eight and 13.

Ten boys from Circleville, Columbus, Chillicothe, Jackson and Kingston are included in the group which will enjoy a two weeks' period of fun, planned by the camp councillor, Miss Mary Ruth Tolbert and her assistant, Miss Mary Katherine May.

The following boys are enrolled for the first session: David Orr of Circleville; Philip Thomas, David Redman and Mitchell McGuire, of Columbus; David Perry and Dwight Fullerton of Chillicothe; Thomas Delay and Robert and Richard Mitchell of Jackson, and Bill Wright of Kingston.

Arkansas protest suggestion that the Ozark hogs be memorialized on auto license plates. It might be valuable in reminding drivers to keep to one side of the road.

ROGERS' AUNT, 90, TAKES UP BRIDGE

Mrs. Mary Rogers

Mrs. Mary Rogers, Will Rogers' aunt, 90, has just taken up the study of bridge, and hopes to make a grand slam before she passes the 100 mark. Mrs. Rogers is a Cherokee-Creek Indian, and was the only woman to serve as a commissioner for the Creek nation and clerk of the Okmulgee Creek supreme court. "I'm too old now to worry about the Indian situation," she smiles, "so I have taken up bridge, and enjoy playing with friends."

JOAN, FRANCHOT SECRETLY WED?

Joan Crawford

Franchot Tone

According to a well-known New York columnist, Joan Crawford and Franchot Tone of the screen were secretly married last January. When young Tone first invaded Hollywood three years ago, he began paying court to Miss Crawford. Although they were seen together everywhere, there was no announcement of their marriage when her divorce decree from Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., became final more than a year ago.

66 Air-conditioned Cars Being Used by N. & W.

"The Pocahontas" and "The Cavalier," air-conditioned equipment is operated on the Cannon Ball, between Richmond and Norfolk; on the Durham line, between Lynchburg and Durham; the Winston-Salem line, between Roanoke and Winston-Salem, N. C.; between Bluefield and New York, via the Shenandoah Valley route; and on local trains Nos. 35 and 36, between Portsmouth and Columbus, Ohio.

The fleet of air-conditioned cars consists of 18 luxury-coaches, 11 diners, 12 standard coaches and 25 Pullmans. Twenty-three units of the standard equipment—12 coaches and 11 dining cars—were air-conditioned and remodeled throughout in the railway's Roanoke shops at an expenditure of approximately $230,000.

In addition to these improvements, the railway announces that all through trains between New York and Washington and New Orleans, Shreveport, Birmingham, Memphis and Nashville, operated jointly by the Southern and Norfolk and Western Railways over the N. & W. tracks, are now carrying air-conditioned equipment's crack passenger trains, "The Pocahontas" and "The Cavalier," with new, ultra-modern, all-steel luxury coaches, new Pullman sleepers and dining cars; the air-conditioning of standard coaches for a number of other trains; and the assignment of all-steel cars for branch lines over the entire railroad. In addition to With the completion this week of an extensive program of air-conditioning and other passenger service improvements, extending over a year and costing more than one million dollars, the Norfolk and Western had in operation on July 1 a fleet of 66 air-conditioned cars, passenger officials announced today.

The program included the complete air-conditioning of the rail-

UTILITY BILL VOTE IS NEAR

Defeat of Holding Company Measure Forecast; "Death Clause" Is Fought.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Defeat of President Roosevelt's drastic utility program appeared certain today as the House prepared to vote on his demand for dissolution of giant holding company structures.

Despite optimistic predictions of "power trusts" foes, House leaders conceded rejection of the controversial holding company "death sentence" by a "substantial majority" of votes.

The question of whether to include the "death sentence" in the impending utility bill will be placed squarely before members after two House defeats.

"Death Clause" Out
Although the Senate approved the original utility bill, the House interstate commerce committee ordered sweeping modifications, eliminating both the "death clause" and stiff holding company dividend taxes.

As administration officials and opponents of private power companies made a desperate last minute effort to force adoption of the President's demands.

Cloak-room threats to withdraw patronage from those Democrats who fail to support the President also were held unsuccessful by House leaders.

"Many of the Democrats have been getting no patronage up to now and don't expect any no matter how they vote on the "death sentence," one member said.

INTERNE BETTER

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Dr. John Maxwell, 25, Franklin-co Home interne, is recovering from injuries suffered early Saturday when three persons were killed in a motor crash.

Here's The Low Cost on a Three-Line Ad:

1 Time - 27c

3 Times - 54c

6 Times - 81c

With Insertion In Union-Herald (Weekly)

In other words when you insert a Classified Ad tell us to insert it 6 times—If your wants are filled before the final insertion—have it stopped and pay only for number of insertions made.

Phone 782

ATHLETES SAY:

"THEY DON'T GET YOUR WIND!"

SAM HOWARD, the high-diving champion, says: "I can smoke Camels all I want to and keep in perfect 'condition.' Camels are so mild. They never get my wind. And when tired a Camel gives me new energy."

CARL HUBBELL, star pitcher of the N.Y. Giants: "Camels are so mild, they never get my wind or ruffle my nerves."

GEORGE BARKER, the former intercollegiate track star: "A cross-country runner has to keep in shape. I've learned one thing about cigarettes—Camels are mild. They don't get my wind, and they never bother my nerves."

GEORGE M. LOTT, JR., tennis star, says: "Camels never take the edge off my condition or get my wind, because they are mild. I understand more expensive tobaccos are used in Camels. That accounts for their mildness!"

BILL MEHLHORN, the star golfer, adds this timely word: "I've got to keep fit to compete in tournament golf. I can smoke Camels steadily. From years of experience I know they won't get my wind or jangle my nerves."

CARL HUBBELL, a Camel smoker for many years, caught in action on the diamond! He says: "Camels have flavor, plus mildness—a rare combination. And they never get my wind. I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"

YOU'LL LIKE THEIR MILDNESS TOO!

Because Camels are so mild...made from more costly tobaccos than any other popular brand...you can smoke all you please. Athletes are agreed that Camels do not jangle the nerves or get the wind. You'll never tire of their appealing flavor.

COSTLIER TOBACCOES!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOES—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO. Winston-Salem, N. C.

YOU CAN SO MILD SMOKE ALL YOU WANT

Camels

© 1936, R. J. Reynolds Tob. Co.

STATE'S TOLL SET AT EIGHT

Two Killed, 15 Hurt In Summit-co Wrecks; Other Accidents Scattered.

By International News Service
With at least eight persons killed, Ohio led the states in traffic fatalities over the week-end. At least 50 lives were lost throughout the country in automobile and motorcycle accidents.

In the only double fatality in Ohio, two men, Francis Martins, 42, married and the father of four children, and Donald Smith, 23, both of Leetonia, were killed when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a telephone pole and tree at West Point, north of East Liverpool. State highway police said the auto was stolen in Columbia.

Summit-co Busy
Two men were killed and 15 persons were injured in Summit-co traffic accidents, Robert H. Hinkle, 45, of Akron, was killed instantly when he stepped from his auto at Steel's Corners to aid another motorist who had gone into a ditch. He was killed when two autos collided, one striking him. Henry Rozelle, 72, of near Akron, was killed by a hit-skip motorist, police said.

William G. Ottgen, 64, of Toledo, was killed in an automobile collision near Perrysburg. Floyd Gray, Detroit, driver of the other car in the mishap, was arrested and charged with reckless driving. Benny Levine, 43, of Curtice, died of injuries received when he was struck by an auto while crossing a street.

DEDICATE PATROL STATION SATURDAY

The formal dedication and opening of the new $50,000 State Highway Patrol barracks at Wilmington took place at Wilmington, Saturday afternoon, attended by a large number of visitors from various sections of the state. Wilmington officials and newspapermen were guests of Col. Lynn Black, superintendent of the highway patrol, at a luncheon at noon, and guests were later taken on a tour of inspection of the building. Officers of the patrol served as guides and explained the system under which the barracks is operated. The guests also visited the control room of station WPHK, which is housed in the building.

Speakers at the program held in front of the building included Wilmington city officials, Col. Black, John J. Jaster, Jr., state highway director, and others. Music was furnished by the O. S. & S. O. Home band, which headed a parade through the streets of Wilmington.

The new building is a brick structure, modern in every respect, with dormitory, dining room, recreation rooms, etc., for the comfort and convenience of the patrolmen who make the barracks their home. It is one of three such buildings in the state and will be used as headquarters of District S, of the highway patrol.

I've still got the third strike left and you know that's always the best in baseball—Evangelist Billy Sunday, stricken by heart attack.

Here's The Low Cost on a Three-Line Ad:

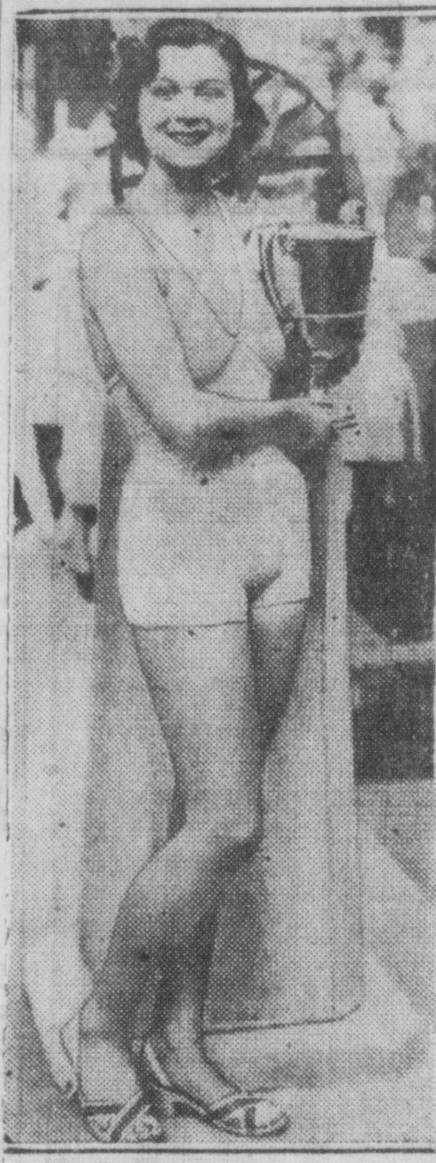

1 Time - 27c
3 Times - 54c
6 Times - 81c

With Insertion In Union-Herald (Weekly)

In other words when you insert a Classified Ad tell us to insert it 6 times —If your wants are filled before the final insertion—have it stopped and pay only for number of insertions made.

Phone 782

Britain's Venus

Judges chose Miss Muriel Oxford, of London, to represent the British empire in the quest of the crown of "Miss Universe" in the international beauty contest at Torquay, England.

MARKETS

Furnished by The John W. Eshelman & Sons.

WHEAT
July—High, 87 1/2; Low, 84 1/2; Close, 86 1/2 @ 1/2.
Sept.—High, 88 1/2; Low, 83 1/2; Close, 87 1/2 @ 1/2.
Dec.—High, 90 1/2; Low, 87 1/2; Close, 89 1/2 @ 1/2.

CORN
July—High, 82 1/2; Low, 81 1/2; Close, 81 1/2 @ 1/2.
Sept.—High, 77 1/2; Low, 85 1/2; Close, 75 1/2 @ 1/2.
Dec.—High, 68 1/2; Low, 66 1/2; Close, 67 1/2 @ 67.

OATS
July—High, 37 1/2; Low, 35 1/2; Close, 36 1/2 @ 1/2.
Sept.—High, 35; Low, 33 1/2; Close, 34 1/2 @ 1/2.
Dec.—High, 36 1/2; Low, 35 1/2; Close, 35 1/2 @ 1/2.

CASH PRICES TO FARMERS PAID IN CIRCLEVILLE
Wheat—77c.
Yellow Corn—83c.
White Corn—86c.

(Furnished by the Pickaway County Farm Bureau.)

Butterfat 19c pound.
Eggs 20c dozen.

CLOSING LIVESTOCK
CHICAGO—Hog Receipts 16000 7000 direct, 1000 held over, steady; Mediums 200-220, 9.55, 9.75; Cattle 11000; Calves 2000; Lambs 13000.
PITTSBURGH—Hog Receipts 3000, 2400 direct; Mediums 170-270, 10.20, 10.25; Sows 8.25, steady; Cattle 600, 10, 10.25; Calves 1100 8.50, 9.00; Lambs 1500, 9.00, 15c lower.
CINCINNATI—Hog Receipts 3600, 564 direct, 10c lower; Mediums 160-225, 9.75; Cattle 1475; Calves 500, Lambs 4500.

Alfalfa wilt disease, especially serious in the western corn belt and the eastern great plains region, has been found in fields as far east as Pennsylvania and as far west as California.

PARISHIONERS FETE LUTHERN PASTOR

Continued From Page One

Mrs. James Stout, for the intermediate and primary Sunday school. Toast, "One of Dr. Troutman's Ambitions," George C. Griffith, for the Brotherhood. Solo, Miss Dorothy Bartley. Toast, "Our President," Mrs. Charles Diehlman, for Ladies' society. Toast, "Honor to Whom Honor is Due," Miss Minnie Mason, for the Von Bora society. Violin solo, Gladden Troutman. Toast, "Dr. Troutman's Influence," Miss Annabelle Barch, for Luther League.

Rev. George Schuster, pastor of St. John's church, Pittsburgh, Pa., and son-in-law of Rev. Troutman, was in charge of the evening service, and delivered an eloquent address. The anniversary sermon was delivered by Rev. C. Schiff, pastor of St. Mark's Congregation, Columbus. Musical selections included "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less Than Jesus' Blood and Righteousness," by the Junior choir under the direction of Mrs. G. L. Troutman; solo, by Rev. Ellis Snyder, Capital University; "Sanctus," by the Senior choir.

WOMAN MAKES CHUTE RECORD

24,800 Feet Is Height Soviet Girl Leaps; Tells of Thrills As Chute Opens.

LENINGRADE, July 1.—A world's record parachute jump for women was established today by Tamara Koutanova, 29-year-old student at the Leningrad institute of physical culture, who jumped from an altitude of 7,750 metres, approximately 24,800 feet. Her jump broke the 4 1/2 mile record set only two weeks ago by six girls who jumped one after the other from a huge plane over Moscow.

Mile. Koutanova made her leap without oxygen appliances and landed safely in a garden seven miles from the point of ascent. It was her seventeenth leap.

Relating her experience, the woman said she felt no cold and was not dizzy although she somersaulted six times. She was "greatly thrilled," she said, when the parachute did not open when she first pulled the rip-cord, but she remained calm and was "overwhelmed with joy" when it ballooned nearly a minute later.

Mile. Koutanova is expected to be honored with the military order of the Red Star for her exploit.

CAMP'S SEASON IS UNDER WAY

Camp Mount Oval, a summer outing camp on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Young, five miles south of Circleville on the Scioto Trail, opened its first session Sunday for boys between the ages of eight and 13.

Ten boys from Circleville, Columbus, Chillicothe, Jackson and Kingston are included in the group which will enjoy a two weeks' period of fun, planned by the camp councillor, Miss Mary Ruth Tolbert and her assistant, Miss Mary Katherine May.

The following boys are enrolled for the first session: David Orr of Circleville; Philip Thomas, David Redman and Mitchell McGuire, of Columbus; David Perry and Dwight Fullerton of Chillicothe; Thomas Delay and Robert and Richard Mitchell of Jackson; and Bill Wright of Kingston.

Arkansas protest suggestion that the Ozark hog be memorialized on auto license plates. It might be valuable in reminding drivers to keep to one side of the road.

ROGERS' AUNT, 90, TAKES UP BRIDGE

Mrs. Mary Rogers

Mrs. Mary Rogers, Will Rogers' aunt, 90, has just taken up the study of bridge, and hopes to make a grand slam before she passes the 100 mark. Mrs. Rogers is a Cherokee-Creek Indian, and was the only woman to serve as a commissioner for the Creek nation and clerk of the Okmulgee Creek supreme court. "I'm too old now to worry about the Indian situation," she smiles, "so I have taken up bridge, and enjoy playing with friends."

JOAN, FRANCHOT SECRETLY WED?

According to a well-known New York columnist, Joan Crawford and Franchot Tone of the screen were secretly married last January. When young Tone first invaded Hollywood three years ago, he began paying court to Miss Crawford. Although they were seen together everywhere, there was no announcement of their marriage when her divorce decree from Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., became final more than a year ago.

66 Air-conditioned Cars Being Used by N. & W.

"The Pocahontas" and "The Cavalier," air-conditioned equipment is operated on the Cannon Ball, between Richmond and Norfolk; on the Durham line, between Lynchburg and Durham; the Winston-Salem line, between Roanoke and Winston-Salem, N. C.; between Bluefield and New York, via the Shenandoah Valley route; and on local trains Nos. 35 and 36, between Portsmouth and Columbus, Ohio.

The fleet of air-conditioned cars consists of 18 luxury-coaches, 11 diners, 12 standard coaches and 25 Pullmans. Twenty-three units of the standard equipment—12 coaches and 11 dining cars—were air-conditioned and remodeled throughout in the railway's Roanoke shops at an expenditure of approximately $230,000.

In addition to these improvements, the railway announces that all through trains between New York and Washington and New Orleans, Shreveport, Birmingham, Memphis and Nashville, operated jointly by the Southern and Norfolk and Western Railways over the N. & W. tracks, are now carrying air-conditioned equipment's crack passenger trains, "The Pocahontas" and "The Cavalier." With new, ultra-modern, all-steel luxury coaches, new Pullman sleepers and dining cars, the air-conditioning of standard coaches for a number of other trains; and the assignment of all-steel cars for branch lines over

If it came down to a direct issue, I would give up my career as an actress, and gladly, rather than sacrifice my enjoyment of my child—Arlene Judge, film actress.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Defeat of President Roosevelt's drastic utility program appeared certain today as the House prepared to vote on his demand for dissolution of giant holding company structures.

Despite optimistic predictions of "power trusts" foes, House leaders conceded rejection of the controversial holding company "death sentence" by a "substantial majority" of votes.

The question of whether to include the "death sentence" in the impending utility bill will be placed squarely before members after two House defeats.

"Death Clause" Out
Although the Senate approved the original utility bill, the House interstate commerce committee ordered sweeping modifications, eliminating both the "death clause" and stiff holding company dividend taxes.

As time approached for the vote, administration officials and opponents of private power companies made a desperate last minute effort to force adoption of the President's demands.

Cloak-room threats to withdraw patronage from those Democrats who fail to support the President also were held unsuccessful by House leaders.

"Many of the Democrats have been getting no patronage up to now and don't expect any no matter how they vote on the 'death sentence,'" one member said.

INTERNE BETTER

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Dr. John Maxwell, 25, Franklin-co Home interne, is recovering from injuries suffered early Saturday when three persons were killed in a motor crash.

ATHLETES SAY: "THEY DON'T GET YOUR WIND!"

SAM HOWARD, the high-diving champion, says: "I can smoke Camels all I want to and keep in perfect 'condition.' Camels are so mild. They never get my wind. And when tired a Camel gives me new energy."

CARL HUBBELL, star pitcher of the N. Y. Giants: "Camels are so mild, they never get my wind or ruffle my nerves."

GEORGE BARKER, the former intercollegiate track star: "A cross-country runner has to keep in shape. I've learned one thing about cigarettes—Camels are mild. They don't get my wind, and they never bother my nerves."

GEORGE M. LOIT, JR., tennis star, says: "Camels never take the edge off my condition or get my mind, because they are mild. I understand more expensive tobaccos are used in Camels. That accounts for their mildness!"

SUSAN VILAS, the free-style swimming champion, comments: "I've discovered that Camels are mild. They don't cut down my wind. Camels are full of rich, smooth taste!"

BILL MEHLHORN, the star golfer, adds this timely word: "I've got to keep fit to compete in tournament golf. I can smoke Camels steadily. From years of experience I know they won't get my wind or jangle my nerves."

CARL HUBBELL, a Camel smoker for many years, caught in action on the diamond! He says: "Camels have flavor, plus mildness—a rare combination. And they never get my wind. I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"

YOU'LL LIKE THEIR MILDNESS TOO!

Because Camels are so mild...made from more costly tobaccos than any other popular brand...you can smoke all you please. Athletes are agreed that Camels do not jangle the nerves or get the wind. You'll never tire of their appealing flavor.

SO MILD YOU CAN SMOKE ALL YOU WANT

Camels

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO. Winston-Salem, N. C.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 581

ARLEDGE-NESSILL NUPTIALS SUNDAY

At a home wedding, Sunday evening, Miss Nellie Arledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Arledge of Pickaway-twp, became the bride of Mr. William H. Nessill of Williamsport.

Rev. L. S. Metzler, United Brethren minister, read the nuptials at 5 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Montgomery of Columbus attended the couple as matron of honor and best man.

The bride was attired in a white tulle gown with which she wore a short tulle veil. Her arm bouquet was of pink roses.

Mrs. Montgomery wore pink crepe and carried yellow roses.

Miss Anna Dreisbach played the wedding march and nuptial music during the ceremony. A reception followed the ceremony for the wedding guests after which the couple left for a few days motor trip.

Mrs. Nessill graduated from Pickaway-twp high school in 1932 and Mr. Nessill is a graduate of Williamsport high school class of 1927. He attended business college in Greenfield and is operator of a service station in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Nessill will make their home in Williamsport upon return from their wedding trip.

FIVE ATTEND DAUGHTERS OF 1812 MEETING

Mrs. Orion King, Mrs. John Boggs, Mrs. C. K. Hunsicker, Mrs. G. L. Schlar and Miss Charlotte Caldwell attended the regular meeting of Captain Jonathan Alder chapter Daughters of 1812, Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. John Florence in Plain City.

Mrs. King, president of the chapter, presided during the business session which was followed by vocal, piano and violin music by Mrs. Robinson and two daughters of Plain City.

A paper, "Historic Trees of America" was read by Mrs. John Copeland of London and the roll call was answered by each member telling a story of an historic tree in Ohio.

MISS HARRIS TO ATTEND SCHOOL IN NEW YORK

Miss Gladys Harris, who has been spending the past week with her mother, Mrs. Ada Harris and aunts, Misses Birdie and Blanche Weaver, S. Pickaway-st, left Monday for New York City, where she will attend summer school to study voice at Julliard School of Music.

Miss Harris, a graduate of Circleville high school, is a voice instructor in Virginia State college, Petersburg, Va. and will return there in the fall.

MISS GOFF RETURNS FROM WESTERN TRIP

Miss Mary Goff, 213 E. Walnut-st, has returned home after spending the past five months in Portland, Ore. Before leaving Portland she saw the Rosaria or Rose Festival. On her return home she took the Pacific Coast route through the Redwood forests to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, Calif. From San Diego she came by the southern route through El Paso and Dallas, Texas, Memphis and Nashville, Tenn., Louisville, Ky. and Cincinnati.

ASK FOR MADER'S GREASELESS "POTATO CHIPS"

MAURICE CHEVALIER

"FOLIES BERGERE"

SELECTED SHORTS and NEWS

CLIFTONA

TODAY & TUESDAY

Always COMFORTABLY COOL!

MAURICE CHEVALIER

"FOLIES BERGERE"

SELECTED SHORTS and NEWS

CLIFTONA

TODAY & TUESDAY

Always COMFORTABLY COOL!

MAURICE CHEVALIER

"FOLIES BERGERE"

SELECTED SHORTS and NEWS

CLIFTONA

MRS. DUNDORE HONORED BEFORE RETURNING HOME

Mrs. Franklin Dundore, who has been here on an extended visit with her sisters, Misses Harriett and Mary Marfield, E. Main-st, was honor guest at a dinner party Saturday evening before her departure for her home in Paoli, Pa., Monday.

Mrs. Charles E. Groce was hostess at the dinner at her home on S. Court-st. Bridge was enjoyed during the evening following the dinner hour.

Guests were Mrs. Dundore, the Misses Marfield, Mrs. Tom Brown, Mrs. Joseph Wilder, Miss Nell Weldon and Mrs. Elgar Barrere.

DENMANS HAVE DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, N. Pickaway-st, had as their dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reedy and niece, Pasty Reedy, Mrs. B. M. Clifton and Harold Whippis of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Reedy and niece remained for a two days' visit.

MR. AND MRS. KING HAVE DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Orion King, W. High-st, entertained with a dinner at their home, Sunday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beavers of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cronley and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Millar of Ashville, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Upton of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. King.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James I. Smith, S. Court-st, left Sunday for a visit over the Fourth with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. John Corbett of Gross Point, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Upton of Seattle, Wash., arrived the latter part of last week for a visit at the home of Mrs. Upton's sister, Mrs. Orion King and Dr. King, W. High-st. Mrs. Upton will remain for a month and Mr. Upton will leave Thursday for a visit with relatives in New York and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. R. F. Haynes of Columbus came Sunday to remain over the Fourth with her sister, Mrs. Charles Imier and Mr. Imier, E. Main-st.

Mrs. James Watson of Toledo was a week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Mary Foresman, E. Main-st.

Miss Elsie Updyke, Circleville-twp, returned home Monday from Newark, where she spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. C. B. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Knowles and son, John, of Toledo, were guests, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Darst, W. Main-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fellmuth and daughter, Anna Marie, of Butler, Pa. and Rev. and Mrs. George Schuster and family of Pittsburgh, Pa. spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Schuster's father and Mrs. Fellmuth's brother, Dr. G. J. Troutman, E. Mound-st. Monday Dr. Troutman and son, Gladwin, Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Troutman and daughter, Ruth, and their guests from Pittsburgh left for a week's stay at Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Griffith and family of Lancaster, formerly of this city were guests here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Eichinger of Columbus, formerly of this city.

U. S. Girl Who Shocked Paris

The Association for the Increase of the French Population is preparing to press charges in the Paris trial of Joan Warner, American dancer, whose case is being made a test case for what constitutes nudity on a French stage. The A. for the I. of the F. P. claims the blonde dancer forgot to use her fan, with which she is shown, and danced in the nude.

visited here Sunday attending the fortieth anniversary celebration for Dr. G. J. Troutman at Trinity Lutheran church.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Rockey and son of Ashville left Monday for a three weeks trip to Yellowstone National park, Denver and other western points of interest.

Miss Ethel Kirchofer, returned Sunday from a week's vacation. She visited several friends during the week and spent the latter part of the time at Silt Lake near Chicago, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Husted.

T. W. Sweeney returned Sunday night to his home in Maplewood, N. J., after a week-end visit with his aunt, Mrs. W. L. Mack, S. Washington-st. Mr. Sweeney was in Columbus for the past week attending the national convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce as a delegate from New York. He is also one of the national directors of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee and daughter, Miss Reba, Northridge-rd, were with a group of friends from Newark and Cincinnati, Sunday, enjoying a picnic dinner at Griggs Dam near Columbus.

Misses Bonnie and Frances Ruff, teachers in the Canton schools, are spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Ruff. They will return to Canton Sept. 1.

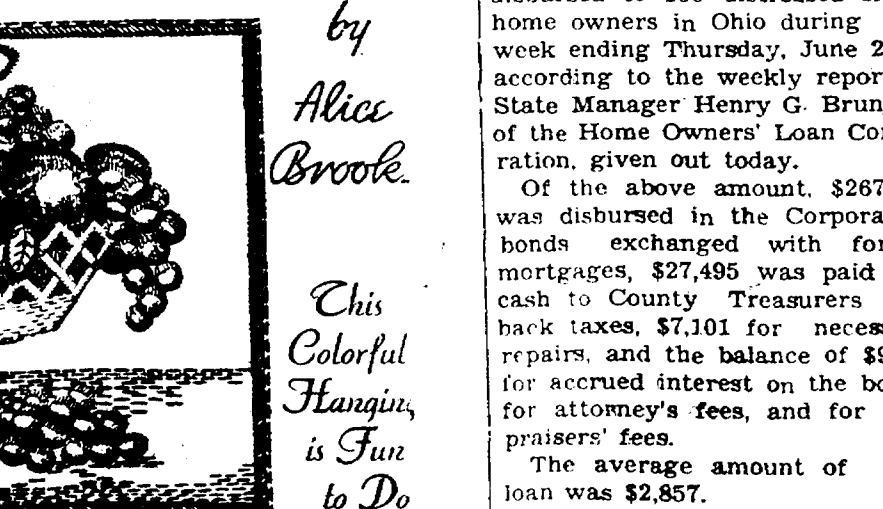

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wray Henry, Arthur Johnson, Clarence Beck and Miss Bonnie Ruff attended the picnic at Harbor Hills, Friday, sponsored by the Equitable Life Insurance Co. of Columbus.

Hans Boldt Jr. and Paul Streuch of Chicago spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Theo Marwedl, Pinkney-st. Mrs. Hans Boldt Sr. and daughter, Irma, who have been visiting at the Marwedl home the past week returned home Sunday with her son and Mr. Streuch.

Mrs. Roy Stout, Mrs. Ed. Clendenen, Frank Clendenen, this city, and Mrs. Wayne Chaney of Columbus attended funeral services in

Household Arts

by Alice Brooke

PATTERN 5392

Have you been hunting for some decoration to hang over the buffet in the dining room or over the mantel? This lovely wall hanging—a bowl of fruit—will add that touch of color that you need. Its rich colors, oranges, purples and soft reds will delight you as you work up the various fruits in the simple stitches that form them. Use a neutral colored background and do the bowl in white—it's very effective. You needn't frame this handsome decoration—just line it and hang it up—that's the way it's being done now.

In pattern 5392 you will find a transfer pattern of a picture 15x20 inches; a color chart and key; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed. To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Herald Household Arts Dept., 124 W. Main-st, Circleville, O.

Washington Merry-go-round

(Continued From Page One)

Committee and Coolidge sat in the White House. Another member of the committee was beefy Ogden L. Mills, later Secretary of the Treasury in the Hoover Cabinet.

Garner at that time proposed inheritance and gift taxes, plus a graduated tax on corporations and on incomes above a million. Mills, with the backing of the then-powerful Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, defeated Garner's plan, enacting instead a program that slashed rates from top to bottom—but chiefly at the top.

Roosevelt accepted Garner's plan, enacting instead a program that slashed rates from top to bottom—but chiefly at the top. Roosevelt accepted Garner's plan. It constituted that portion of his recommendations that he declared he wanted enacted this year.

Tactical Finesse

But when the President was ready to spring his program on Congress he was confronted with the delicate question of tactics.

Roosevelt wanted action this session, but with Old Guard Democrats in both chambers growing rebellious, he hesitated attempting a new and forceful drive. His problem was how to force prompt action without seeming to be applying the whip.

Here again the canny Garner gave sound counsel. He advised against calling in the Democratic floor leaders before the President sent his message to Congress. They would be sure to interpose objections, Jack said, bring pressure on the President not to seek the legislation this session.

The thing to do, he counseled, was to send the message to Capitol Hill without previous warning, and let the liberals who had been clamoring for tax-upping legislation apply the heat to the reluctant Democrats.

Successful Coup

That was precisely what was done. Garner forecast the situation one hundred per cent.

The Democratic leaders were taken completely by surprise. When they regained their breath they issued lukewarm endorsements of the taxing proposals but pooh-poohed any idea of enacting them into law. Whereupon the liberals rolled up their sleeves and announced they were prepared to fight any attempt to adjourn until the program had been disposed of.

This was just the cue the President had been waiting for. He summoned the Democratic leaders to the White House. By his side was Garner, and it was the latter who did most of the hard-bolled talking. He bluntly brushed aside objections raised by Chairman Bob Doughton of the Ways and Means Committee and Speaker Joe Byrnes.

"Who is being hit by these taxes?" he demanded. "A handful of millionaires and some big corporations who have been making huge profits. Under this tax plan, 75 per cent of the corporations will pay less taxes. The rest can well afford to pay more."

"You say it is too late in the session to put this program through. I say that the Democratic Party can't afford politically not to put it through. The Progressives have put us on the spot with their threat to demand action. We can't let them do that! We've got to put the President's program through ourselves."

This logic struck home. Three hours later, when the conference broke up, the leaders had agreed to force action this session regardless of how long it necessitated keeping Congress in session.

Smart in White Suede

Chic and smart for sportswear is the white suede jacket with detachable ascot tie worn here by platinum tressed Jean Harlow. Jean has covered a brown and white cotton frock with amber polka dots with this clever jacket, and creates an ensemble by the stitched suede hat, calf bag and sandals.

CONVICT ESCAPES

LIMA, July 1.—Amos Morey of Zanesville escaped Sunday from the Lima state hospital for the criminally insane. He hid under a pile of laundry to make his getaway.

In political campaigns, it is hard to beat money. Men with money can make the most noise and fool the people.—Upton Sinclair.

GRAND Theatre

Tonight and Tuesday

JOE E. BROWN in

"ALIBI IKE"

CARTOON. COMEDY.

CIRCLE THEATRE

Last Time Tonight

"One Frightened Night"

With a Superb Cast

You'll Gasp with Terror... as You Laugh with Glee.

Also Pathe News... Comedy.

109 RECEIVE AID

Loans totaling $311,391 were disbursed to 109 distressed small home owners in Ohio during the week ending Thursday, June 27th, according to the weekly report of State Manager Henry G. Brunner, of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, given out today.

Of the above amount, $267,400 was disbursed in the Corporation bonds exchanged with former mortgages, $27,495 was paid in cash to County Treasurers for back taxes, $7,101 for necessary repairs, and the balance of $9,395 for accrued interest on the bonds, for attorney's fees, and for appraisers' fees.

The average amount of each loan was $2,857.

JULY 4th SPECIAL

Suits Cleaned and Pressed 69c

Wool Trousers 29c

Felt Hats 43c

June 24th to July 6th Inc.

THE MARION CLEANERS

F. Main St. Phone 122.

We Call for and Deliver.

She can't go home

Her desk is piled with work which must be finished, but it is difficult to concentrate. Just another case of unnecessary, unnatural suffering.

Women who use VATONA, never think of permitting the so-called "painful period" to overtake them.

VATONA is prescribed by physicians, because it is the one-purpose tonic corrective, absolutely harmless and quickly effective.

VATONA is a liquid. Unlike pills and tablets, its action is almost immediate. NOT a coal-tar product.

For Sale at All Drug Stores Trial Size 50c

VATONA-Sedative-Antispasmodic

VATO-Hygienic-Aromatic-Powder

VATONA

Personal Financing of All Kinds in Amounts of $5 to $5000

FINANCING THE FARMER
Farmers who need money "will do well" to inquire about our Barnyard Loans. These loans are exactly fitted to the farmers' needs.

The City Loan
CLAYTON J. CHALPIN
Manager
132 W. MAIN ST.
CIRCLEVILLE

EXTRA!

All Broken Assortments

... Odd Lots ... Odd Sizes ...

Remaining from THREE HECTIC DAYS of Selling during "CIRCLEVILLE DAYS" will be sacrificed in a Great Store Wide

CLEARANCE

Three Days of Hectic Selling have left scores of odds and ends, incomplete size ranges and broken assortments throughout the Store... Most of this merchandise was purchased especially for Circleville Days, and greatly Underpriced... NOW you may select from everything remaining at STILL FURTHER REDUCTIONS.

One Rack SILK DRESSES

Today's SPOTLIGHT SPECIAL

Not Cotton But SILK...

$1.95

Many of These Dresses Are Regular $4.95 Values Misses and Women's Sizes

Check These VALUES HERE

40 LATE SPRING Hats 19c

Back COTTON Dresses Broken Assortments 79c Mostly Small Sizes.

BLISTER Sheers Sold the World Over for 2.95. Now on Sale $2.49 Sizes 14 to 20

Special Group Cottons Values to $1.98 $1.19 Full Range of Sizes.

See Our Window for this Week's SPECIAL

THE FASHION SHOW

108 W. Main St.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 581

ARLEDGE-NESELL NUPTIALS SUNDAY

At a home wedding, Sunday evening, Miss Nellie Arledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Arledge of Pickaway-twp, became the bride of Mr. William H. Nessell of Williamsport.

Rev. L. S. Metzler, United Brethren minister, read the nuptials at 5 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Montgomery of Columbus attended the couple as matron of honor and best man.

The bride was attired in a white tulle gown with which she wore a short tulle veil. Her arm bouquet was of pink roses.

Mrs. Montgomery wore pink crepe and carried yellow roses.

Miss Anna Dreisbach played the wedding march and nuptial music during the ceremony. A reception followed the ceremony for the wedding guests after which the couple left for a few days motor trip.

Mrs. Nessell graduated from Pickaway-twp high school in 1932 and Mr. Nessell is a graduate of Williamsport high school class of '37. He attended business college in Greenfield and is operator of a service station in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Nessell will make their home in Williamsport upon return from their wedding trip.

FIVE ATTEND DAUGHTERS OF 1812 MEETING

Mrs. Orion King, Mrs. John Boggs, Mrs. C. K. Hunsicker, Mrs. G. L. Schlar and Miss Charlotte Caldwell attended the regular meeting of Captain Jonathan Alder chapter Daughters of 1812, Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. John Florence in Plain City.

Mrs. King, president of the chapter, presided during the business session which was followed by vocal, piano and violin music by Mrs. Robinson and two daughters of Plain City.

A paper, "Historic Trees of America" was read by Mrs. John Copeland of London and the roll call was answered by each member telling a story of an historic tree in Ohio.

MISS HARRIS TO ATTEND SCHOOL IN NEW YORK

Miss Gladys Harris, who has been spending the past week with her mother, Mrs. Ada Harris and aunts, Misses Birdie and Blanche Weaver, S. Pickaway-st, left Monday for New York City, where she will attend summer school to study voice at Julliard School of Music.

Miss Harris, a graduate of Circleville high school, is a voice instructor in Virginia State college, Petersburg, Va. and will return there in the fall.

MISS GOFF RETURNS FROM WESTERN TRIP

Miss Mary Goff, 213 E. Walnut-st, has returned home after spending the past five months in Portland, Ore. Before leaving Portland she saw the Rosaria or Rose Festival. On her return home she took the Pacific Coast route through the Redwood forests to San Francisco stopping in San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, Calif. From San Diego she came by the southern route through El Paso and Dallas, Texas, Memphis and Nashville, Tenn., Louisville, Ky. and Cincinnati.

ASK FOR MADER'S GREASELESS "POTATO CHIPS"

CLIFTONA CIRCLEVILLE'S NEW MODERN THEATRE TODAY & TUESDAY

Always COMFORTABLY COOL! MAURICE CHEVALIER -IN-

"FOLIES BERGERE"

SELECTED SHORTS
and
NEWS

MRS. DUNDORE HONORED BEFORE RETURNING HOME

Mrs. Franklin Dundore, who has been here on an extended visit with her sisters, Misses Harriett and Mary Marfield, E. Main-st, was honor guest at a dinner party Saturday evening before her departure for her home in Paoli, Pa., Monday.

Mrs. Charles E. Groce was hostess at the dinner at her home on S. Court-st. Bridge was enjoyed during the evening following the dinner hour.

Guests were Mrs. Dundore, the Misses Marfield, Mrs. Tom Brown, Mrs. Joseph Wilder, Miss Nell Weldon and Mrs. Elgar Barrere.

DENMANS HAVE DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, N. Pickaway-st, had as their dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reedy and niece, Pasty Reedy, Mrs. B. M. Clifton and Harold Whippis of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Reedy and niece remained for a two days' visit.

MR. AND MRS. KING HAVE DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Orion King, W. High-st, entertained with a dinner at their home, Sunday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beavers of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cromley and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Millar of Ashville, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Upton of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. King.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James I. Smith, S. Court-st, left Sunday for a visit over the Fourth with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. John Corbett of Gross Point, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Upton of Seattle, Wash., arrived the latter part of last week for a visit at the home of Mrs. Upton's sister, Mrs. Orion King and Mr. King, W. High-st. Mrs. Upton will remain for a month and Mr. Upton will leave Thursday for a visit with relatives in New York and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. R. F. Haynes of Columbus came Sunday to remain over the Fourth with her sister, Mrs. Charles Imier and Mr. Imier, E. Main-st.

Mrs. James Watson of Toledo was a week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Mary Foresman, E. Main-st.

Miss Elsie Updyke, Circleville-twp, returned home Monday from Newark, where she spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. C. B. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Knowles and son, John, of Toledo, were guests, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Darst, W. Main-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fellmuth and daughter, Anna Marie, of Butler, Pa. and Rev. and Mrs. George Schuster and family of Pittsburgh, Pa. spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Schuster's father and Mrs. Fellmuth's brother, Dr. G. J. Troutman, E. Mount-st. Monday Dr. Troutman and son, Gladstone, Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Troutman and daughter, Ruth, and their guests from Pittsburgh left for a week's stay at Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Griffith and family of Lancaster, formerly of this city were guests here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Eichinger of Columbus, formerly of this city,

U. S. Girl Who Shocked Paris

The Association for the Increase of the French Population is preparing to press charges in the Paris trial of Joan Warner, American dancer, whose case is being made a test case for what constitutes nudity on a French stage. The A. for the I. of the P. claims the blonde dancer forgot to use her fan, with which she is shown, and danced in the nude.

visited here Sunday attending the fortieth anniversary celebration for Dr. G. J. Troutman at Trinity Lutheran church.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Rockey and son of Ashville left Monday for a three weeks trip to Yellowstone National park, Denver and other western points of interest.

Miss Ethel Kirchofer, returned Sunday from a week's vacation. She visited several friends during the week and spent the latter part of the time at Silt Lake near Chicago, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Husted.

T. W. Sweeney returned Sunday night to his home in Maplewood, N. J., after a week-end visit with his aunt, Mrs. W. L. Mack, S. Washington-st. Mr. Sweeney was in Columbus for the past week attending the national convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce as a delegate from New York. He is also one of the national directors of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee and daughter, Miss Reba, Northridge-rd, were with a group of friends from Newark and Cincinnati, Sunday, enjoying a picnic dinner at Griggs Dam near Columbus.

Misses Bonnie and France Ruff, teachers in the Canton schools, are spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Ruff. They will return to Canton Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wray Henry, Arthur Johnson, Clarence Beck and Miss Bonnie Ruff attended the picnic at Harbor Hills, Friday, sponsored by the Equitable Life Insurance Co. of Columbus.

Hans Boildt Jr. and Paul Streuch of Chicago spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Theo Marwedl, Pinckney-st. Mrs. Hans Boildt Sr. and daughter, Irma, who have been visiting at the Marwedl home the past week returned home Sunday with her son and Mr. Steuch.

Mrs. Roy Stout, Mrs. Ed. Glendenen, Frank Glendenen, this city, and Mrs. Wayne Chaney of Columbus attended funeral services in Social Calendar

MONDAY

Mrs. George Marion's Sunday school class of the Methodist Episcopal church will enjoy a picnic at Glenwood near Chillicothe. Members are to meet at the church at 6 p. m. and requested to bring a covered dish and sandwiches. The committee in charge includes Misses Mildred Shaner, Pauline Hill, Wilmina Phebus, Garnet Buskirk and Mrs. George Riggins.

TUESDAY

Logan Elm grange will meet in regular session at 8 p. m. in the Pickaway-twp school.

Salt Creek Valley grange will meet at 8 p. m. in the Salt Creek-twp school auditorium.

Otterbein Guild of the United Brethren church will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Lily Mae French, E. Franklin-st.

Primary department of the United Brethren Sunday school will enjoy a picnic at 2 p. m. at the Community house.

WEDNESDAY

Past Chiefs' club of the Pythian Sisters will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. G. M. Newton, Circleville-twp.

Dance at the Old Barn at the Pickaway Country club from 9:30 to 1:30 o'clock. Ralph Lloyd and his orchestra from Washington C. H. will play.

Scioto Valley grange will present the last traveling program at 8 p. m. at the meeting of Scioto grange in the Commercial Point school.

THURSDAY

Missionary society of the United Brethren church has postponed its meeting one week.

Class of 1900 of the Circleville high school will have its fourth reunion at the home of Mrs. Ella Seall Nave of Westerville.

Bluffton, Ind., Saturday afternoon for Mrs. W. H. Shark.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greco, Tom Douds and Glen Geib spent the week-end in Tuscarawas - co visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chaney and daughter, Bonnie Jean, of Columbus were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stout, N. Court-st.

109 RECEIVE AID

Loans totaling $311,391 were disbursed to 109 distressed small home owners in Ohio during the week ending Thursday, June 27th, according to the weekly report of State Manager Henry G. Brunner, of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, given out today.

Of the above amount, $267,400 was disbursed in the Corporation bonds exchanged with former mortgages, $27,495 was paid in cash to County Treasurers for back taxes, $7,101 for necessary repairs, and the balance of $9,395 for accrued interest on the bonds, for attorney's fees, and for appraisers' fees.

The average amount of each loan was $2,857.

JULY 4th SPECIAL

Suits Cleaned and Pressed Dresses
Panama Hats
Coats
Wool Trousers 29c
Felt Hats 43c
June 24th to July 6th Inc.

THE MARION CLEANERS

E. Main St. Phone 122.
We Call for and Deliver.

Washington Merry-go-round

(Continued From Page One)

Committee and Coolidge sat in the White House. Another member of the committee was beefy Ogden L. Mills, later Secretary of the Treasury in the Hoover Cabinet.

Garner at that time proposed inheritance and gift taxes, plus a graduated tax on corporations and on incomes above a million, Mills, with the backing of the then-powerful Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, defeated Garner's plan, enacting instead a program that slashed rates from top to bottom—but chiefly at the top.

Roosevelt accepted Garner's plan, enacting instead a program that slashed rates from top to bottom—but chiefly at the top.

Roosevelt accepted Garner's plan. It constituted that portion of his recommendations that he declared he wanted enacted this year.

Tactical Finesse

But when the President was ready to spring his program on Congress he was confronted with the delicate question of tactics.

Roosevelt wanted action this session, but with Old Guard Democrats in both chambers growing rebellious, he hesitated attempting a new and forceful drive. His problem was how to force prompt action without seeming to be applying the whip.

Here again the canny Garner gave sound counsel. He advised against calling in the Democratic floor leaders before the President sent his message to Congress. They would be sure to interpose objections, Jack said, bring pressure on the President not to seek the legislation this session.

The thing to do, he counseled, was to send the message to Capitol Hill without previous warning, and let the liberals who had been clamoring for tax-upping legislation apply the heat to the reluctant Democrats.

Successful Coup

That was precisely what was done. Garner forecast the situation one hundred per cent.

The Democratic leaders were taken completely by surprise. When they regained their breath they issued luke warm endorsements of the taxing proposals but pooh-poohed any idea of enacting them into law. Whereupon the liberals rolled up their sleeves and announced they were prepared to fight any attempt to adjourn until the program had been disposed of.

This was just the cue the President had been waiting for. He summoned the Democratic leaders to the White House. By his side was Garner, and it was the latter who did most of the hard-boiled talking. He bluntly brushed aside objections raised by Chairman Bob Doughton of the Ways and Means Committee and Speaker Joe Byrns.

"Who is being hit by these taxes?" he demanded. "A handful of millionaires and some big corporations who have been making huge profits. Under this tax plan, 75 per cent of the corporations will pay less taxes. The rest can well afford to pay more."

"You say it is too late in the session to put this program through. I say that the Democratic Party can't afford politically not to put it through. The Progressives have put us on the spot with their threat to demand action. We can't let them do that. We've got to put the President's program through ourselves."

This logic struck home. Three hours later, when the conference broke up, the leaders had agreed to force action this session regardless of how long it necessitated keeping Congress in session.

Smart in White Suede

Chic and smart for sportswear is the white suede jacket with detachable ascot tie worn here by platinum tressed Jean Harlow. Jean has covered a brown and white cotton frock with amber polka dots with this clever jacket, and creates an ensemble by the stitched suede hat, calf bag and sandals.

CONVICT ESCAPES

LIMA, July 1.—Amos Morey of Zanesville escaped Sunday from the Lima state hospital for the criminally insane. He hid under a pile of laundry to make his getaway.

In political campaigns, it is hard to beat money. Men with money can make the most noise and fool the people.—Upton Sinclair.

GRAND Theatre

Tonight and Tuesday

JOE E. BROWN in

"ALIBI IKE"

CARTOON. COMEDY.

CIRCLE THEATRE

Last Time Tonight

"One Frightened Night"

With a Superb Cast
You'll Gasps with Terror... as You Laugh with Glee.
Also Pathe News... Comedy.

She can't go home

Her desk is piled with work which must be finished, but it is difficult to concentrate. Just another case of unnecessary, unnatural suffering.

Women who use VATONA, never think of permitting the so-called "painful period" to overtake them.

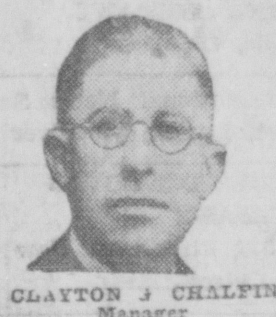

VATONA is prescribed by physicians, because it is the one-purpose tonic corrective, absolutely harmless and quickly effective.

VATONA is a liquid. Unlike pills and tablets, its action is almost immediate. NOT a coal-tar product.

For Sale at All Drug Stores
Trial Size 50c

VATONA-Sedative-Antispasmodic
VATO-Hygienic-Aromatic-Powder

Personal Financing of All Kinds in Amounts of $25 to $1000

FINANCING THE FARMER
Farmers who need money "will do well" to inquire about our Barnyard Loans. These loans are exactly fitted to the farmers' needs.

THE CITY LOAN

132 W. MAIN ST.
CIRCLEVILLE

EXTRA!

All Broken Assortments

... Odd Lots ... Odd Sizes ...

Remaining from THREE HECTIC DAYS of Selling during "CIRCLEVILLE DAYS" will be sacrificed in a Great Store Wide

CLEARANCE

Three Days of Hectic Selling have left scores of odds and ends, incomplete size ranges and broken assortments throughout the Store... Most of this merchandise was purchased especially for Circleville Days, and greatly Underpriced... NOW you may select from everything remaining at STILL FURTHER REDUCTIONS.

One Rack SILK DRESSES

Today's
SPOTLIGHT SPECIAL

Not Cotton
But SILK...

$1.95

Many of These Dresses Are Regular $4.95 Values
Misses and Women's
Sizes

Check These VALUES Here they ARE 40

LATE SPRING Hats
19c

1 Rack COTTON
Dresses
Broken Assortments
79c
Mostly Small Sizes.

BLISTER
Sheers
Sold the World
Over for 2.95.
Now on Sale
$2.49
Sizes 14 to 20

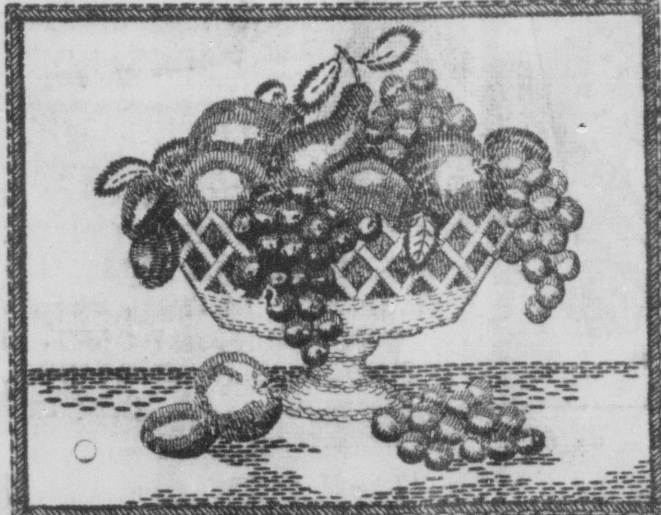

Special Group
Cottons
Values to $1.98
$1.19
Full Range of Sizes.

See Our Window for this Week's SPECIAL

THE FASHION SHOP

108 W. Main St. Circleville, Ohio.

Household Arts

PATTERN 5392

PATTERN 5392

Have you been hunting for some decoration to hang over the buffet in the dining room or over the mantel? This lovely wall hanging—a bowl of fruit—will add that touch of color that you need. Its rich colors, oranges, purples and soft reds will delight you as you work up the various fruits in the simple stitches that form them. Use a neutral colored background and do the bowl in white—it's very effective. You needn't frame this handsome decoration—just line it and hang it up—that's the way it's being done now.

In pattern 5392 you will find a transfer pattern of a picture 15x20 inches; a color chart and key; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Herald Household Arts Dept., 124 W. Main-st, Circleville, O.

by Alice Brooke.

This Colorful Hanging is Fun to Do

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established in 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established in 1894.

A Democratic newspaper, published evenings except Sunday by THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY West Main St., Circleville, Ohio.

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, Ohio Select List, Bureau of Advertising.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY No. 8 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 501 Fifth-ave., New York City; General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES Bu carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $6 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3; Zones one and two, $4 per year, beyond first and second postal zone, per year, $5.50.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

HOW TO BE AN AUTHOR

AS has been stated time and again, the way to learn to write is to write, the implication being that here as elsewhere experience is the best teacher. But of ways of writing after one learns there a bit, it seems, many. Some men have written immortal works in prison, some in their cups, some in bed. No two of them, according to Mr. Edwin Mitchell's "The Art of Authorship," are alike. To be a successful writer one must first invent a brand new formula for it. Like Edgar Wallace some authors can turn out a book a day. Gray worked at his "Elegy" for eight years before he thought it ready to go to press. Thomson, the man who wrote "The Seasons" and expatiated upon the delights of being out with the lark, could hardly be dragged from bed by noon. Mark Twain and Tennyson both liked to do their writing in bed. Some novelists lay out the entire plan of a work ahead; others, like Oppenheim and the elder Dumas, start out with a pair of characters and let them do what they like from chapter to chapter. One popular American novelist can't rest if a blank sheet of paper is within reach, without starting something. And then there was the late Richard Washburn Child who cursed the pangs of composition, and to be sure to get anything done, locked himself into a room with a typewriter after breakfast, and muttering savagely, "Now write, damn you!" proceeded to turn out mellifluous prose. Thus the only rule in authorship is to be careful to throw all set rules out of the window and make your own bizarre example something for future generations of writers to copy.

DOING BETTER

PERHAPS, after all, this country of ours, so long in the doldrums, has come along a little better during the last two years than we realize. Surely, with an estimated automobile production of 3,525,000 units in prospect for the present year, the largest since 1929, we must be doing fairly well. And further evidence along this line is to be found in the fact that income tax receipts for the fiscal year up to June 15 are $246,000,000 in excess of a comparable period a year ago. The importance of these figures is not to be ignored, even though, at the present writing, this is something less than a land of milk and honey. A woman doctor, aged 110, has given up smoking cigarettes. She finds that they're not good for her wind when she is playing tennis.

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Fred Weaver, soloist with Sousa's band, who spent a short vacation with his mother, Mrs. Noah Weaver, in Circleville, left for Atlantic City to join his organization.

Bertha Huffer, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reason Huffer, Deer Creek Twp., was seriously injured when she was thrown from a horse under the wheels of a binder operated by her father.

Six brothers and two sisters were among those who attended the Scott reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stonerock, near Williamsport. The youngest of the eight was Oscar Scott, 66, of Circleville, and the oldest was John Scott, 78, of Omega.

15 YEARS AGO

Helen Myrtle Anderson, 18, a resident of Columbus, met instant death on the third rail of the Scioto Valley traction line at Fairview, three miles north of Circleville. She started to walk from the station to the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Turney Ecord, after alighting from a car. Before the body could be removed it was horribly mangled by another car.

Richard H. Watt attended the national convention of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity held in Minneapolis, as a delegate of the Ohio Delta chapter.

Robert L. Bremer was elected president of the Circleville Chamber of Commerce. Lawrence E. Goeller was elected vice president and Paul Johnson treasurer.

25 YEARS AGO

Death came sudden to Allen O. Myers, a native of Circleville, at his home near Toledo. He was a prominent figure in the journalistic and political history of Ohio for many years. He learned the printer's trade in the office of The Union Herald.

The graduates of 1908 of Everts high school enjoyed a picnic at Hohen-Linden park. Nearly all members of the class attended the reunion.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Miesse left for an extended trip through the western states, visiting many interesting points, including national parks.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By E. V. SHEPARD, Famous Bridge Teacher

REMARKABLE RESULTS

CONSIDERING declarer's double-ace in spades, his tenace in trumps, dummy's general weakness and the best possible defense it was remarkable that declarer dared bid a small slam and succeed in fulfilling his contract. He had to play well to accomplish his purposes.

83
K 7 6 4 2
K 10 9 8
Q 4
K 9 7
A Q 10
5 3
5 3 2
9 8
N
W
S
J 6 5 4
J 9 8
6 4
J 10 6 2
A Q 10 2
None
A Q J 7
A K 7 5 3

Bidding went: South, 1-Club; West, 1-Heart; North, 1-No Trump; South, 2-Spades; North, 3-Clubs; South, 4-Diamonds, to show his 5-4-4-0 distribution; North, 5-Diamonds; South, 6-Diamonds, which West doubled. The opening lead was a trump, which dummy's 8 won. The 8-4-10 and K of spades went on the next trick, with West the winner. He led another trump. South won with his 10. When East played the 4 of trumps on the first trick and the 6 of trumps on the second, it was fair to assume that West held the missing 3. Dummy held only two trumps and had to ruff a spade and probably a club, as it was improbable that the 6 missing cards of that suit were divided 3-3. A low club was led and dummy was in with the Q. The last spade was led from the open hand and declarer's Q won the trick, thanks to the double finesse taken in that suit previously. Dummy ruffed the 2 of spades with next to its last trump. Dummy's last club was led. Declarer's K won the trick. The 8 and 9 of clubs played by West left declarer in doubt whether the 3-3 or 4-2 adverse division of that suit had been dealt, but it really made no difference, as dummy still held the K of trumps. The 5 of clubs was led. West discarded a heart and dummy's last trump won the trick. The declarer displayed his particular sense of humor, by leading back the K of hearts from dummy, as if East had bid that suit and South in fact had bid the K of hearts unless it was covered second hand. Probably for an instant both opponents and declarer's partner thought that South had forgotten the bidding. It was amusing to note the expressions on the faces of those three players, but South ruffed with his Q, as if suddenly he recalled that West bid hearts. Declarer led his Ace of diamonds picking up the only missing trump, then he led off his Ace of spades, and the Ace of clubs, picking up the last opposing card of that suit. The 7 of clubs won declarer's twelfth trick.

STORMY LOVE

A YOUNG NAVY MAN'S ROMANCE BY BELLE BURNS GROMER

CHAPTER 42

THE SUN was well up and his wrist watch pointed to nine o'clock when Val arose to build fires and put on the coffee pot. Lia, he saw, still slept soundly. He paused to gaze down at the small tinted-ivory face on the pillow and breathed the hope that she would awaken in a happier mood than she had lately shown.

After the kettle boiled he went into the washroom to shave and there was startled to a shamed realization of the unwholesome, bleary-eyed young man who faced him in the mirror. Too much to drink last night. Just as he was, in dirty, disheveled clothes, he had tumbled down to sleep. Now he longed for a steaming shower and fresh linen.

A hot bath was, of course, impossible, but it occurred to him that a dip in the lake with a brisk rubdown to follow might not be a bad idea. When he had shaved he sought the porch to inspect the placid sheet of water, but felt his courage quail at the prospect of that first icy plunge.

Surely, he must be getting soft to wretch at a cold dip in a balmy morning like this. He filled his lungs with a great breath of clear mountain air and thought that, after all, the Prestons had come to this place to conquer just such increasing flabbiness of will and body. Since he must, he reflected, discipline himself, test number one might as well be a dip in that exhilarating blue water. And perhaps, if she were in the mood, Lia might even join him.

Fired with enthusiasm he stripped his brown body to don his suit and flannel robe, then fetched Lia's bathing gear and placed it beside the bank. When he had armed himself with a cup of piping hot coffee he approached and touched her gently. "Time to rise and shine," he said. "Wake up and drink this." She sat erect and stared about her with startled eyes. When she saw Val and realized her surroundings, she peered sulkily from beneath her lashes but reached out a hand for the coffee. While she sipped it Val explained, "I have bacon and eggs ready to put on the pan. But the sun is warm, it's a gorgeous day and I want you to come for a swim with me before we have breakfast."

"I am going nowhere with you but back to Towns," she said. "I shall stay in this bed until you come to your senses."

"For your sake, be a sport, Lia," he pleaded. "I'm not enjoying this situation any more than you are. But I am trying to save our marriage and you must help me. Admitted I'm not such a hot husband; but you've been a real one. Anyway, I won't sit by any longer and watch you drift on in this ridiculous pose you've affected lately. I'm fed up with that Chinese stuff you deck yourself in. I'm sick of your play-acting—your everlasting pretending. Instead of the girl I married, you've turned yourself into the mask in Corday's play. You've got to get your common sense. You can't question his good faith. But I resent your wearing the clothes he suggests. He chooses your perfume, your hair-dress, your Persian cat, those damned clinking bracelets. Well, I refuse to permit my wife to mold herself to that pattern. I've brought you to this place to get back to normal. That is why I propose we shall remain here."

"Oh, I reckon we won't stay so very long," Her slow voice held a taunt. He followed her gaze to the almost empty Scotch bottle that still gazed at that pattern. "You can get without your liquor and you know it." Her contemptuous words whipped the blood into his face. "As soon as those other bottles are empty, we will head for home."

He stared at her with outraged eyes. "You are being unpleasant for no reason," he said indignantly. "Please try to meet me half way in this. When you've had breakfast you'll feel better about everything, I hope. Put on your suit now and come for a swim."

"Here in this bed I lie until you promise to take me home," she insisted stubbornly.

Fighting, screaming, she struggled furiously.

A dangerous light flamed in Val's blue eyes. He slipped out of his flannel robe and threw it across a chair. "We have come here for a purpose," he said evenly. "Right now we are going to swim. Either put on your suit and do it properly—or I shall be forced to carry you down and throw you in."

"You wouldn't dare!" she cried, her eyes black with anger.

"Wouldn't I, though!" He leaned suddenly to catch her up and bore her swiftly out of the house and along the path. Fighting, screaming, she struggled furiously so that her sheer gown was ripped to shreds and torn off. But though he tried not to hurt her he grasped her naked little body the tighter and kept doggedly on. Just before he reached the log float with his struggling burden she sank pointed coral nails in his cheek and clawed until the blood oozed. White with anger, he lifted her high and tossed her into the deep water.

An instant later he plunged in and forced her to strike out toward the center of the lake. He was a powerful swimmer and he watched carefully to see that she did not tire. She swam well as she had frequently boasted she could, but when he thought she had exhausted herself, he suddenly headed her in toward shore again.

His blood raced through his veins now and he felt intensely alive and stimulated. He emerged from the water, however, to realize that his wife's fury had not been cooled by the icy bath. Obnoxious to her nakedness, her features convulsed with rage, she turned on him to cry hysterically:

"I'll never forgive you for this, Val Preston. Never! I—I'd kill you if I could! Oh, I'd give my soul not to have married you, you drunken fool!" Her wet hair hung across her staring eyes. Her face was twisted into an ugly mask of bitterness. "You aren't even a good officer," she stormed. "And because the Yard people despise you they slight me, your wife. Not only that, you've neglected me to invent a device that could make us rich; but now you'll stand by and let our old navy take it without so much as a thank you. Oh, if you were a real man you would claim what is rightly yours. You would take proper care of your wife, make me happy. But instead, you bring me to this terrible place to torture me. Oh, I hate you. I despise you!"

She sobbed with anger, then screamed shrilly. "But I don't have to stay with you. Only wait until I get away from here; I will divorce you. Thank heaven, there is someone who will take care of me. I have intended for a long time to leave you if you didn't mend your ways. Now I'll show you I won't be treated like this. I will put you and your navy in the headlines when I tell about your—your brutality. I will divorce you. I—I'd even kill you if I could—"

He watched her rage with hard, disillusioned eyes. Divorce oh? So that was what she'd been brooding about. But if she thought her father would willingly undertake her support again, she was crazy. What ever his reasons for coming to Bremerton, Garene evidently had no intention of incurring any fresh responsibility where she was concerned.

As he stared at his wife's exquisite, naked body Val was shaken with an inner nausea that was almost overpowering. It amazed him that he had been so close to her beauty. Now with soul and body stripped before him, she was loathsome. He leaned forward to snatch up the torn night-dress and threw it about her. Avert his sick eyes, he said. "You had better go into the house and dress."

When he had donned breeches, clean shirt and high laced boots, he set about the preparations for breakfast. Perhaps when they had eaten they might return to sanity. Lia dressed and sat huddled in an arm chair. But after he placed food on the table she would not partake of it. "You had nothing to eat last night," he finally said. "I insist you stop playing the martyr and come to your breakfast."

"She sprang to her feet. 'You insist!' she cried. 'I suppose I shall be beaten if I don't. What else can I expect from a drunken bully who tortures a woman! A drunken beast—'"

There was a blue line about his mouth. He strode to the cupboard and brought out the bottles of whiskey. Then he stalked out to the porch and smashed them viciously, one after the other, on a rock by the doorpost. A while later, ashamed of his melodramatic gesture, he came slowly back into the room. But when he had forced himself to eat a little and had drunk a second cup of coffee, he stood up abruptly and left the house.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

THEATRES

AT THE CIRCLE

You can be a good actress and still be a good cook—take it from Evalyn Knapp and Hedda Hopper! They proved this recently while filming "One Frightened Night" at Mascot Studios—the highly amusing comedy mystery now showing at the Circle Theatre. Alternating between screams and laughs, they found, developed appetites. So they finally bribed a property man to supply the materials for an apple pie, and baked it on a handy stove, right on the set. "When the pie was opened the 'birds' began to sing," they laughed. "The 'birds' comprising the camera and production crews, we mean. They finished off our pie in no time!"

AT THE GRAND

"Alibi Ike," starring Joe E. Brown, is the current attraction at the Grand theatre and will continue tonight and Tuesday. This is a baseball story written by the late Ring Lardner, and the screen production is a laugh riot with a brand new twist.

AT THE CLIFTONA

Those fervid fans who can think of nothing nicer than Maurice Chevalier, unless it be TWO Maurice Chevaliers—are directed to the Cliftona Theatre, where precisely that miracle awaits them.

For "Folies Bergere," Darryl F. Zanuck's lavish 20th Century musical extravaganza, for release through United Artists, offers the imitable Frenchman in his first dual role.

As Charlier, the theatre-hatted singing star of the Folies Bergere revue, whose favorite indoor sport in battling with his insanely jealous little dancing partner—sweetheart, Mimi, Chevalier is the charming chap we all know. But as the naive, mustached, monocled

Baron Cassini, who juggles his bank's funds and is forced to make a secret flight to London to try to raise a loan to cover his

No Use for 'Heavy Water' Yet Found in Medicine

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

A CORRESPONDENT writes to ask whether any therapeutic properties have been discovered in "heavy water," the interesting new chemical compound.

"Heavy water" is water in which ordinary hydrogen, of mass 1, has been replaced by its isotope, deuterium, of mass 2. When replacement is complete, the compound is no longer water, but deuterium oxide, something entirely different with different properties, specific gravity, and boiling point.

Its effect on living tissues is apparently the exact opposite of water. Water is necessary to plant life, to the development of seeds, while heavy water is detrimental or destructive. It is also destructive to the lower forms of animal life—the single cell forms.

In S. S. Van Dine's latest detective story, "The Casino Murder Case," the plot revolves around a mysterious poisoning, and there is a suspicion that the peculiar symptoms were due to poisoning with heavy water. Whether it actually works in that way or not, I cannot say. I have seen no report in the medical literature.

On account of the technical difficulties of manufacture, there has been very little available for experimental work.

Destroys Cells

Here, then, we have a substance detrimental to the growth of living tissue and especially destructive to cells. It would appear that such a material could have little use in treating the diseases of living tissue.

But there is one set of diseases in which we have the greatest need for an agent destructive to cells—the tumors, cancer and its related forms. Some experiments have been made along this line. Trials on human beings were obviously out of the question. An unproved possibility could not be used in a condition where we already have destructive agents of known value in radium and the X-ray. So the trial was made on mice.

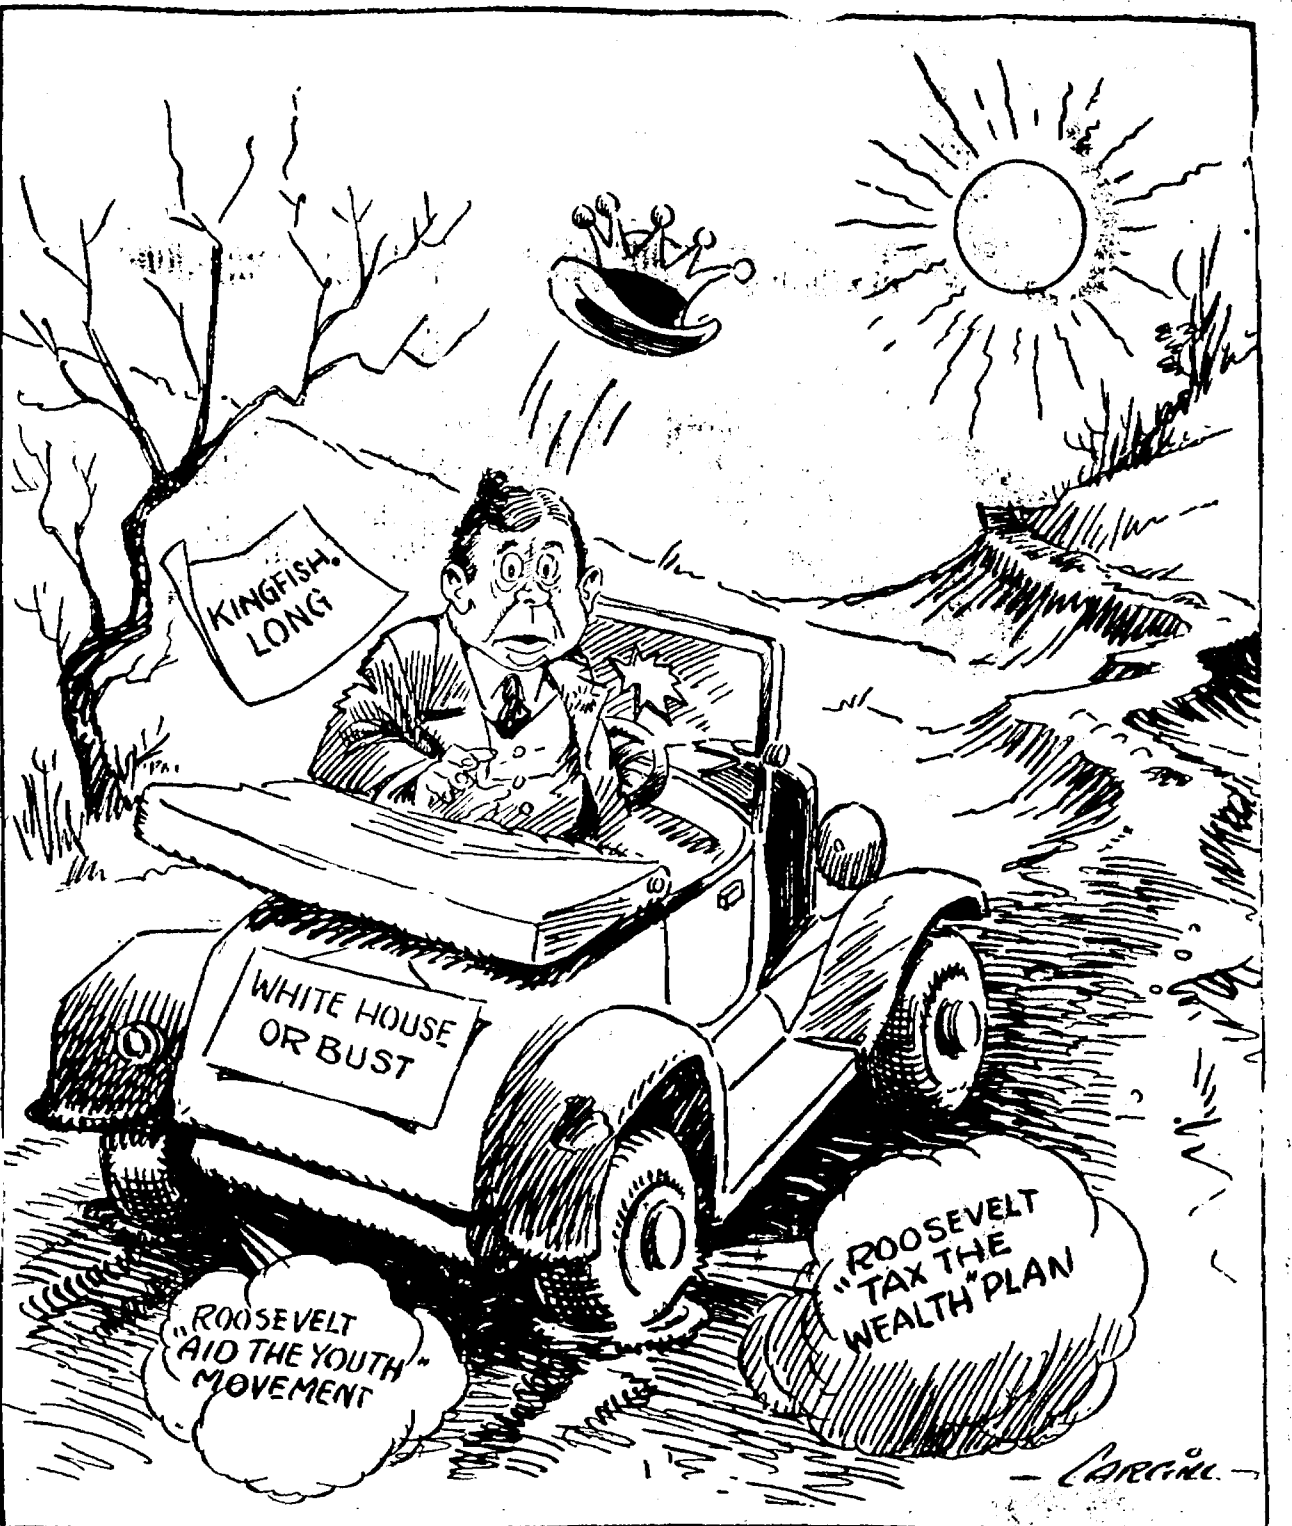

There is a certain kind of cancer which grows in mice, and can be inoculated into other mice, and is fatal in 100 per cent of cases. The mice were first given heavy water under the skin for several days. As it had no effect on them we may assume that the "poisonous" possibilities of heavy water are not very great. After this period of heavy water dosage, the mice were inoculated with the mouse cancer, and the injections of heavy water continued.

It did not, however, have the slightest effect on the growth of the tumor. All the mice died.

This is a negative result, and though disappointing, negative results of experiments have their values. At any rate, we may answer our correspondent's question by saying that up to the present, no use in medicine has been found for heavy water.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene," and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

'BUST'!

This Date in News of Past

Monday, July 1
1690—Battle of the Boyne. That's why this is Orangemen's Day.
1821—Spain surrendered Florida to the United States.
1862—Congress created the Bureau of Internal Revenue.
1863—Battle of Gettysburg began.
1864—Raw cotton reached $1.52 a pound in New York.
1867—Canadian Confederation established.
1875—International postal union convention went into effect.
1888—Italy annexed Massawak in Abyssinia. Mussolini didn't have anything to do with it; he was only four then.
1898—Battle of El Caney was fought in Spanish-American war.

GRAB BAG

Who is generally credited with having introduced tobacco into Europe?
What have the following in common: Ferenc Molnar, Eugene Brieux, and Franz Werfel?

Who is responsible for the phrase: "Open covenants openly arrived at"?

Correctly Speaking—Use the dash before a word

summarizing the preceding part of a sentence.

Words of Wisdom
Human nature is fond of novelty.—Pliny the Elder.

Today's Horoscope
Persons born on this day have much in them that is lovable, bright, and interesting.

Answers to Feroceing Questions
1. Sir Walter Raleigh.
2. They are contemporary playwrights.
3. Woodrow Wilson.

ON THE AIR

MONDAY

7:00—American Adventure; Richard Himber's orchestra, NBC, Fray & Braggiotti, CBS.
7:30—One Night Stands with Pick and Pat, CBS. William Daly's orchestra and soloists, NBC.
8:00—Harry Horlick's Gypsies; Greater Minstrels, WLW. "Six Gun Justice," CBS.
8:30—Al Goodman's orchestra, NBC. St. Louis Blues, CBS.
9:00—Dominion Day program with Leo Spitalni's orchestra and soloists, NBC. Ted Fiorillo's orchestra, CBS.

One Minute Pulpit

The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. —Ecclesiastes 10:12.

Poems That Live

JUST BE YOURSELF

There ain't no use in faken' Cause most folks are wise to you; There ain't no use in taken' Credit—For things you didn't do.

There ain't no use in knockin' Cause a knocker never placed; Folks don't take much stock in A person that's "two-faced." There ain't no use in feignin' When there's really nothing wrong;

There ain't no use complainin' Let your troubles drift along; There ain't no use believin' All the gossip that you hear. Cause most of it's deceivin' So just turn the old deaf ear. There ain't no use in cryin' When you make a lot of breaks; Just tear in and keep a tryin' To wipe out your mistakes. There's no use in bein' crabby When you're feelin' out-of-sort; Just get the old smile habit And show them you're a sport.

Don't ever try to pass the buck For some mistake you've made; Just face the gun and trust to luck And you're sure to make the grade.

Remember you're a long time gone When they lay you on the shelf; So keep your head and plug right on

And then—Just be Yourself.

In London, J. P. Morgan auctions off his collection of 795 miniatures. That Senate kneed-dandling incident probably turned him against things in midget size.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established in 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established in 1894.

A Democratic newspaper, published evenings except Sunday by THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
West Main St., Circleville, Ohio.

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, Ohio Select List, Bureau of Advertising.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES

JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
No. 8 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 501 Fifth-ave., New York City; General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $6 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3; Zones one and two, $4 per year, beyond first and second postal zone, per year, $5.50.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

HOW TO BE AN AUTHOR

AS has been stated time and again, the way to learn to write is to write, the implication being that here as elsewhere experience is the best teacher. But of ways of writing after one learns there is, it seems, many. Some men have written immortal works in prison, some in their cups, some in bed. No two of them, according to Mr. Edwin Mitchell's "The Art of Authorship," are alike. To be a successful writer one must first invent a brand new formula for it.

Like Edgar Wallace some authors can turn out a book a day. Gray worked at his "Elegy" for eight years before he thought it ready to go to press. Thomson, the man who wrote "The Seasons" and expatiated upon the delights of being out with the lark, could hardly be dragged from bed by noon.

Mark Twain and Tennyson both liked to do their writing in bed. Some novelists lay out the entire plan of a work ahead; others, like Oppenheim and the elder Dumas, start out with a pair of characters and let them do what they like from chapter to chapter. One popular American novelist can't rest if a blank sheet of paper is within reach, without starting something. And then there was the late Richard Washburn Child who cursed the pangs of composition, and, to be sure to get anything done, locked himself into a room with a typewriter after breakfast, and muttering savagely, "Now write, damn you!" proceeded to turn out mellifluous prose.

Thus the only rule in authorship is to be careful to throw all set rules out of the window and make your own bizarre example something for future generations of writers to copy.

DOING BETTER

PERHAPS, after all, this country of ours, so long in the doldrums, has come along a little better during the last two years than we realize.

Surely, with an estimated automobile production of 3,525,000 units in prospect for the present year, the largest since 1929, we must be doing fairly well. And further evidence along this line is to be found in the fact that income tax receipts for the fiscal year up to June 15 are $246,000,000 in excess of a comparable period a year ago. The importance of these figures is not to be ignored, even though, at the present writing, this is something less than a land of milk and honey.

A woman doctor, aged 110, has given up smoking cigarettes. She finds that they're not good for her wind when she is playing tennis.

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Fred Weaver, soloist with Sousa's band, who spent a short vacation with his mother, Mrs. Noah Weaver, in Circleville, left for Atlantic City to join his organization.

Bertha Huffer, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reason Huffer, Deer Creek twp., was seriously injured when she was thrown from a horse under the wheels of a binder operated by her father.

Six brothers and two sisters were among those who attended the Scott reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stonerock, near Williamsport. The youngest of the eight was Oscar Scott, 66, of Circleville, and the oldest was John Scott, 78, of Omega.

15 YEARS AGO

Helen Myrtle Anderson, 18, a resident of Columbus, met instant death on the third rail of the Scioto Valley traction line at Fairview, three miles north of Circleville. She started to walk from the station to the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Turney Eppard, after alighting from a car. Before the body could be removed it was horribly mangled by another car.

Richard H. Watt attended the national convention of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity held in Minneapolis, as a delegate of the Ohio Delta chapter.

Robert L. Brehmer was elected president of the Circleville Chamber of Commerce. Lawrence E. Goeller was elected vice president and Paul Johnson treasurer.

25 YEARS AGO

Death came sudden to Allen O. Myers, a native of Circleville, at his home near Toledo. He was a prominent figure in the journalistic and political history of Ohio for many years. He learned the printers' trade in the office of The Ohio Herald.

The graduates of 1908 of Everts high school enjoyed a picnic at Hohen-Linden park. Nearly all members of the class attended the reunion.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Miesse left for an extended trip through the western states, visiting many interesting points, including national parks.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By E. V. SHEPARD, Famous Bridge Teacher

REMARKABLE RESULTS

CONSIDERING declarer's double menace in spades, his tenace in trumps, dummy's general weakness and the best possible defense it was remarkable that declarer dared bid a small slam and succeed in fulfilling his contract. He had to play well to accomplish his purposes.

♠ 8 3
♥ K 7 6 4 2
♦ K 10 9 8
♣ Q 4
♠ K 9 7
♥ A Q 10
♦ 5 3
♣ 5 3 2
♠ 9 8
♠ J 6 5 4
♥ J 9 8
♦ 6 4
♣ J 10 6 2
♠ A Q 10 2
♥ None
♦ A Q J 7
♣ A K 7 5

Bidding went: South, 1-Club; West, 1-Heart; North, 1-No Trump; South, 2-Spades; North, 3-Clubs; South, 3-Diamonds, to show his 5-4-4-0 distribution; North, 5-Diamonds; South, 6-Diamonds, which West doubled.

The opening lead was a trump, which dummy won. The 4-4-1-0 and K of spades went on the next trick, with West the winner. He led another trump. South won with his J. When East played the 4 of trumps on the first trick and the 6 on the second lead of trumps, it was fair to assume that West held the missing 5. Dummy held only two trumps and had to ruff a spade and probably a club, as it was improbable that the 6 missing cards of that suit were divided 3-3. A low club was led and dummy was in with the Q. The last spade was led from the open hand. Declarer's Q won the trick, thanks to the double finesse taken in that suit previously. Dummy ruffed the 2 of spades with next to its last trump.

Dummy's last club was led. Declarer's K won the trick. The 8 and 9 of clubs played by West left declarer in doubt whether the 3-3 or 4-2 adverse division of that suit had been dealt, but it really made no difference, as dummy still held the K of trumps. The 5 of clubs was led. West discarded a heart and dummy's last trump won the trick.

The declarer displayed his particular sense of humor, by leading back the K of hearts from dummy, as if East had bid that suit and South intended to let the K ride unless it was covered second hand. Probably for an instant both opponents and declarer's partner thought that South had forgotten the bidding. It was amusing to note the expressions on the faces of those three players, but South ruffed with his Q, as if suddenly he recalled that West bid hearts.

Declarer led his Ace of diamonds picking up the only missing trump, then he led off his Ace of spades, and the Ace of clubs, picking up the last opposing card of that suit. The 7 of clubs won declarer's twelfth trick.

STORMY LOVE

A YOUNG NAVY MAN'S ROMANCE

BELLE BURNS GROMER

CHAPTER 42

THE SUN was well up and his wrist watch pointed to nine o'clock when Val arose to build fires and put on the coffee pot. Lia, he saw, still slept soundly. He paused to gaze down at the small tinted-ivory face on the pillow and breathed the hope that she would awaken in a happier mood than she had lately shown.

After the kettle boiled he went into the washroom to shave and there was startled to a shamed realization of the unwholesome, bleary-eyed young man who faced him in the mirror. Too much to drink last night. Just as he was, in dirty, disheveled clothes, he had tumbled down to sleep. Now he longed for a steaming shower and fresh linen.

A hot bath was, of course, impossible, but it occurred to him that a dip in the lake with a brisk rubdown to follow might not be a bad idea. When he had shaved he sought the porch to inspect the placid sheet of water, but felt his courage quail at the prospect of that first icy plunge.

Surely, he must be getting soft to welch at a cold dip on a balmy morning like this. He filled his lungs with a great breath of clear mountain air and thought that, after all, the Prestons had come to this place to conquer just such increasing fatness of will and body. Since he must, he reflected, discipline himself, test number one might as well be a dip in that exhilarating blue water. And perhaps, if she were in the mood, Lia might even join him.

Fired with enthusiasm he stripped his brown body to don his suit and flannel robe, then fetched Lia's bathing gear and placed it beside the bunk. When he had armed himself with a cup of piping hot coffee he approached and touched her gently.

"Time to rise and shine," he said. "Wake up and drink this."

She sat erect and stared at her with startled eyes. When she saw Val and realized her surroundings, she peered sullenly from beneath her lashes but reached out a hand for the coffee. While she sipped it Val explained, "I have bacon and eggs ready to put on the pan. But the sun is warm, it's a gorgeous day and I want you to come for a swim with me before the heat of the day."

"I am going nowhere with you but back to Towner's," she said icily. "I shall stay in this bed until you come to your senses."

"For your sake, be a sport, Lia," he pleaded. "I'm not enjoying this situation any more than you are. But I am trying to save our marriage and you must help me. Admittedly, I'm not such a hot husband; but you've been to blame, too. Anyway, I won't sit by any longer and watch you drift on in this ridiculous pose you've affected lately. I'm fed up with that Chinese stuff you deck yourself in. I'm sick of your play-acting—your everlasting pretenses. Instead of that I want, admitted, to turn myself into the mask in Cordway's play. Oh, so far as you are concerned, I'm not questioning his good faith. But I resent your wearing the clothes he suggests. He chooses your perfume, your hair-dress, your Persian cat, those damned clicking bracelets. Well, I refuse to permit my wife to mold herself to that pattern. I've brought you to this place to get back to normal. That is why I propose we shall remain here."

"Oh, I reckon we won't stay so very long," Her slow voice held a taunt. He followed her gaze to the almost empty Scotch bottle that still graced the table. "You can't get on without your liquor and you know it." Her contemptuous words whipped the blood into his face. "As soon as those other bottles are empty, we will head for home."

He stared at her with outraged eyes. "You are being unpleasant for no good reason," he said indignantly. "Please try to meet me half way in this. When you've had breakfast you'll feel better about everything, I hope. Put on your suit now and come for a swim."

"Here in this bed I lie until you Baron Cassini, who juggles his bank's funds and is forced to make a secret flight to London to try to raise a loan to cover his promise to take me home," she insisted stubbornly.

Fighting, screaming, she struggled furiously.

A dangerous light flamed in Val's blue eyes. He slipped out of his flannel robe and threw it across a chair. "We have come here for a purpose," he said evenly. "Right now we are going to swim. Either put on your suit and do it properly—or I shall be forced to carry you down and throw you in."

"You wouldn't dare!" she cried, her eyes black with anger.

"Wouldn't I, though!" He leaped suddenly to catch her up and bore her swiftly out of the house and along the path. Fighting, screaming, she struggled furiously so that her sheer gown was ripped to shreds and torn off. But though he tried not to hurt her he grasped her naked little body the tighter and kept doggedly on. Just before he reached the log float with his struggling burden she sank pointed coral nails in his cheek and clawed until the blood oozed. White with anger, he lifted her high and tossed her into the deep water.

An instant later he, too, plunged in and forced her to strike out toward the center of the lake. He was a powerful swimmer and he watched carefully to see that she did not tire. She swam well as she had frequently boasted she could, but when he thought she had exerted herself sufficiently he headed her in toward shore again.

His blood raced through his veins now and he felt intensely alive and stimulated. He emerged from the water, however, to realize that his wife's fury had not been cooled by the icy bath. Oblivious to her nakedness, her features convulsed with rage, she turned on him to cry hysterically:

"I'll never forgive you for this, Val Preston. Never! I—I'd kill you if I could! Oh, I'd give my soul not to have married you, you drunken fool!" Her wet hair hung across her staring eyes. Her face was twisted into an ugly mask of bitterness. "You aren't even a good officer," she stormed. "And because the Yard people despise you they slight me, your wife. Not only that, you've neglected me to invent a device that could make us rich, but now you stand by and let your old navy take it without so much as a thank you. Oh, if you were a real man you would claim what is rightly yours. You would take proper care of your wife, make me happy. But instead, you bring me to this terrible place to tor-

(TO BE CONTINUED)

THEATRES

AT THE CIRCLE

You can be a good actress and still be a good cook—take it from Evelyn Knapp and Hedda Hopper!

They proved this recently while filming "One Frightened Night" at Mascot Studios—the highly amusing comedy mystery now showing at the Circle Theatre. Alternating between screams and laughs, they found, developed appetites. So they finally bribed a property man to supply the materials for an apple pie, and baked it on a handy stove, right on the set.

"When the pie was opened the 'birds' began to sing," they laughed. "The 'birds' comprising the camera and production crews, we mean. They finished off our pie in no time!"

AT THE GRAND

"Alibi Ike," starring Joe E. Brown, is the current attraction at the Grand theatre and will continue tonight and Tuesday. This is a baseball story written by the late Ring Lardner, and the screen production is a laugh riot with a brand new twist.

AT THE CLIFTON

Those fervid fans who can think of nothing nicer than Maurice Chevalier—unless it be TWO Maurice Chevaliers—are directed to the Clifton Theatre, where precisely that miracle awaits them.

For "Folies Bergere," Darryl F. Zanuck's lavish 20th Century musical extravaganza for release through United Artists, offers the inimitable Frenchman in his first dual role.

As Charlier, the straw-hatted singing star of the Folies Bergere revue, whose favorite indoor sport in battling with his insanely jealous little dancing partner—sweetheart, Mimi, Chevalier is the charming chap we all know. But as the suave, mustached, monocled deficit, we have an entirely new and interesting characterization which proves that Maurice is an actor as well as an entertainer.

No Use for 'Heavy Water' Yet Found in Medicine

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

A CORRESPONDENT writes to ask whether any therapeutic properties have been discovered in "heavy water," the interesting new chemical compound.

"Heavy water" is water in which ordinary hydrogen, of mass 1, has been replaced by its isotope, deuterium, of mass 2. When replacement is complete, the compound is no longer water, but deuterium oxide, something entirely different with different properties, specific gravity, and boiling point.

Its effect on living tissues is apparently the exact opposite of water. Water is necessary to plant life, to the development of seeds, while heavy water is detrimental or destructive. It is also destructive to the lower forms of animal life—the single cell forms.

In S. S. Van Dine's latest detective story, "The Casino Murder Case," the plot revolves around a mysterious poisoning, and there is a suspicion that the peculiar symptoms were due to poisoning with heavy water. Whether it actually works in that way or not, I cannot say. I have seen no report in the medical literature.

On account of the technical difficulties of manufacture, there has been very little available for experimental work.

Destroys Cells

Here, then, we have a substance detrimental to the growth of living tissue and especially destructive to

cells. It would appear that such a material could have little use in treating the diseases of living tissue. But the use of diseases in which we have the greatest need for an agent destructive to cells—the tumors, cancer and its related forms.

Some experiments have been made along this line. Trials on human beings were obviously out of the question. An unproved possibility could not be used in a condition where we already have destructive agents of known value in radium and the X-ray. So the trial was made on mice.

There is a certain kind of cancer which grows in mice, and can be inoculated into other mice, and is fatal in 100 per cent of cases. The mice were first given heavy water under the skin for several days. As it had no effect on them we may assume that the "poisonous" possibilities of heavy water are not very great. After this period of heavy water dosage, the mice were inoculated with the mouse cancer, and the injections of heavy water continued.

It did not, however, have the slightest effect on the growth of the tumor. All the mice died.

This is a negative result, and though disappointing, negative results of experiments have their values. At any rate, we may answer our correspondent's question by saying that up to the present, no use in medicine has been found for heavy water.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets by Dr. Clendinging can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendinging, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

"BUST"!

This Date in News of Past

Monday, July 1

1690—Battle of the Boyne. That's why this is Orangemen's Day.

1821—Spain surrendered Florida to the United States.

1862—Congress created the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

1863—Battle of Gettysburg began.

1864—Raw cotton reached $1.52 a pound in New York.

1867—Canadian Confederation established.

1875—International postal union convention went into effect.

1888—Italy annexed Massawak in Abyssinia. Mussolini didn't have anything to do with it; he was only four then.

1898—Battle of El Caney was fought in Spanish-American war.

GRAB BAG

Who is generally credited with having introduced tobacco into Europe?

What have the following in common: Ferenc Molnar, Eugene Brieux, and Franz Werfel?

Who is responsible for the phrase: "Open covenants openly arrived at"?

Correctly Speaking—Use the dash before a word

summarizing the preceding part of a sentence.

Words of Wisdom
Human nature is fond of novelty.—Pliny the Elder.

Today's Horoscope
Persons born on this day have much in them that is lovable, bright, and interesting.

Answers to Foregoing Questions
1. Sir Walter Raleigh.
2. They are contemporary playwrights.
3. Woodrow Wilson.

ON THE AIR

MONDAY

7:00—American Adventure; Richard Himber's orchestra, NBC. Fray & Braggiotti, CBS.

7:30—One Night Stands with Pick and Pat, CBS. William Daly's orchestra and soloists, NBC.

8:00—Harry Horlick's Gypsies; Greater Minstrels, WLW. "Six Gun Justice," CBS.

8:30—Al Goodman's orchestra, NBC. St. Louis Blues, CBS.

9:00—Dominion Day program with Leo Spittal's orchestra and soloists, NBC. Ted Floritio's orchestra, CBS.

One Minute Pulpit

The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.—Ecclesiastes 10:12.

Poems That Live

JUST BE YOURSELF

There ain't no use in faken' Cause most folks are wise to you; There ain't no use in taken' Credit—For things you didn't do.

There ain't no use in knockin', Cause a knocker never placed. Folks don't take much stock in A person that's "two-faced." There ain't no use in feignin' When there's really nothing wrong;

There ain't no use complainin' Let your troubles drift along; There ain't no use believin' All the gossip that you hear. Cause most of it's deceivin' So just turn the old deaf ear.

There ain't no use in cryin' When you make a lot of breaks. Just tear in and keep a tryin' To wipe out your mistakes. There's no use in bein' crabby When you're feelin' out-of-sort. Just get the old smile habit And show them you're a sport.

Don't ever try to pass the buck For some mistake you've made. Just face the gun and trust to luck

And you're sure to make the grade. Remember you're a long time gone When they lay you on the shelf. So keep your head and plug right on

And then—Just be Yourself.

In London, J. P. Morgan auctions off his collection of 795 miniatures. That Senate knee-dandling incident probably turned him against things in midget size.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

STAMP OF SAN MARINO, SHOWS A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF THE WHOLE COUNTRY

Plan NOW

An All Day
and Night
Celebration
When You ...

YOU might get your biggest thrill
on the Fourth by staying at home fixing a big dinner and watching your boys shoot off their fireworks

... BUT
YOU'LL MISS THE
TIME OF YOUR LIFE IF YOU
DON'T ...

COME TO ASHVILLE

ALL ASHVILLE INVITES YOU TO SPEND THE FOURTH WITH THEM!

DANCING

ON THE NEW 40x80 FT.
PLATFORM.

SQUARE DANCING
in the Afternoon

ROUND DANCING
at Night

BIG OPENING PARADE

at 11 A. M.

Floats — Bands — Clowns
Decorated Cars and Clever Entries

Free Attractions

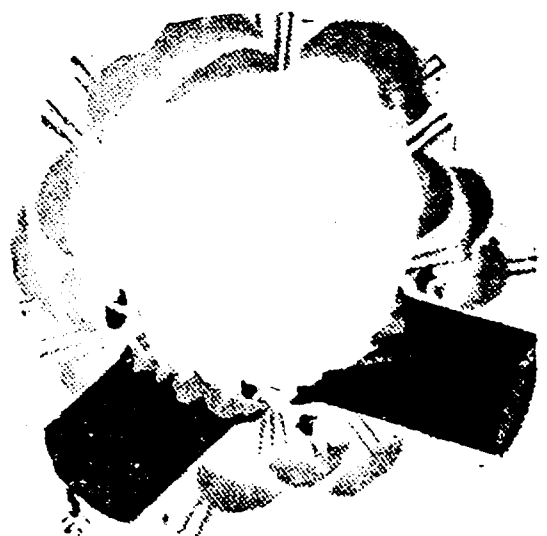

Rope Walking — High Diving
Acrobatic Performers
Band Concerts — Free Shows
Boxing and Wrestling by Experienced Ring Men
Ferris Wheel

MUSIC BY ASHVILLE BAND

- - FIREWORKS - -

GRAND FISH FRY

FREE ADMISSION—FREE PARKING

This Page Made Possible by the Following Public-spirited Ashville Firms and Individuals:

The Citizens Bank

The Ashville Banking Co.

A. B. Cooper
Service Station

Hook's Corner Store

D. H. Ebert
General Merchandise

Foreman's Motor Sales
Chevrolet Dealers

Henry J. Snyder
Postmaster

C. W. Fortner's Garage

Groves and Rhodes
Dodge and Plymouth Dealers

Scioto Grain and Supply

Reid's Service Station
Blue Sunoco Gas and Oil

D. H. Squire and Son
Department Store

Campbell and Cloud
General Repair Garage

Schlegel Funeral Home

Morrison's Complete Food Mkt.

Beckett Motor Sales
Ford Sales and Service

J. M. Kaiserman Groceries

Clyde Brinker's Confectionery

Plan NOW

An All Day
and Night
Celebration
When You ...

YOU might get your biggest thrill
on the Fourth by staying at home
fixing a big dinner and watching your boys shoot off their fireworks

... BUT
YOU'LL MISS THE
TIME OF YOUR LIFE IF YOU
DON'T ...

COME TO ASHVILLE

ALL ASHVILLE INVITES YOU TO SPEND THE FOURTH WITH THEM!

DANCING

ON THE NEW 40x80 FT.
PLATFORM.

SQUARE DANCING
in the Afternoon

ROUND DANCING
at Night

BIG OPENING PARADE

at 11 A. M.

Floats — Bands — Clowns
Decorated Cars and Clever Entries

Free Attractions

Rope Walking — High Diving
Acrobatic Performers
Band Concerts — Free Shows
Boxing and Wrestling by Experienced Ring Men
Ferris Wheel

MUSIC BY ASHVILLE BAND

- - FIREWORKS - -

GRAND FISH FRY

FREE ADMISSION—FREE PARKING

This Page Made Possible by the Following Public-spirited Ashville Firms and Individuals:

The Citizens Bank

The Ashville Banking Co.

A. B. Cooper
Service Station

Hook's Corner Store

D. H. Ebert
General Merchandise

Foreman's Motor Sales
Chevrolet Dealers

Henry J. Snyder
Postmaster

C. W. Fortner's Garage

Groves and Rhodes
Dodge and Plymouth Dealers

Scioto Grain and Supply

Reid's Service Station
Blue Sunoco Gas and Oil

D. H. Squire and Son
Department Store

Campbell and Cloud
General Repair Garage

Schlegel Funeral Home

Morrison's Complete Food Mkt.

Beckett Motor Sales
Ford Sales and Service

J. M. Kaiserman Groceries

Clyde Brinker's Confectionery

US' CLIMB TO TOP HURTS CHAMP'S RANK

Report Commission May Force Braddock to Risk Title In December.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Reports were current here today that the New York State Boxing commission would compel James J. Braddock, world's champion heavyweight fighter, to defend his title in December.

Such reports appear to have their foundation in the fact that the sensational rise to prominence of Joe Louis, young Detroit negro who knocked out Primo Carnera last week, has evoked a public clamor that he be given an early chance at the championship.

Although Braddock gained much favorable publicity as "Mr. Family Man" and the incredible hero of a fantastic "rags to riches" romance, his position as the favorite of the boxing fans seems to have been usurped by the spectacular Louis.

It is generally thought by sports writers and men prominent in the boxing world, however, that at least a year will pass before the Detroit will be given an opportunity to fight for the championship.

NEW YORK, July 1.—On Saturday morning Max Schmeling, in effect, told International News Service in an exclusive interview that he would rather meet Max Baer in Germany or Holland than meet Joe Louis in America or anywhere else, and that in any case as far as a Louis fight was concerned, he "would have to think it over." On Saturday evening, Schmeling's step-manager, Joe Jacobs, sailed for Germany, telling everybody that Schmeling had cabled him, accepting terms for Louis in September.

Somebody is obviously wrong and it can't be Schmeling. He couldn't be mistaken on a point like this. He has been told too many times by Jacobs that he, Schmeling, can't even lick Carnera. They are still trying to identify some of the latter's remains, six days after he was knocked stiffer than a length of linoleum by Louis. As of 10:28 p. m. last Tuesday.

Kept from Carnera "I was smart enough to keep Schmeling away from Carnera," Jacobs told the writer recently, "that's one he couldn't have won." But this was before Louis went over Carnera like an estimate and talk began about a $500,000 or $600,000 gate with Schmeling and Louis in September.

MAXIE PROMISES HE'LL BE GOOD

NEW YORK, July 1.—Ex-heavyweight champion, Max Baer, is going to be a good little boy from now on.

He said so today in two uncertain terms, while his two-day bride, the former Mary Ellen Sullivan, nodded assent.

Max promised that henceforth he'd keep regular hours, attend church, drink no liquor and go to night clubs and other "hot spots" only in the company of his "pumpkins," as he affectionately terms the new missus.

Yesterday morning he attended services at the Roman Catholic church of St. Jean Baptiste and in

Standings

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Club	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Minneapolis	38	31	.551
Indianapolis	38	31	.551
Milwaukee	36	31	.537
Kansas City	35	35	.500
COLUMBUS	33	35	.485
St. Paul	32	31	.515
Toledo	31	37	.456
Louisville	31	42	.429
NATIONAL
Club	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	41	18	.719
Pittsburgh	39	20	.661
Chicago	36	28	.562
St. Louis	36	29	.554
Brooklyn	29	34	.460
Cincinnati	22	38	.366
Philadelphia	26	38	.406
Boston	20	46	.303
AMERICAN LEAGUE
Club	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	40	21	.655
Cleveland	37	26	.587
Detroit	38	29	.567
Chicago	32	28	.533
Boston	32	33	.492
Washington	29	35	.450
Philadelphia	26	35	.426
St. Louis	19	43	.308

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS
 MINNEAPOLIS 4, COLUMBUS 2
 TOLEDO 5, ST. PAUL 1
 KANSAS CITY 3, INDIANAPOLIS 2 (11 in.)
 KANSAS CITY 3, INDIANAPOLIS 7
 LOUISVILLE 4, MILWAUKEE 3 (15 in.)
 MILWAUKEE 5, LOUISVILLE 3
 NATIONAL LEAGUE
 CINCINNATI 5, ST. LOUIS 2
 PITTSBURGH 2, PHILADELPHIA 2
 PHILADELPHIA 15, BOSTON 3
 NEW YORK 7, BROOKLYN 4
 NEW YORK 5, BROOKLYN 4
 PITTSBURGH 2, CHICAGO 2
 AMERICAN LEAGUE
 BOSTON 3, CLEVELAND 0
 ST. LOUIS 1, ST. LOUIS 6
 ST. LOUIS 10, ST. LOUIS 7
 ST. LOUIS 9, NEW YORK 7 (12

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

Reds Bump Cards

The chameleon-like activities of the Cincinnati Reds in regard to the St. Louis Cardinals is surprising. The Reds have long been St. Louis' greatest booster-toward the National league pennant, but Sunday Tony Freitas beat Dizzy Dean, 5 to 2, to give the Rhinelanders three straight games and knock the Cards into a cocked hat. The streak of Mel Harder, Cleveland hurler, was shattered by a rookie, Kennedy, Sunday for the Chicago White Sox. After Pearson beat the veteran Ted Lyons in the opener Kennedy turned the tables on Harder in the nightcap. The Yankees got beat in a dozen cantos by the Washington team.

Compete for Mashie

Pickaway Country club golfers will vie, Thursday, July 4, for the Cryder Memorial mashie. The mashie is the annual prize to the person winning the low net score in the Fourth of July handicap. There is much activity on the country club course and many golfers have a chance to cop the mashie.

Ladies Race Day

It was ladies' day at the Lancaster fair grounds today as the running events went into their first full week. The local boys have been good patrons of the track. Joy Sylvester, Italian boater, is leading the riders just ahead of Gonzales. Harold Gower, and Hank Manifold. More horses arrived over the week-end from Dayton and Thistle-down and the events appear to be well on the way.

What of Charge?

Just what the action of Secretary George Hammel of the softball loop, in charging auto drivers to park in the ball field means is uncertain at this time. The utility company has been very liberal in permitting use of the field but what it thinks of charging admission to the lot is not known. The reason the charge is deemed necessary is because collections have been too low. This is the first year since the league opened that it has been necessary to charge the public to see the games.

The evening visited a Long Island roadhouse.

"I think marriage is just the thing for me," Maxie explained, seriously. "But about those night clubs, Mary—I really mean to keep out of the honky tonks, but there's no harm in the good places, is there, darling?"

Changing the all-important subject of whether he'll fight again, Maxie maintained a discreet silence.

Mrs. Baer repeated her earlier statement that she "just hates fighting."

If postoffice officials continue to trace down those send-a-dime chains, they'll probably find at the end a bunch of missing links.

STORY OF BRADDOCK No. 6—World Champion

Max Baer, hailed as another Dempsey a year ago, and entering the ring against Jimmy Braddock, an overwhelming favorite to win, appeared as a palooka against the determined Braddock.

While the fight world wondered at Baer's strange showing, Braddock's victory was popular. The former laborer was praised for his fighting heart. Literally he got up off the floor to win the title.

New U. S. C. Star

Ken Carpenter

Not all of the University of Southern California's athletic stars are football players. Here is the Trojan's new campus hero—Ken Carpenter, winner of the discus throw in the national collegiate track and field meet in Berkeley, Cal.

MILLERS ADD TO LOOP LEAD

Defeat Columbus; Indianapolis Drops Two to Kansas City Outfit.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—The Minneapolis Millers, through virtue of their 4 to 2 win over Columbus, increased their hold on first place in the American Association and rested comfortably today with a four and one-half game lead over the second place Indianapolis team which lost two games to Kansas City yesterday.

The second game between the Millers and the Red Birds was postponed after a downpour held up play in the second inning of the opener for over an hour.

The Birds took the lead in the fourth by scoring twice, but the Millers tied the count in the sixth and went on to score one run each in the seventh and eighth to win. The Kansas City Kaws had to go 11 innings to take the opener from the Indians, 3 to 2 and then staged a five run rally in the ninth of the nightcap to take an 8 to 7 decision.

Splashing through rain and mud, the Toledo Mudhens showed St. Paul fans why they are so named by defeating the Saints, 5 to 1. The Mudhens obtained only

AUTO DRIVERS PAY 5 CENTS AT BALL PARK

Nickle Charge For Cars Entering Playing Field Invoiced By Hammel.

George E. Hammel, secretary of the recreation ball league, announced today that a charge of five cents per car will be made on machines entering the Southern Ohio Electric Co. field where the league's games are played.

A rope has been placed at the entrance to the park and will be dropped as each car goes through. Tonight finds the Pickaway Dairy and league-bidding Cities Service Oils teams tussling in what should be a good encounter.

ASHVILLE DIVIDES

Geoffrey Sticker's Ashville ball club learned Sunday afternoon that Gahanna was not an invincible ball club but only after the league leaders had won the first game of a thrilling doubleheader. Lefty Swinehart, Capital university luminary, gave the Gahanna team only six hits, spaced them well and handed the invaders a row of blanks to win, 4 to 0.

Gahanna's moundsman, Southard, was too tough in the first and Art Meier, Ashville right hander, was beaten 3 to 1. Southard gave only six hits while Meier was touched for nine.

Gahanna remains in the league lead.

Other results were: Columbus Police, 4-12, and Erie, 3-7.

Derby, 6-7; Grove City, 0-5.

CUBS BEAT TARTLTON

Bill Howie's Cubs turned back the Tartlton hard ball team Sunday in a well-played 6 to 4 game on the SOElectric Co. lot. Harry Strasser and Everett Whaley took turns on the mound and did well for the Cubs while Spangler and Kuhn performed for the invaders.

Next Sunday the Cubs will tangle with the Jones Specials on the utility field.

six hits off three Saint pitchers but batted safely in the pinches. Louisville and Milwaukee split their double-header, the Colonels winning the opener, 5 to 4, in 35 innings while the Brewers took the second contest 5 to 8. The opener was the longest game of the season thus far.

Braxton went the entire route for the Brewers in the lengthy battle while Louisville used Tising and Bass on the mound the latter receiving credit for the win.

TIE SCORE

The foreman was going, from one man to another with a sheet of paper. When he came to Sandy McKee, he said:

"Sandy, this is a subscription to get a wreath for Jack Stuart, who died last week. All your mates have given a dollar toward it."

"Oh, man," replied Sandy, "that'll make me an' Jack square. He owed me a buck."

IT'S UP TO YOU . . .

The CIRCLEVILLE HERALD CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular style of type. The publisher reserves the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy. 9c per line, minimum insertion 3 lines.

3 insertions for the price of 2. 6 insertions for the price of 3. Advertisements ordered for irregular insertions takes the one-time rate. Ads ordered for three or six times and stopped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared and adjustment made at the rate earned. Ads received up to 10:30 A. M. will be inserted the same day. Contract rates will be given on request for reader and classified display advertising.

ERROR IN ADVERTISING should be reported immediately. The Herald will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.

CARD OF THANKS

A charge of 50c is made for Card of Thanks. OBITUARY

A charge of 8c is made for obituary. SPECIAL ADVERTISING AS given prompt attention. Phone 782.

Announcements

10—Lost, Strayed, Found

LOST—Dunch of keys and CHS '33 class ring. Finder return to Herald office. —10

Automotive

11—Automobiles for Sale

'29 Chrysler coach $165; '32 Reo coupe $335; '28 Whippet coach, like new, $85; '30 Austin coupe, new tires $85; '29 Pontiac coach $135, real buy. Several others at low prices. J. C. Moats, Used Car Lot, Corwin & Clinton. —13

Business Service

18—Business Service Offered

KODAK FILMS developed and printed. 25c. for any size. Ebert's Soda Grill. —18

JOE PRINTING—Done at Fair Prices. Let us do your next printing job, quality and Service Always. THE HERALD Job Shop. Phone 782. —18

Employment

23—Help Wanted—Male

WANTED TUESDAY—20 boys to weed beets. Call tonight after 6 p. m. Chas. Gentzel, 428 E. Main-st. —33

Livestock

47—Dogs, Cats, Other Pets

BOSTON/BULL PUPS for sale. Phone 1812. Frank Shoemaker. —47

BULL PUPS FOR SALE—8 wks. old. T. M. Calvert, Phone 8151. —47

49—Poultry and Supplies

SUMMER chicks from our best flocks—Croman's Poultry Farm and Hatchery. Phone 1834. —49

Merchandise

51—Articles for Sale

FOR SALE—Velvet living room suite, Walnut dining room suite, Kitchen cabinet, breakfast set, table, 4 chairs, 50 ft. hose, garden plow, rakes, davenport, table, gas range, porch glider, chest of drawers, bird cage, heating stove, 2 rockers, hot plate, bathroom heater. Reasonable. Leaving town, must sell at once. Inq. 229 Watt-st. —51

FOR SALE—Large refrigerator for store or restaurant. Inf. 159 E. Mound-st. —51

FOR SALE—2 good ice boxes 50 and 75 lbs. Cheap. Phone 694. —51

FLY DED 10c, 20c can fly swatters 5c, 10c, Sprays 10c, 25c. Window screens at lowest prices. Hamilton's Store. —51

FISHING TACKLE Lures, rods, nets, reels, minnow buckets at Barrere & Nickerson. —51

53—Building Materials

Window glass cut any size. Broken panes replaced. Circleville Lumber Co. —53

55—Black and Dairy Products

BLACK raspberries for sale at J. L. May & Son. Phone 3761. —55

57—Good Things to Eat

Ice Cream—"We make our own." Spec. orders solicited. Ph. 145. Sieverts Conf. opp City Hall. 57

64—Specials at the Stores

HOOVER Special cleaners, $21.45 and $29.95. Pettit Tire & Battery Shop. —64

7 cans cold pack cookers $119. Canning supplies of all kinds. Hamilton's Store. —59

66—Wanted to Buy

WANTED TO BUY—Boy's bicycle in good condition. Call 861. —66

You Can't Go Wrong on Using Classified Ads

Real Estate For Rent

68—Rooms Without Board

FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. Modern. Phone 1265. —69

71—Apartments and Flats

FOR RENT—Light housekeeping rooms. Inq. 409 N. Court-st. —74

77—Houses for Rent

FOR RENT—8 room house with bath, furnace, in Park Place. Call 262. —77

WEST HALF of double new modern house for rent on E. Mill-st. Phone 158. —77

Real Estate For Sale

84—Houses for Sale

CITY PROPERTY A dandy 7 room modern frame stucco house with two car garage located on North Court Street priced right. Several other desirable properties. For further information call Circle Realty Co. Masonic Temple, Rooms 3 & 4 Phone 234. —83

83—Farms for Sale

FARMS FOR SALE 190 Acre tract, fair improvements, on a good pike; A dandy Country Home of 100 acres, good location; 60 acre tract, good improvements and location; Many other small and large farms. Circle Realty Co. Masonic Temple, Rooms 3 & 4 Phone 234. —83

FOR SALE OR TRADE

A dandy small modern country home of 30 acres with fine young orchard close to city, priced right. —88

Circle Realty Co.

Masonic Temple

Rooms 3 & 4 Phone 234

84—Houses For Sale

FOR SALE Here is your chance to buy a modern 5 room frame dwelling at 460 North Court Street, under The Federal Housing Act. For information, call 234 or 162. —84

Classified Display

Livestock

STOCK

AUCTION SALE

Every Wednesday

starting 12:30 p. m.

SALES BARN

E. CORWIN ST.

List your stock as early as possible for best service.

ALSO DAILY MARKET SERVICE

Pickaway Co-Op

Livestock

Association

Phone 118

CALL

CIRCLEVILLE

FERTILIZER

Reverse Charges

TEL 1364

Reverse Charges

Circleville, Ohio

E. G. Buchele, Inc.

Business Service

THE FLORENE

BEAUTY SALON

STOUTSVILLE, OHIO

Permanent Waving Complete with Shampoo and Finger Wave

$2.50, $3.75, $5.00

Facials 50c.

Phone 4521 for Appointment.

Jamal

The New

Machine-less

Permanent

$6.50

Phone 178 for Appointment

CRIST BEAUTY

SHOP

Merchandise

WAYNE

STANDARD

Binder Twine

$3.75 per Bale

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Chas. W. Schleich

Phone 1112. Williamsport, O.

If You Want Results

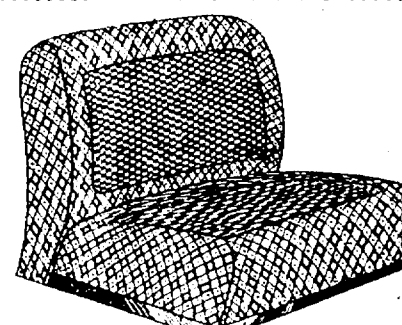

For the past several months The Herald has been printing testimonials in these columns giving proof that Classified advertisers have reaped desired results from even short time use of these columns so now it's up to you.

If you wish to get results use the Classifieds, surely you have the same chance they had. Try it and see the results.

Just call

782 Ad-Taker
HERALD WANT-ADS

Automotive

SEAT COVERS

For All Cars

Prices Ranging From 98c to $15.00.

GORDON

Tires & Accessories

LOUIS' CLIMB TO TOP HURTS CHAMP'S RANK

Report Commission May Force Braddock to Risk Title In December.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Reports were current here today that the New York State Boxing commission would compel James J. Braddock, world's champion heavyweight fighter, to defend his title in December.

Such reports appear to have their foundation in the fact that the sensational rise to prominence of Joe Louis, young Detroit negro who knocked out Primo Carnera last week, has evoked a public clamor that he be given an early chance at the championship.

Although Braddock gained much favorable publicity as "Mr. Family Man" and the incredible hero of a fantastic "rags to riches" romance, his position as the favorite of the boxing fans seems to have been usurped by the spectacular Louis.

It is generally thought by sports writers and men prominent in the boxing world, however, that at least a year will pass before the Detroitier will be given an opportunity to fight for the championship.

NEW YORK, July 1.—On Saturday morning Max Schmeling, in effect, told International News Service in an exclusive interview that he would rather meet Max Baer in Germany or Holland than meet Joe Louis in America or anywhere else, that in any case as far as a Louis fight was concerned, he "would have to think it over." On Saturday evening, Schmeling's step-manager, Joe Jacobs, sailed for Germany, telling everybody that Schmeling had cabled him, accepting terms for Louis in September.

Somebody is obviously wrong and it can't be Schmeling. He couldn't be mistaken on a point like this. He has been told too many times by Jacobs that he, Schmeling, can't even lick Carnera. They are still trying to identify some of the latter's remains, six days after he was knocked stiffer than a length of lineum by Louis. As of 10:28 p. m. last Tuesday.

Kept from Carnera

"I was smart enough to keep Schmeling away from Carnera," Jacobs told the writer recently, "that's one he couldn't have won."

But this was before Louis went over Carnera like an estimate and talk began about a $500,000 or $600,000 gate with Schmeling and Louis in September.

MAXIE PROMISES HE'LL BE GOOD

NEW YORK, July 1.—Ex-heavyweight champion, Max Baer, is going to be a good little boy from now on.

He said so today in no uncertain terms, while his two-day bride, the former Mary Ellen Sullivan, nodded assent.

Max promised that henceforth he'd keep regular hours, attend church, drink no liquor and go to night clubs and other "hot spots" only in the company of his "pumpkins," as he affectionately terms the new missus.

Yesterday morning he attended services at the Roman Catholic church of St. Jean Baptiste and in

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

Reds Bump Cards

The chameleon-like activities of the Cincinnati Reds in regard to the St. Louis Cardinals is surprising. The Reds have long been St. Louis' greatest booster-toward the National league pennant, but Sunday Tony Freitas beat Dizzy Dean, 5 to 2, to give the Rhinelanders three straight games and knock the Cards into a cocked hat.

The streak of Mel Harder, Cleveland hurler, was shattered by a rookie, Kennedy, Sunday for the Chicago White Sox—After Pearson beat the veteran Ted Lyons in the opener Kennedy turned the tables on Harder in the nightcap. The Yankees got beat in a dozen cantos by the Washington team.

Compete for Mashie

Pickaway Country club golfers will vie, Thursday, July 4, for the Cryder Memorial mashie. The mashie is the annual prize to the person winning the low net score in the Fourth of July handicap.

There is much activity on the country club course and many golfers have a chance to cop the mashie.

Ladies Race Day

It was ladies' day at the Lancaster fair grounds today as the running events went into their first full week. The local boys have been good patrons of the track—Joy Sylvester, Italian boater, is leading the riders just ahead of Gonzales. Harold Gover, and Hank Manifold—More horses arrived over the week-end from Dayton and Thistle-down and the events appear to be well on the way.

What of Charge?

Just what the action of Secretary George Hammel of the softball loop, in charging auto drivers to park in the ball field will mean is uncertain at this time. The utility company has been very liberal in permitting use of the field but what it thinks of charging admission to the lot is not known. The reason the charge is deemed necessary is because collections have been too low. This is the first year since the league opened that it has been necessary to charge the public to see the games.

The evening visited a Long Island roadhouse.

"I think marriage is just the thing for me," Maxie explained, seriously. "But about those night clubs, Mary—I really mean to keep out of the honky tonks, but there's no harm in the good places, is there, darling?"

Changing the all-important subject of whether he'll fight again, Maxie maintained a discreet silence.

Mrs. Baer repeated her earlier statement that she "just hates fighting."

If postoffice officials continue to trace down those send-a-dime chains, they'll probably find at the end a bunch of missing links.

New U. S. C. Star

Ken Carpenter

Not all of the University of Southern California's athletic stars are football players. Here is the Trojan's new campus hero—Ken Carpenter, winner of the discus throw in the national collegiate track and field meet in Berkeley, Cal.

MILLERS ADD TO LOOP LEAD

Defeat Columbus; Indianapolis Drops Two to Kansas City Outfit.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—The Minneapolis Millers, through virtue of their 4 to 2 win over Columbus, increased their hold on first place in the American Association and reeled comfortably today with a four and one-half game lead over the second place Indianapolis team which lost two games to Kansas City yesterday.

The second game between the Millers and the Red Birds was postponed after a downpour held up play in the second inning of the opener for over an hour.

The Birds took the lead in the fourth by scoring twice but the Millers tied the count in the sixth and went on to score one run each in the seventh and eighth to win.

The Kansas City Kaws had to go 11 innings to take the opener from the Indians, 3 to 2 and then staged a five run rally in the ninth of the nightcap to take an 8 to 7 decision.

Splashing through rain and mud, the Toledo Mudhens showed St. Paul fans why they are so named by defeating the Saints, 5 to 1. The Mudhens obtained only

AUTO DRIVERS PAY 5 CENTS AT BALL PARK

Nickle Charge For Cars Entering Playing Field Invoked By Hammel.

George E. Hammel secretary of the recreation ball league, announced today that a charge of five cents per car will be made on machines entering the Southern Ohio Electric Co. field where the league games are played.

A rope has been placed at the entrance to the park and will be dropped as each car goes through.

Tonight finds the Pickaway Dairy and league-leading Cities Service Oils teams tangling in what should be a good encounter.

ASHVILLE DIVIDES

GeeSee Stoker's Asheville ball club learned Sunday afternoon that Gahanna was not an invincible ball club but only after the league leaders had won the first game of a thrilling doubleheader.

Lefty Swinehart, Capital university luminary, gave the Gahanna team only six hits, spaced them well and handed the invaders a row of blanks to win, 4 to 0.

Gahanna's moundman, Southard, was too tough in the first and Art Meier, Asheville right hander, was beaten 3 to 1. Southard gave only six hits while Meier was touched for nine.

Gahanna remains in the league lead.

Other results were:

Columbus Police, 4-12, and Erie, 3-7.

Derby, 6-7; Grove City, 0-5.

CUBS BEAT TARLTON

Bill Howe's Cubs turned back the Tarlton hard ball team Sunday in a well-played 6 to 4 game on the SOE Electric Co. lot. Harry Strawser and Everett Whaley took turns on the mound and did well for the Cubs while Spangler and Kuhn performed for the invaders.

Next Sunday the Cubs will tangle with the Jones Specials on the utility field.

six hits off three Saint pitchers but batted safely in the pinches. Louisville and Milwaukee split their double-header, the Colonels winning the opener, 5 to 4, in 15 innings while the Brewers took the second contest 5 to 3. The opener was the longest game of the season thus far.

Braxton went the entire route for the Brewers in the lengthy battle while Louisville used Tising and Bass on the mound the latter receiving credit for the win.

TIE SCORE

The foreman was going from one man to another with a sheet of paper. When he came to Sandy McKie he said:

"Sandy, this is a subscription to get a wreath for Jock Stuart, who died last week. All your mates have given a dollar toward it."

"Och, man," replied Sandy. "That'll make me an' Jock square. He owed me a buck."

IT'S UP TO YOU

The CIRCLEVILLE HERALD CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING INFORMATION RATES

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

5c per line, minimum insertion 3 lines.

3 insertions for the price of 2.

6 insertions for the price of 3.

Advertising ordered for irregular insertions takes the one-time rate.

Ads ordered for three or six times and stepped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared and adjustment made at the rate earned.

Ads received up to 10:30 A. M. will be inserted the same day.

Contract rates will be given on request for reader and classified display advertising.

ERROR IN ADVERTISING

should be reported immediately. The Herald will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.

CARD OF THANKS

A charge of 50c is made for Card of Thanks.

OBITUARY

A charge of $1 is made for Obituary. Telephone ADS given prompt attention. Phone 782.

Announcements

10—Lost, Strayed, Found

LOST—Bunch of keys and CHS '33 class ring. Finder return to Herald office. —10

Automotive

11—Automobiles for Sale

'20 Chrysler coach $165; '32 Reo coupe $385; '28 Whippet coach, like new, $85; '30 Austin coupe, new tires $85; '29 Pontiac coach $135, real buy. Several others at low prices.

J. C. Moats, Used Car Lot, Corwin & Clinton. —13

Business Service

18—Business Service Offered

KODAK FILMS developed and printed. 25c, for any size. Ebert's Soda Grill. —18

JOE PRINTING—Done at Fair Prices. Let us do your next printing job. Quality and Service Always. THE HERALD Job Shop. Phone 782. —18

Employment

23—Help Wanted—Male

WANTED TUESDAY—20 boys to weed beets. Call tonight after 6 p. m. Chas. Gentzel, 428 E. Main-st. —33

Livestock

47—Dogs, Cats, Other Pets

BOSTON BULL PUPS for sale. Phone 1812. Frank Shoemaker. —47

BULL PUPS FOR SALE—8 wks. old. T. M. Calvert, Phone 8151. —47

49—Poultry and Supplies

SUMMER chicks from our best flocks—Croman's Poultry Farm and Hatchery. Phone 1834—49

Merchandise

51—Articles for Sale

FOR SALE—Velvet living room suite, Walnut dining room suite, Kitchen cabinet, breakfast set, table, 4 chairs, 50 ft. hose, garden plow, rakes, davenport, table, gas range, porch glider, chest of drawers, bird cage, heating stove, 2 rockers, hot plate, bathroom heater—Reasonable. Leaving town, must sell at once. Inq. 229 Watt-st. —51

FOR SALE—Large refrigerator for store or restaurant. Inf. 159 E. Mound-st. —51

FOR SALE—2 good ice boxes 50 and 75 lbs. Cheap. Phone 694. —51

FLY DED 10c, 20c can fly swatters 5c, 10c, Sprays 10c, 25c. Window screens at lowest prices. Hamilton's Store. —51

FISHING TACKLE—Lures, rods, nets, reels, minnow buckets at Barrere & Nickerson. —51

53—Building Materials

Window glass cut any size. Broken panes replaced. Circleville Lumber Co. —53

55—Farm and Dairy Products

BLACK raspberries for sale at J. L. May & Son, Phone 3761—55

57—Good Things to Eat

Ice Cream—"We make our own." Spec. orders solicited. Ph. 145. Sieverts Conf. opp City Hall, 57

64—Specials at the Stores

HOOVER Special cleaners, $21.45 and $29.95. Pettit Tire & Battery Shop. —64

7 cans cold pack cookers $1.19. Canning supplies of all kinds. Hamilton's Store. —59

66—Wanted to Buy

WANTED TO BUY—Boy's bicycle in good condition. Call 861. —66

You Can't Go Wrong

on Using Classified

Ads

Real Estate For Rent

68—Rooms Without Board

FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. Modern. Phone 1265. —69

74—Apartments and Flats

FOR RENT—Light housekeeping rooms. Inq. 409 N. Court-st.—74

77—Houses for Rent

FOR RENT—8 room house with bath, furnace, in Park Place. Call 262. —77

WEST HALF of double new modern house for rent on E. Mill-st. Phone 158. —77

Real Estate For Sale

84—Houses for Sale

CITY PROPERTY

A dandy 7 room modern frame stucco house with two car garage located on North Court Street priced right; Several other desirable properties.

For further information call Circle Realty Co. Masonic Temple, Rooms 3 & 4 Phone 234

83—Farms for Sale

FARMS FOR SALE

190 Acre tract, fair improvements, on a good pike; A dandy Country Home of 100 acres, good location; 60 acre tract, good improvements and location; Many other small and large farms. —83

Circle Realty Co. Masonic Temple, Rooms 3 & 4 Phone 234

FOR SALE OR TRADE

A dandy small modern country home of 30 acres with fine young orchard close to city, priced right. —88

Circle Realty Co. Masonic Temple, Rooms 3 & 4 Phone 234

84—Houses For Sale

FOR SALE

Here is your chance to buy a modern 5 room frame dwelling at 460 North Court Street, under The Federal Housing Act.

For information, call 234 or 162. —84

Classified Display

Livestock

STOCK AUCTION SALE

Every Wednesday

starting 12:30 p. m.

SALES BARN

E. CORWIN ST.

List your stock as early as possible for best service.

ALSO DAILY MARKET SERVICE

Pickaway Co-Op Livestock Association

Phone 118

CALL CIRCLEVILLE FERTILIZER

Reverse CHARGES TEL 1364 Reverse CHARGES

Circleville, Ohio E. G. Buchsies, Inc.

Business Service

THE FLORENE BEAUTY SALON

STOUTSVILLE, OHIO

Permanent Waving Complete with Shampoo and Finger Wave

$2.50, $3.75, $5.00

Facials 50c.

Phone 4521 for Appointment.

Jamal

The New Machine-less Permanent

$6.50 Phone 178 for Appointment

CRIST BEAUTY SHOP

Merchandise

WAYNE STANDARD Binder Twine

$3.75 per Bale

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Chas. W. Schleich

Phone 1112. Williamsport, O.

If You Want Results

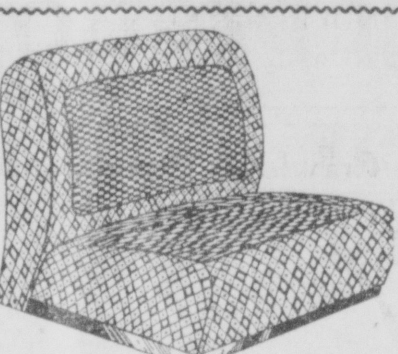

For the past several months The Herald has been printing testimonials in these columns giving proof that Classified advertisers have reaped desired results from even short time use of these columns so now it's up to you.

If you wish to get results use the Classifieds, surely you have the same chance they had. Try it and see the results.

Just call

782 Ad-Taker
HERALD WANT-ADS

Automotive

SEAT COVERS For All Cars

Prices Ranging From 98c to $15.00.

GORDON

Tires & Accessories

432 E. Mound St.

Phone 297.

Financial

FARM LOANS

We are making first mortgage loans on choice farms at 5 per cent interest. Appraisals within one week. Quick closing. No abstract.

Write or Call W. D. HEISKELL Williamsport, Ohio.

Authorized agent for Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

Merchandise

FOR THE BEST LUNCH IN TOWN

Come To

THE MECCA RESTAURANT

128 W. Main St.

We Carry a Complete Stock of Genuine

REPAIR PARTS

FOR IHC IMPLEMENTS

For International TRACTOR USERS

When you have Magneto trouble we loan you a Magneto FREE and repair yours, charging only for cost of making repairs.

HARRY HILL

119 E. Franklin St. Phone 24.

Odin Table Top GAS RANGE

Equipped with Odin's High power economy burners.

A real stove at a real price.

SEE IT IN ACTION AT

J. R. WILSON

Pythian Castle Alley

Dead Stock

PHONE 104

Reverse Charge CHILLICOTHE FERTILIZER

BUY-NOW!

British Golf King

Alf Perry

Sensational 72-hole total of 283, an all time record for championship play, brought Alf Perry, British pro, the British open title at Muirfield, Scotland.

A SPRING ONE

A teacher had been telling her class about the ten commandments. In order to test their memory, she asked: "Can anyone give me a commandment using only four words?"

A hand was raised immediately. "Well?" said the teacher. "Keep off the grass," was the reply.

$1,000 TO $10,000 FIVE YEAR DEBENTURE BONDS 8%.

This business has for the past two years had six-time turn over. Need more capital. Why not investigate or have your attorney do so? Address—34 W. Weisheimer Rd. Columbus, Ohio

Dead Stock

PHONE 104

Reverse Charge CHILLICOTHE FERTILIZER

BUY-NOW!

Standings

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Minneapolis	44	28	.611
Indianapolis	38	31	.551
Milwaukee	36	31	.537
Kansas City	35	31	.530
COLUMBUS	33	35	.485
St. Paul	32	34	.485
Toledo	31	37	.456
Louisville	22	44	.333

NATIONAL

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
New York	44	18	.710
Pittsburgh	39	19	.675
Chicago	36	28	.563
St. Louis	36	29	.554
Brooklyn	29	34	.460
Cincinnati	29	36	.445
Philadelphia	26	38	.406

JUST AMONG US GIRLS

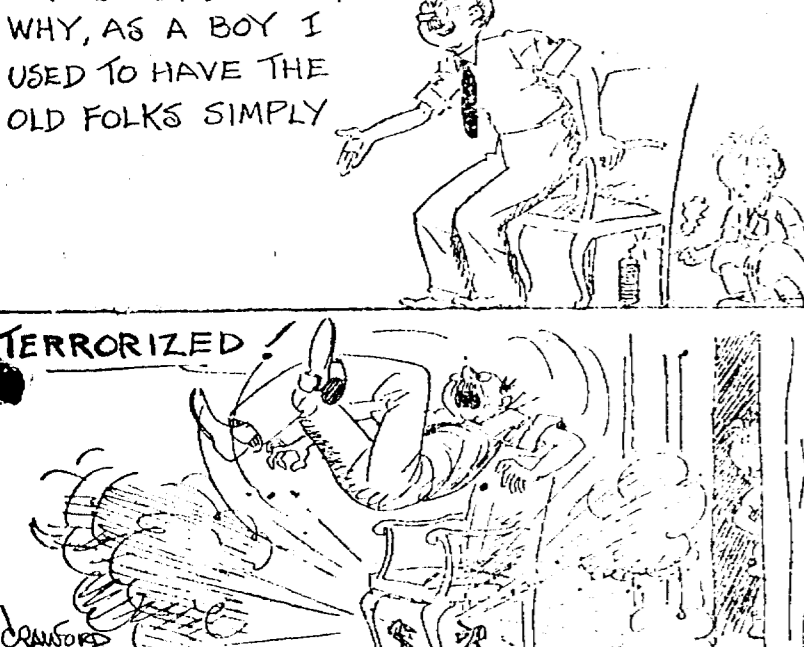

After a man's married, there can be no DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE without FIREWORKS

THE TUTTS

By Crawford Young

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9		10		11			12
13		14		15		16
	17		18		19	20
21		22	23		24	25
26		27		28		29
	30		31		32	33
34		35		36		37
38		39		40		41
42		43		44		45
				46

ACROSS

1—Pound (abbr.)
5—A month
9—Exclamation
10—Fetter
12—Adapt (abbr.)
13—Goddess of harvests
15—It, a (contr.)
16—Girl's name
17—A game of billiards
19—To whirl
21—Pronoun
22—Inflexible
24—A bone (anat.)
26—Conjunction
27—Possessive

DOWN

1—Though (simplified)
2—Occur
3—Master of ceremonies (abbr.)
4—A little islands under protection
6—of U. S. river
7—Article of artillery
8—Female fowl
11—Near
14—Thus

11—Sloth
12—Co-ordinating conjunction
20—Tall (abbr.)
21—Italian electrician
23—A gazelle of Tibet
25—Remaining
29—Senior (abbr.)
30—Mountain

31—Greek letter
32—Author's proof (abbr.)
33—A bird
34—Aluminum (symbol)
42—Exclamation
43—A state of the U. S. (abbr.)

Answer to previous puzzle

F	I	X	G	E	M	E	B
R	O	I	L	I	N	D	I
I	N	U	P	A	O	B	L
T	U	S	S	M	O	W	L
E	L	M	O	E	A	S	T
R	I	A	M	O	A	T	I
M	C	A	N	T	S	T
S	P	E	A	R	T	I	R
E	R	I	G	I	D	I
A	D	O	L	E	S	C	E

Etta Kett

By Paul Robinson

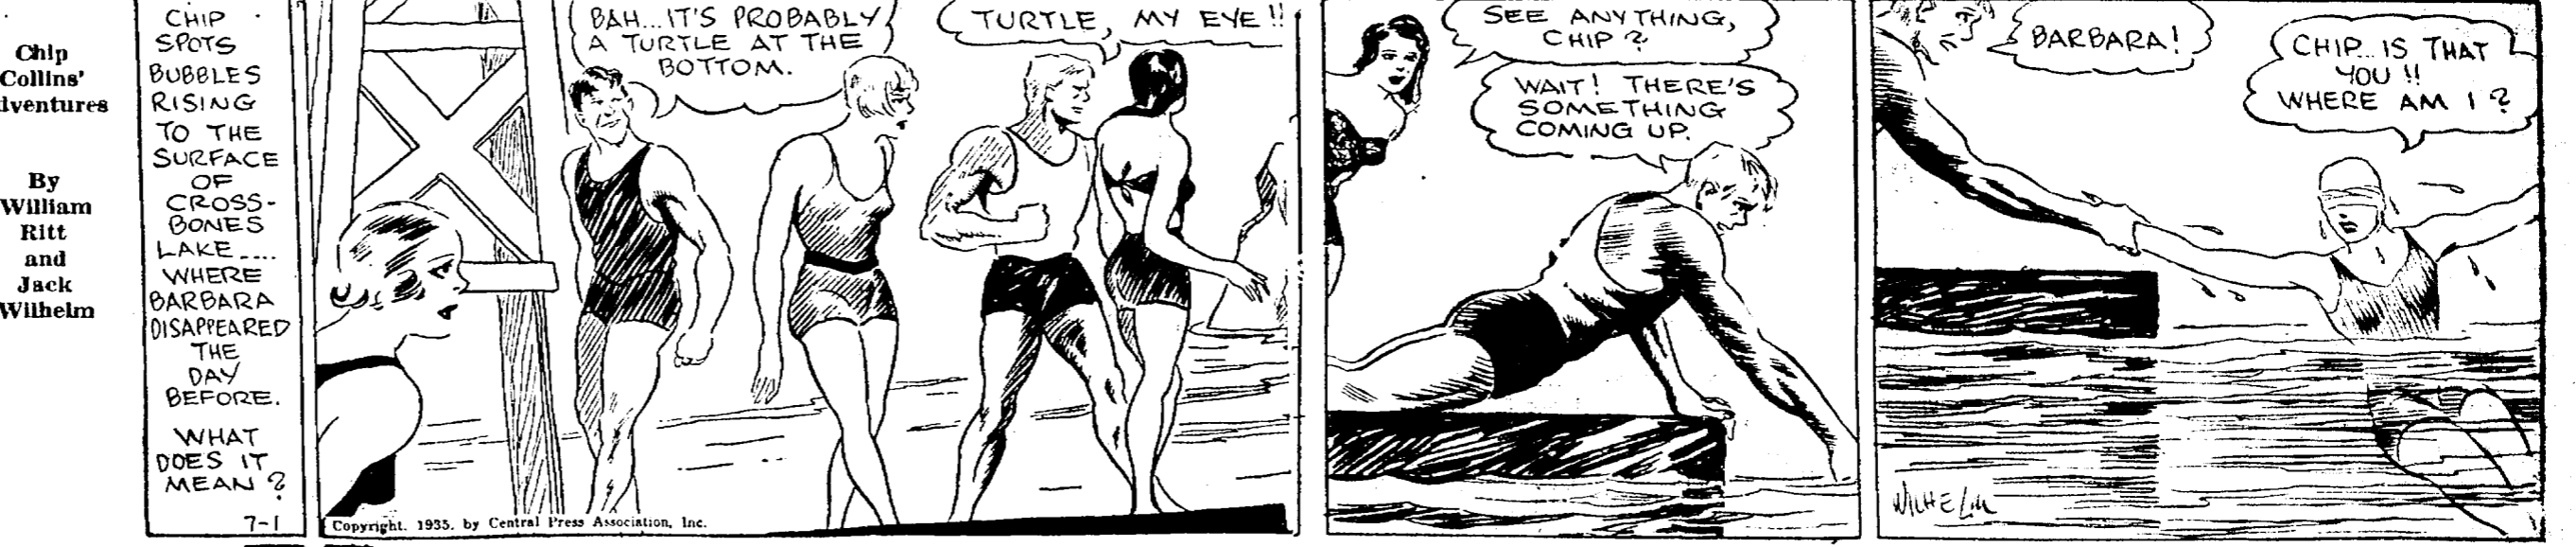

High Pressure Pete

By George Swan

Chip Collins' Adventures

By William Ritt and Jack Wilhelm

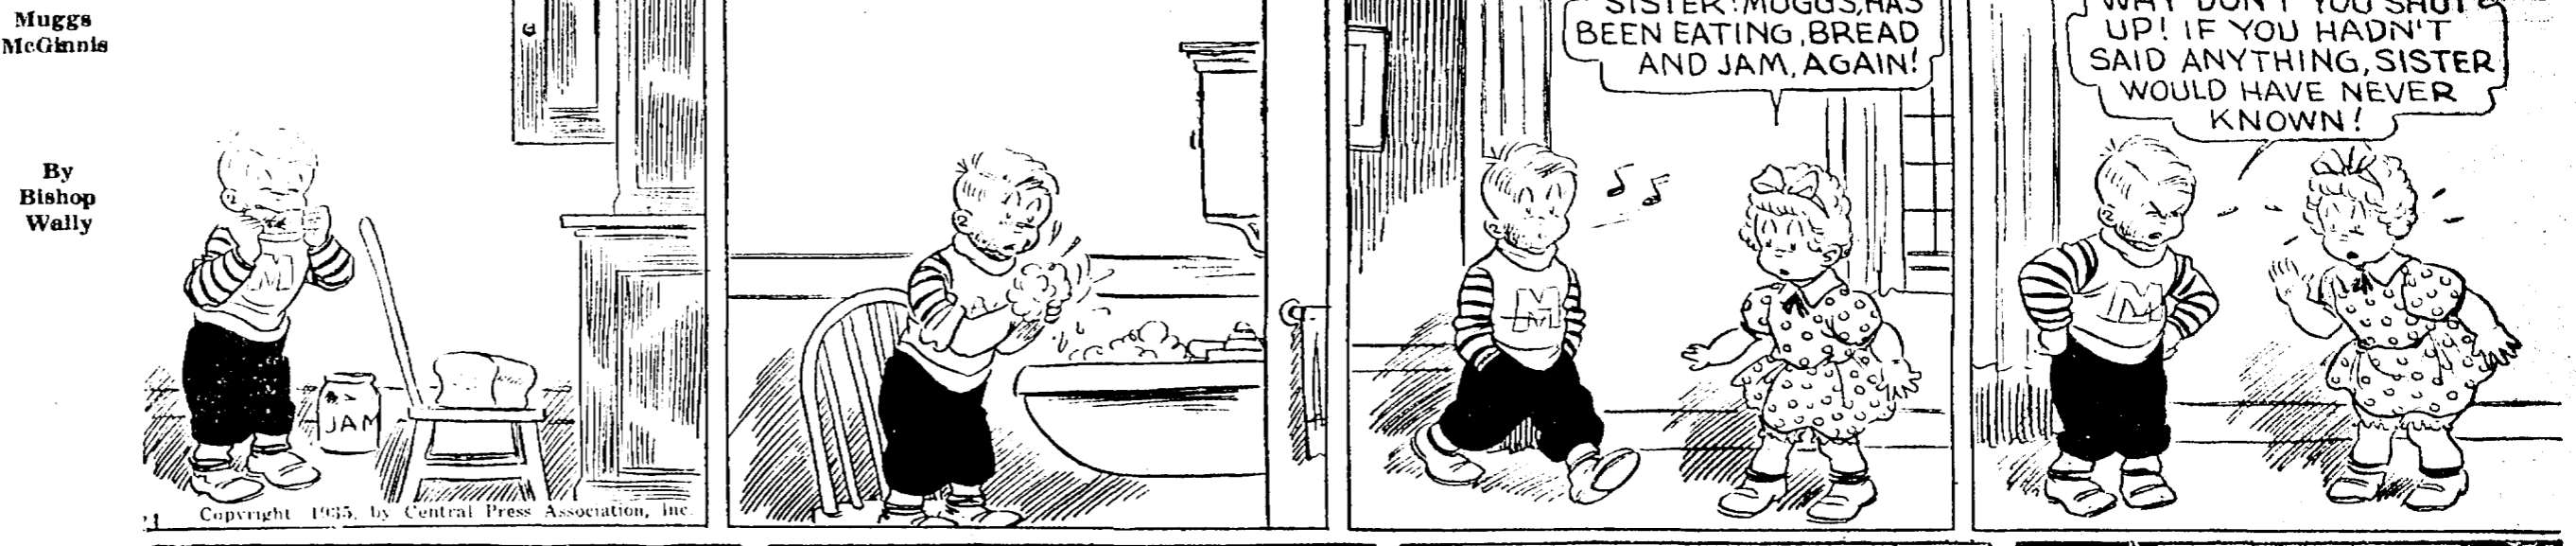

Big Sister

By Les Forgrave

Muggs McGinnis

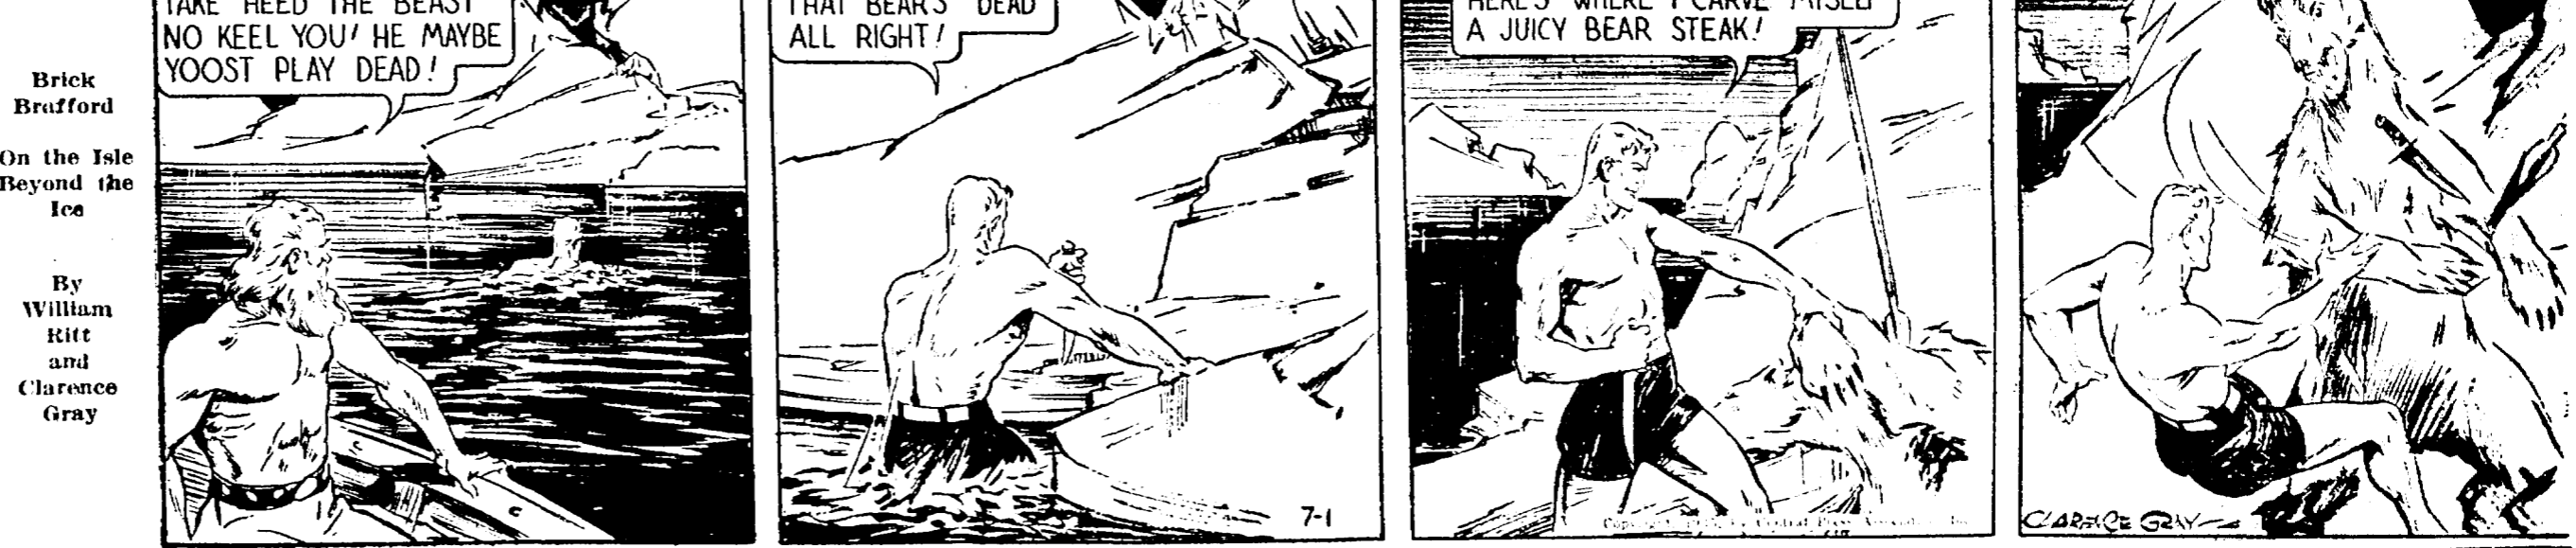

By Bishop Wally

Brick Brufford

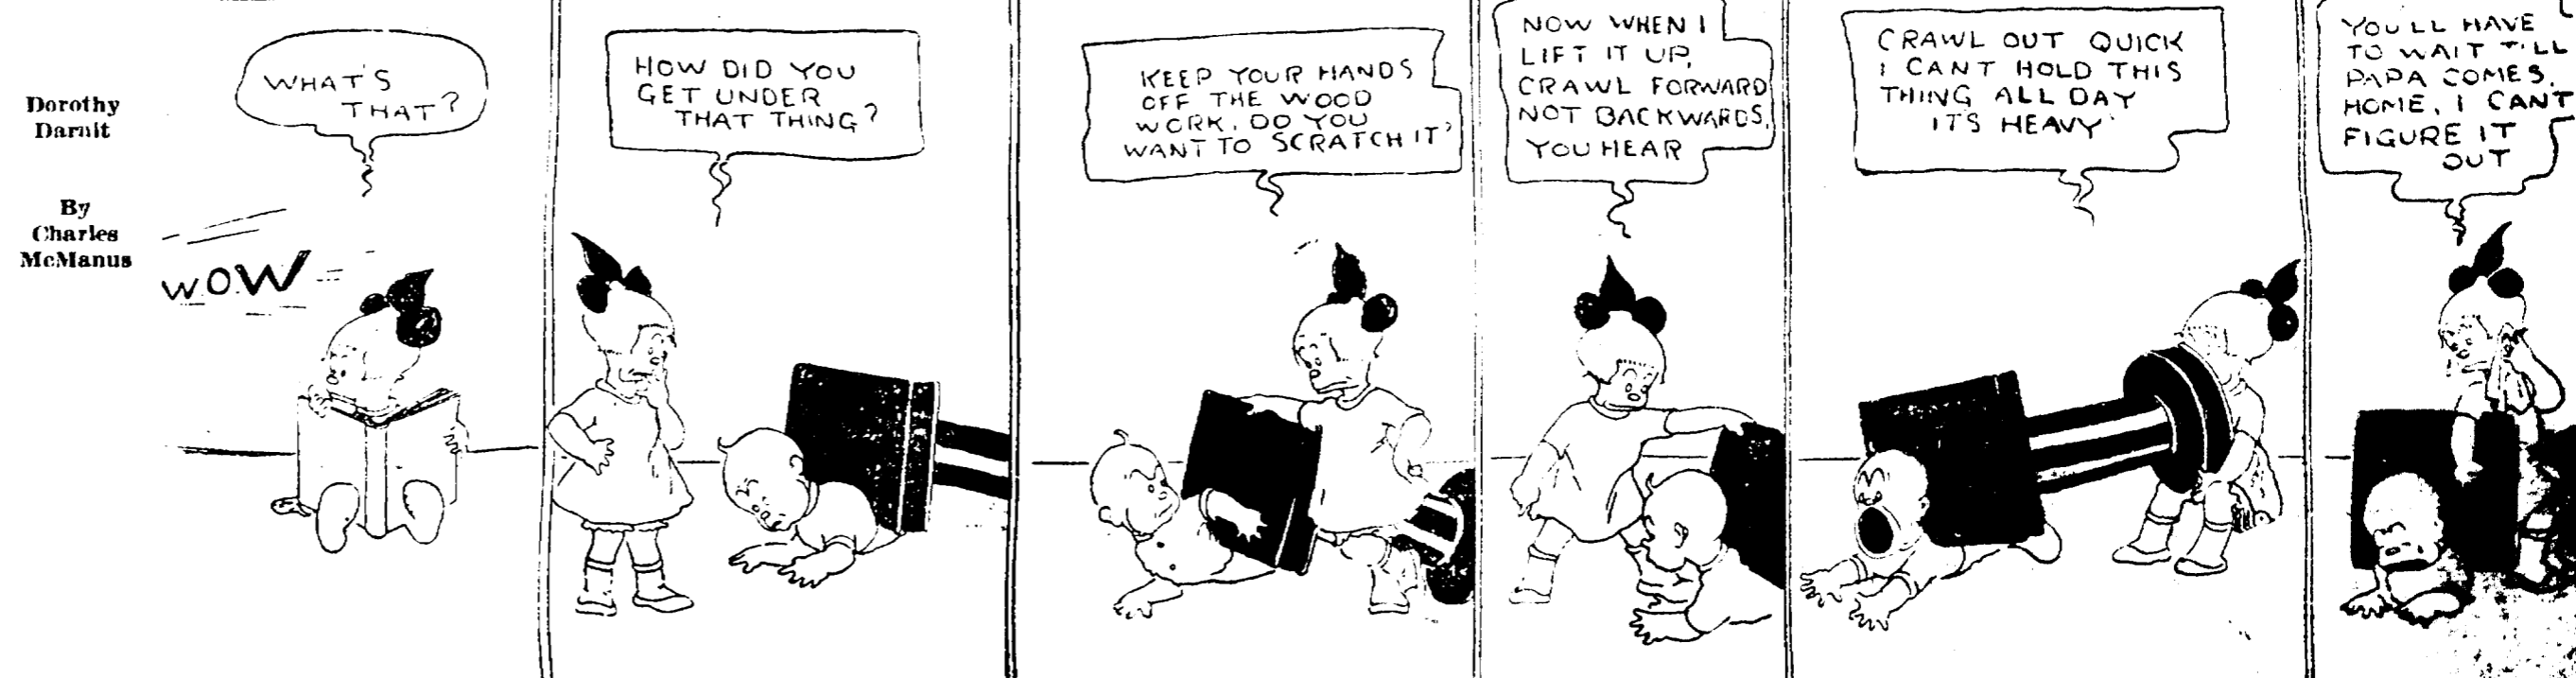

On the Isle Beyond the Ice

By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

Dorothy Darnit

By Charles McManus

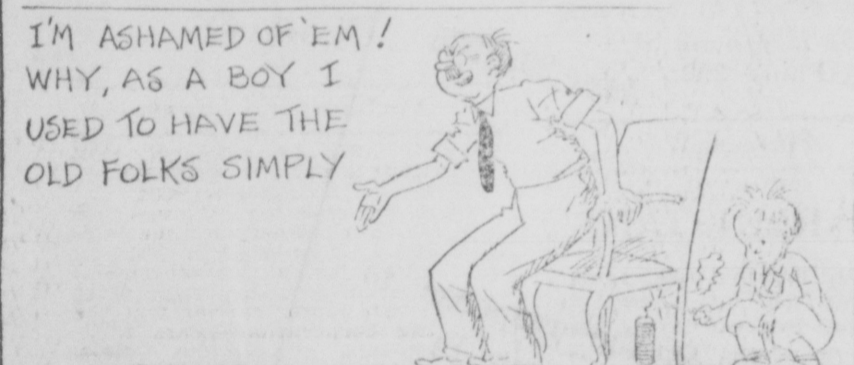

Try a Classified Ad

JUST AMONG US GIRLS

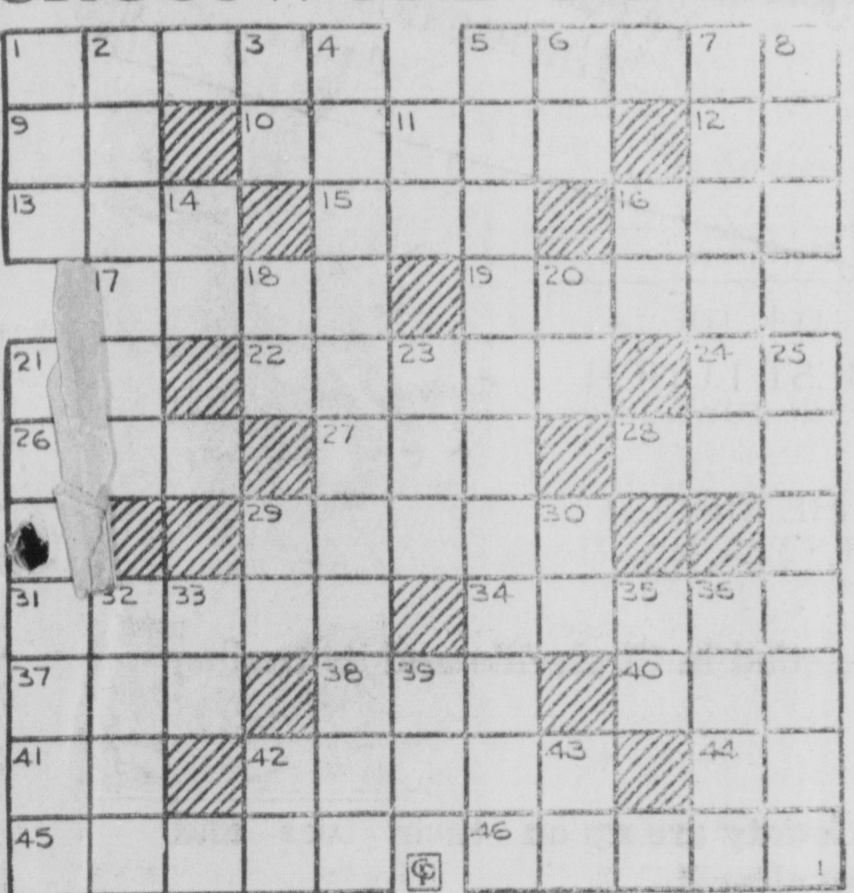

After a man's married, there can be no DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE without FIREWORKS

THE TUTIS By Crawford Young

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

- ACROSS
- 1-Pound (abbr.)
 - 5-A month
 - 9-Exclamation
 - 10-Fetter
 - 12-Aetatis (abbr.)
 - 13-Goddess of harvest
 - 15-It is (contr.)
 - 16-Girl's name
 - 17-A game of billiards
 - 19-To whirl
 - 21-Pronoun
 - 22-Inflexible
 - 24-A bone (anat.)
 - 26-Conjunction
 - 27-Possessive
 - 28-Pismire
 - 29-Paroxysm
 - 31-Island in Naples bay
 - 34-Country in south Europe
 - 37-Japanese sash
 - 38-Short sleep
 - 40-A native Hawaiian food
 - 41-Compass point
 - 42-Assists
 - 44-Upon
 - 45-Mental perceptions
 - 46-Prosting
- DOWN
- 1-Though (simplified)
 - 2-Occur
 - 3-Master of ceremonies (abbr.)
 - 4-Asiatic islands under protection
 - 5-Largest U. S. river
 - 6-Article
 - 7-Piece of artillery
 - 8-Female fowl
 - 11-Near
 - 14-Thus
 - 16-Sloth (abbr.)
 - 18-Co-ordinating conjunction
 - 20-Paid (abbr.)
 - 21-Italian electrician
 - 23-A gazelle of Tibet
 - 25-Remaining
 - 29-Senior (abbr.)
 - 30-Mountain
 - 32-Induced
 - 35-Author's proof (abbr.)
 - 36-A bird
 - 39-Aluminum (symbol)
 - 42-Exclamation
 - 43-A state of the U. S. (abbr.)

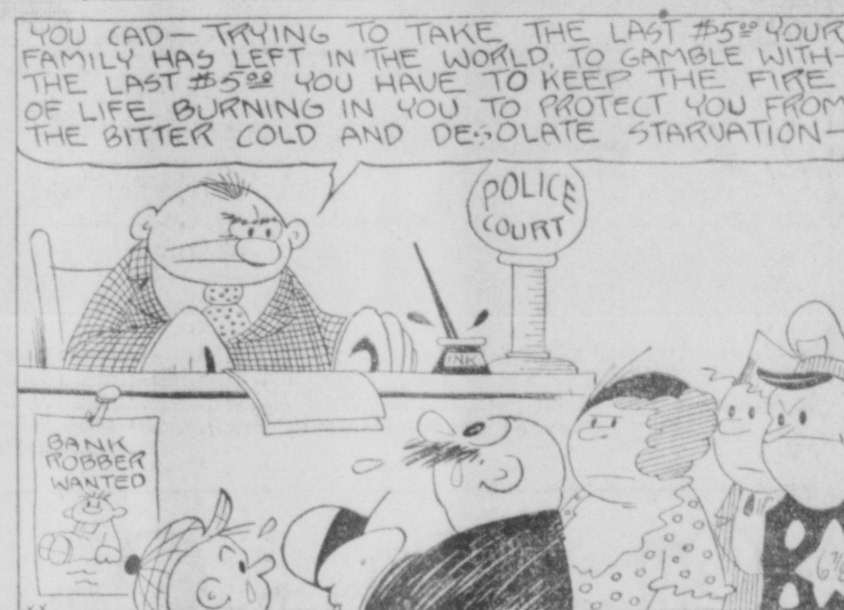

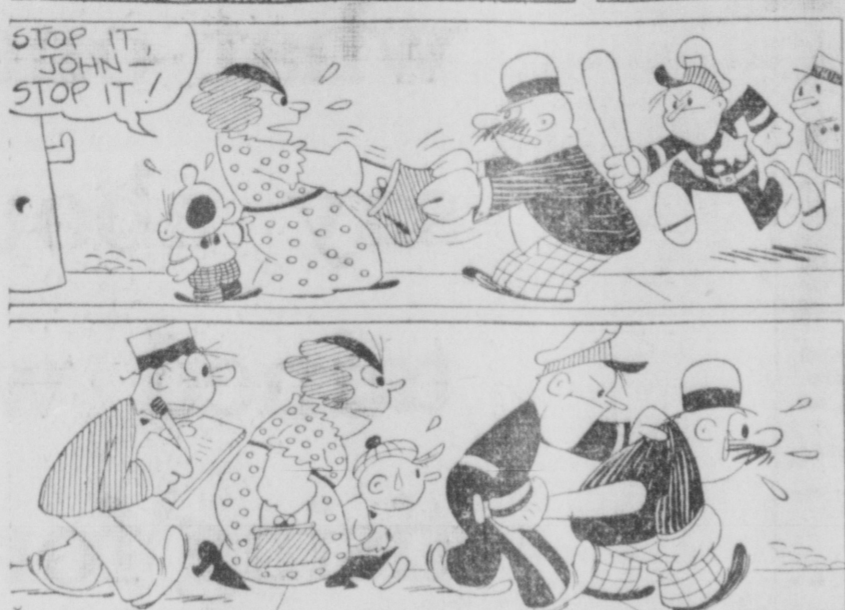

Answer to previous puzzle

FIX	GEM	EBB
ROILY	INDIA
IN	UP	AO
T	USS	MOW
T	STYLISH	C
ELMY	MO	EAST
RIA	MOR	TIS
M	CANTS	T
SPEAR	TIERED
E	RIGID	I
ADOLESCENCE

Etta Kett
By Paul Robinson

High Pressure Pete
By George Swan

Chip Collins' Adventures

Big Sister
By Les Forgrave

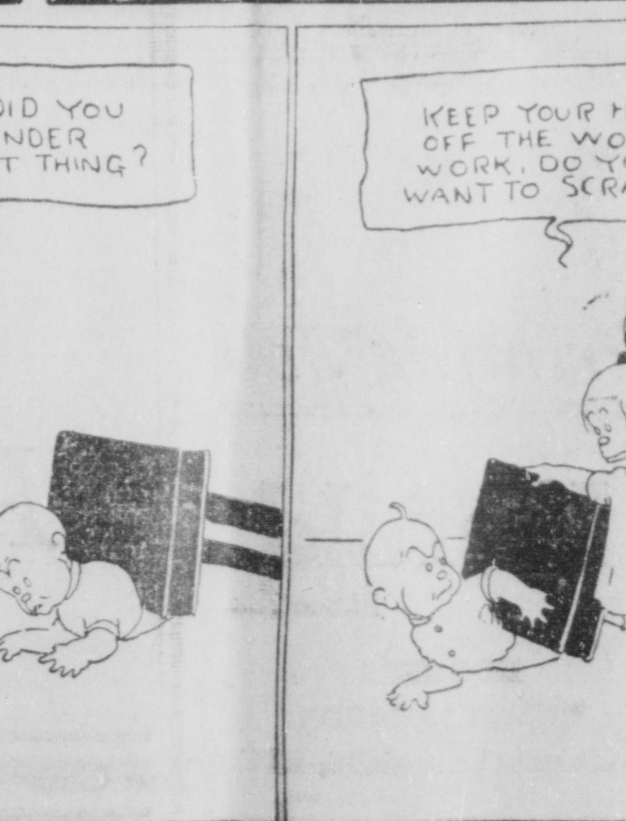

Muggs McGinnis

Brick Bradford
On the Isle Beyond the Ice

Dorothy Darnit

Try a Classified Ad

TRUSTEES APPEAL SLASH TO GOVERNOR

Baker, Others Write to Davey Asking Reconsideration of His Action.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Newton D. Baker and the other trustees of Ohio State university, today appealed to Gov. Martin L. Davey to restore the million and a quarter dollars he slashed from the big school's 1935-36 budget.

Baker directed a letter to the governor after a meeting of the board of trustees.

As passed by the legislature the appropriations bill allocated $7,155,600 to Ohio State for the biennium. Governor Davey reduced this amount to $5,889,100 before signing the measure. This was $17,800 less than appropriated for the previous biennium, the trustees cited.

"The amount voted by the legislature should be made available as necessary for the efficient operation of the university for this two year period," Baker stated in his letter to the governor.

"The board expresses its earnest hope that the governor, now appraised of the emergency confronting the university, may lend this assistance in providing the necessary revenues."

BLINDNESS SAVES LIFE

PARIS—Lel Beno, blind assassin of his baby son and father-in-law, will not be guillotined. The Clemency Commission has commuted his sentence of death to hard labor for life on Devil's Island to avoid the spectacle of a blind man being led to the "Widow."

CENSUS FROM PLANE

JACKSON, Wyo.—There are 22,035 elk in the famous Jackson Hole herd the largest in the country. This was the figure arrived at by a new survey, "the most thorough ever taken." The count was made from airplanes which flew over the herd.

Seek to 'Free' Baby

Mrs. Hudson and Baby

Welfare workers of Muskogee, Okla., have taken steps to have 16-months-old Dell Hudson removed from the city-federal jail where he has been confined with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dell Hudson, since June 14. The Hudsons face kidnapping indictments and possible death sentences under the Lindbergh law following their arrest near Fayetteville, Ark., for the abduction of 13-year-old Lois Eden of McAlester, Okla. Mrs. Hudson is shown holding the baby.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is in your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Can bleed up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, genuine, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing in their power to make the bile flow freely.

Don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Name of the nearest drug store. © 1935 C. M. C.

THREE STORIES OF ATTORNEY'S MURDER GIVEN

(Continued From Page One)

men, all entertainers in cheap beer gardens, were virtually the same with Detective Chief Fred Prahm stating he believed they had been carefully rehearsed in advance.

They said they had started on an automobile ride with Schweitzer and Dickinson after a drinking party in Schweitzer's hotel room. After reaching an isolated spot near Rouge park here, the car was stopped while the girls got out.

They heard the shots but did not see Dickinson die, they claimed. After the shooting, the body of Dickinson was left at the roadside and Schweitzer and the girls, after obtaining clothing, fled to Chicago, hid there in a north side apartment for a day and then fled to Port Wayne separately after Chicago papers played the murder story heavily.

In all of his declarations, Schweitzer claimed that Dickinson was the owner of the death weapon. The gun has not been found. Neither has Schweitzer's car, a dark, 1929 sedan, and Schweitzer refused to say where he had left the machine.

Dickinson's widow and son, the latter Howard, Jr., denied in dispatch to Detroit police that Dickinson had owned a gun.

"He neither owned nor carried one," the widow said.

"And he would not have known how to use one if someone gave it to him," the son added.

According to one version recounted by Schweitzer, Dickinson became alarmed when the car stopped, demanding "What's this all about." Schweitzer claimed the lawyer then drew a gun and shot himself. In another version, the hoodlum said a quarrel climaxed a dice game and Dickinson was shot in a scuffle. In a third story, Schweitzer charged that Dickinson shot himself and that he then shot the attorney twice again.

"Mr. Cinderella"

dy Duchin, just a Boston drug-clerk until his jazz piano-playing won a radio and stage fame and direction of a popular dance orchestra, a Marjorie Gersbach, a New York Social Registerite debbie, as a bride, after playing a swank social function she attended.

(Central Press)

Marian Martin Pattern

Marian Martin Sew Chart
Complete, Diagrammed Included.
PATTERN 9476

Being "lovely to look at" on a sweltering day is an accomplishment every wise girl values and more often than not the achievement depends entirely upon her clothes. If you happen to be one of those "wise girls" you'll choose a cool washable print in cotton, silk or celanese; send for pattern 9476 and let your nimble fingers do the rest! And they'll find it a delightful task too, running up a feminine model, that so simply combines a becoming neckline with flared or puffed sleeves, eliminating bothersome sleeve fitting. The soft bodice is gathered in the new mode that is so "kind" to your figure. Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9476 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

JUST OUT... MARIAN MARTIN SUMMER PATTERN BOOK... forty enlightening pages to lead your way to Summer Chic! Clothes for every occasion for every member of the family, from the Tiny Tot, the Dashing Deb, the Blushing Bride to the Mature Matron! Every design beautifully illustrated, every pattern so easy even the Beginners are assured of success! SEND FOR YOUR COPY NOW! PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE

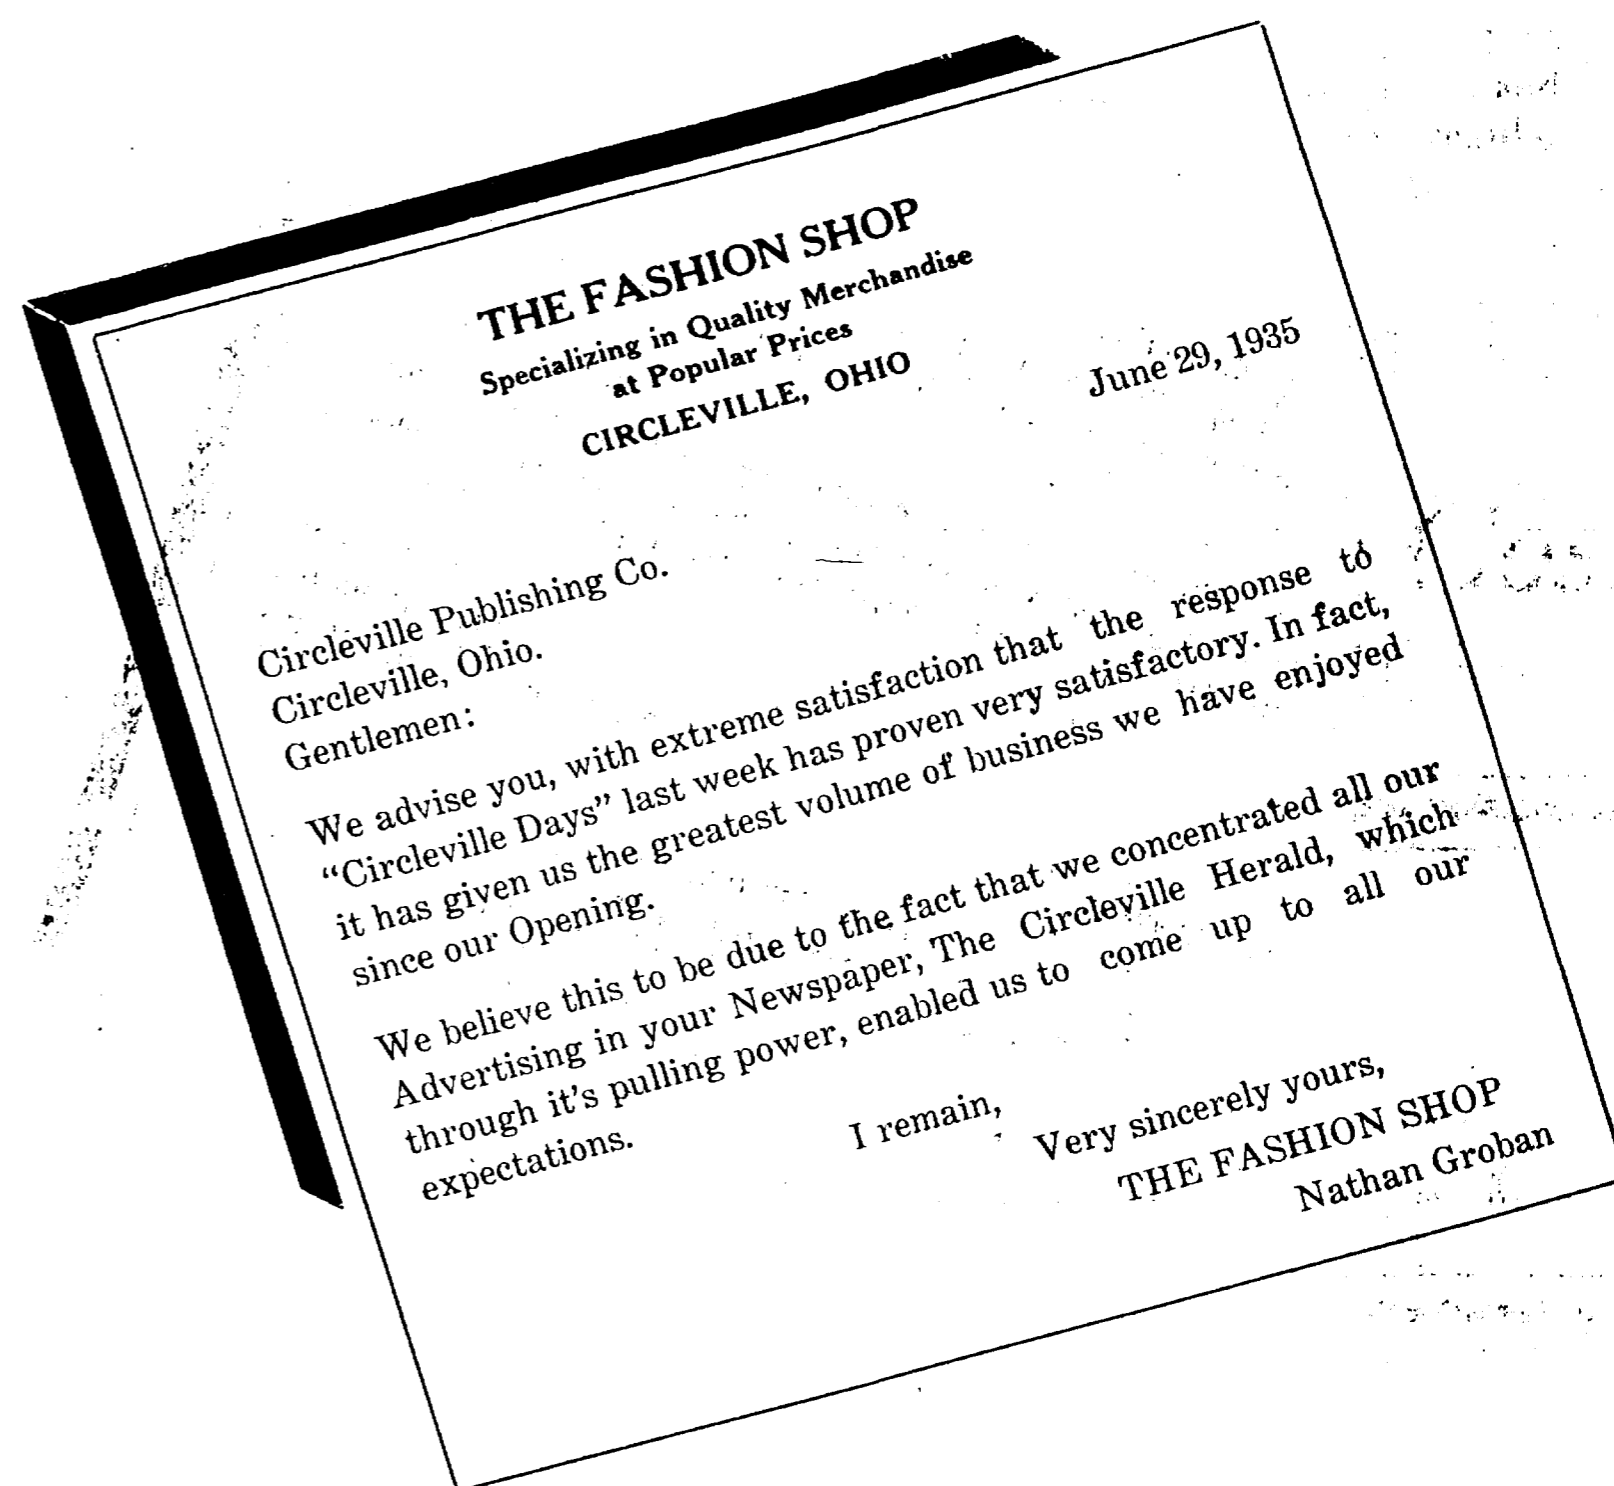

NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern. Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main St., Circleville, O.

—CLASSIFIED ADS BRING RESULTS—

READ...

what one merchant has to say about the results obtained with Herald advertising for "Circleville Days"

THE FASHION SHOP
Specializing in Quality Merchandise at Popular Prices
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

June 29, 1935

Circleville Publishing Co.
Circleville, Ohio.
Gentlemen:

We advise you, with extreme satisfaction that the response to "Circleville Days" last week has proven very satisfactory. In fact, it has given us the greatest volume of business we have enjoyed since our Opening.

We believe this to be due to the fact that we concentrated all our Advertising in your Newspaper, The Circleville Herald, which through its pulling power, enabled us to come up to all our expectations.

I remain,
Very sincerely yours,
THE FASHION SHOP
Nathan Groban

ARE YOU..

RUNNING AT THE NEXT ELECTION?

If you are a candidate for office at the next election, it's not too early to get out your Letters, Cards or other Stationery

Many Year's Experience in Job Printing have prepared us to give your Promotion the Dignity and character necessary to put you in the Running.

See Us for Your Next Printing Job

The Circleville Herald

124 W. Main St.

Phone 782.

LETTER HEADS
FORM LETTERS
BILLS-STATEMENTS

DODGERS
BUSINESS CARDS
CANDIDATE CARDS, ETC.

Here's concrete evidence that business is good in Circleville and its trading area.

Yes indeed... Circleville and Pickaway County are up on their toes and there is business for the merchants who go after it.

THE HERALD now has the largest paid circulation in its history... and this constantly increasing coverage in Pickaway County assures regular advertisers.

Positive Results at Low Cost

OSU TRUSTEES APPEAL SLASH TO GOVERNOR

Baker, Others Write to Davey Asking Reconsideration of His Action.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Newton D. Baker and the other trustees of Ohio State university, today appealed to Gov. Martin L. Davey to restore the million and a quarter dollars he slashed from the big school's 1935-36 budget.

Baker directed a letter to the governor after a meeting of the board of trustees.

As passed by the legislature the appropriations bill allocated $7,155,600 to Ohio State for the biennium. Governor Davey reduced this amount to $5,889,100 before signing the measure. This was $17,800 less than appropriated for the previous biennium, the trustees cited.

"The amount voted by the legislature should be made available as necessary for the efficient operation of the university for this two year period," Baker stated in his letter to the governor.

"The board expresses its earnest hope that the governor, now apprised of the emergency confronting the university, may lend this assistance in providing the necessary revenues."

BLINDNESS SAVES LIFE

PARIS—Lel Beno, blind assassin of his baby son and father-in-law, will not be guillotined. The Clemency Commission has commuted his sentence of death to hard labor for life on Devil's Island to avoid the spectacle of a blind man being led to the "Widow."

CENSUS FROM PLANE

JACKSON, Wyo.—There are 22,035 elk in the famous Jackson Hole herd the largest in the country. This was the figure arrived at by a new survey, "the most thorough ever taken." The count was made from airplanes which flew over the herd.

Seek to 'Free' Baby

Mrs. Hudson and Baby

Welfare workers of Muskogee, Okla., have taken steps to have 16-months-old Dell Hudson removed from the city-federal jail where he has been confined with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dell Hudson, since June 14. The Hudsons face kidnaping indictments and possible death sentences under the Lindbergh law following their arrest near Fayetteville, Ark., for the abduction of 13-year-old Lois Eden of McAlester, Okla. Mrs. Hudson is shown holding the baby.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of cheap imitations.

Detroit 1, St. Louis 4, Philadelphia 10, Boston 9, Washington 8, New York 7, (12) men at entertainers in cheap beer gardens, were virtually the same with Detective Chief Fred Frahm stating he believed they had been carefully rehearsed in advance.

THREE STORIES OF ATTORNEY'S MURDER GIVEN

(Continued From Page One)

They said they had started on an automobile ride with Schweitzer and Dickinson after a drinking party in Schweitzer's hotel room. After reaching an isolated spot near Rouge park here, the car was stopped while the girls got out.

They heard the shots but did not see Dickinson die, they claimed. After the shooting, the body of Dickinson was left at the roadside and Schweitzer and the girls, after obtaining clothing, fled to Chicago, hid there in a north side apartment for a day and then fled to Port Wayne separately after Chicago papers played the murder story heavily.

In all of his declarations, Schweitzer claimed that Dickinson was the owner of the death weapon. The gun has not been found. Neither has Schweitzer's car, a dark, 1929 sedan and Schweitzer refused to say where he had left the machine.

Dickinson's widow and son, the latter Howard, Jr., denied in dispatch to Detroit police that Dickinson had owned a gun.

"He neither owned nor carried one," the widow said. "And he would not have known how to use one if someone gave it to him," the son added.

According to one version recounted by Schweitzer, Dickinson became alarmed when the car stopped, demanding "What's this all about." Schweitzer claimed the lawyer then drew a gun and shot himself. In another version, the hoodlum said a quarrel climaxed a dice game and Dickinson was shot in a scuffle. In a third story, Schweitzer charged that Dickinson shot himself and that he then shot the attorney twice again.

"Mr. Cinderella"

Judy Duchin, just a Boston dress-clerk until his jazz piano-playing won a radio and stage fame and direction of a popular dance orchestra, a marriage with (left) New York Social Registerite Debbie, as a bride, after paying a swank social function she attended. (Central Press)

Marian Martin Pattern

Marian Martin Sew Chart Complete, Diagrammed Included.

PATTERN 9476

Being "lovely to look at" on a sweltering day is an accomplishment every wise girl values and more often than not the achievement depends entirely upon her clothes. If you happen to be one of those "wise girls" you'll choose a cool washable print in cotton, silk or celanese; send for pattern 9476 and let your nimble fingers do the rest! And they'll find it a delightful task too, running up a feminine model, that so simply combines a becoming neckline with flared or puffed sleeves, eliminating bothersome sleeve fitting. The soft bodice is gathered in the new mode that is so "kind" to your figure. Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9476 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

JUST OUT... MARIAN MARTIN SUMMER PATTERN BOOK... forty enlightening pages to lead your way to Summer Chic! Clothes for every occasion for every member of the family, from the Tiny Tot, the Dashing Deb, the Blushing Bride to the Mature Matron! Every design beautifully illustrated, every pattern so easy even the Beginners are assured of success! SEND FOR YOUR COPY NOW! PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE

NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

9476

Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

—CLASSIFIED ADS BRING RESULTS—

ARE YOU..

RUNNING AT THE NEXT ELECTION?

If you are a candidate for office at the next election, it's not too early to get out your Letters, Cards or other Stationery

Many Year's Experience in Job Printing have prepared us to give your Promotion the Dignity and character necessary to put you in the Running.

See Us for Your Next Printing Job

The Circleville Herald

124 W. Main St.

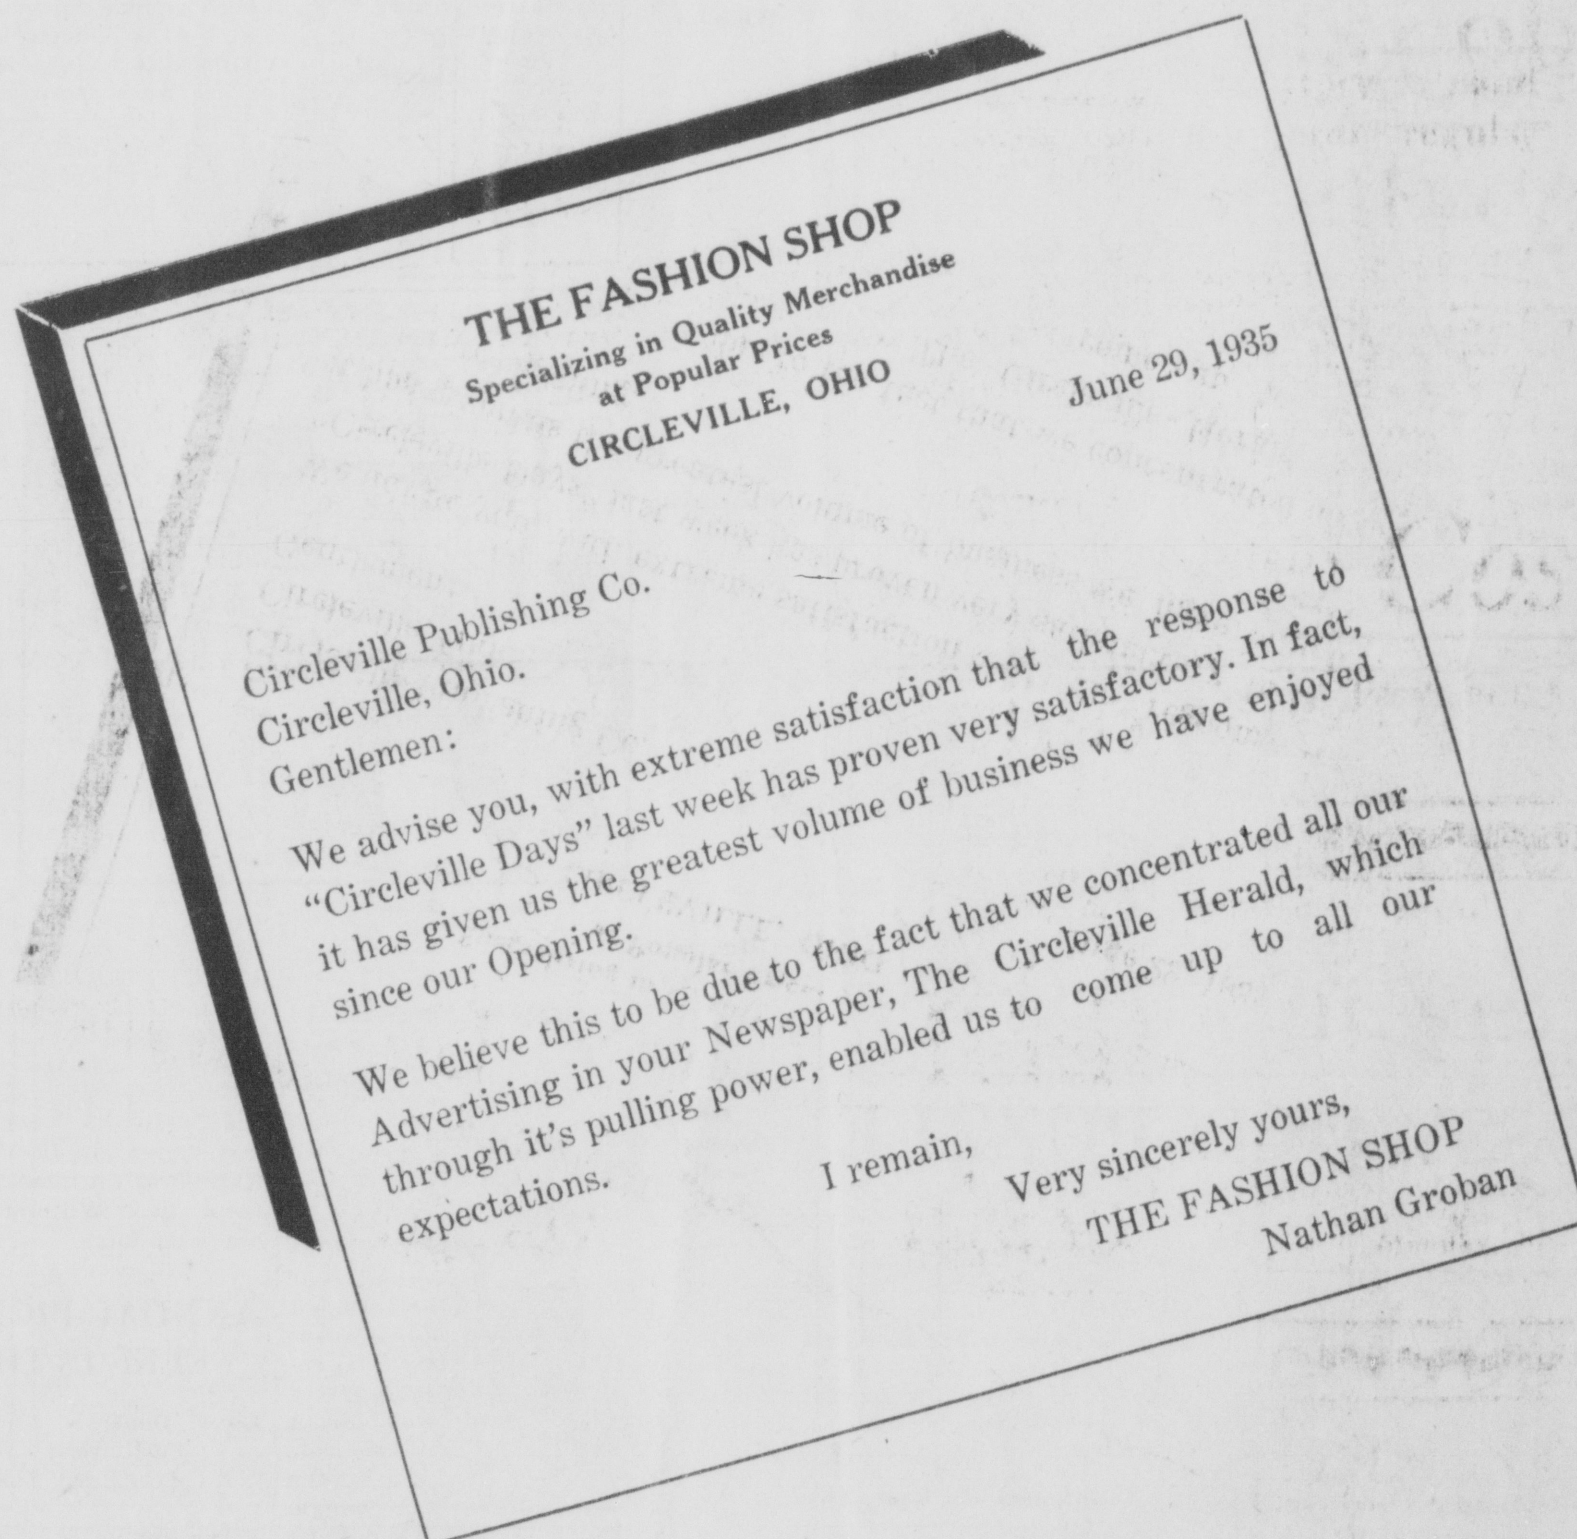

Phone 782.

LETTER HEADS
FORM LETTERS
BILLS-STATEMENTS

DODGERS
BUSINESS CARDS
CANDIDATE CARDS, ETC.

READ...

what one merchant has to say about the results obtained with Herald advertising for "Circleville Days"

Here's concrete evidence that business is good in Circleville and its trading area.

Yes indeed . . Circleville and Pickaway County are up on their toes and there is business for the merchants who go after it.

THE HERALD now has the largest paid circulation in its history . . and this constantly increasing coverage in Pickaway County assures regular advertisers.

Positive Results at Low Cost